LEROY B. MARTIN

LeRoy Brown Martin was born February 22, 1900, in Hamptonville, Yadkin County, North Carolina, the son of Asbury Jackson Martin and Victoria Brown Martin. His great grandfather, William Green Brown, was a pioneer Baptist preacher and led in the organization of many churches and associations in the Yadkin region of North Carolina. An uncle, Santford Brown, left North Carolina in his youth and went to Missouri where he became the organizer and first editor of Word and Way, the official publication of Missouri Baptists.

Mr. Martin was one of nine children, five sons and four daughters. For more than thirty years his older brother, Santford Martin, was editor of the daily papers in Winston-Salem and a leading Baptist layman and educator. For several years another brother, Zeno Martin, served as business manager of Meredith College. Two brothers, Joseph and Albert, are principals of large high schools in North Carolina. All five were graduates of Wake Forest College.

On August 14, 1925, LeRoy Martin and Elva Alice Arnold of Elkin were married. Mrs. Martin and three children live in Raleigh. Dr. LeRoy Brown Martin, Jr., is a member of the faculty at North Carolina State College and Dr. Sidney Arnold Martin is a physician. Miss Alice Victoria Martin is a senior at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro.

Mr. Martin did his preparatory study at Buies Creek Academy, now Campbell College, and was graduated from Wake Forest College in the class of 1926. While a student in college, he served as a clerk in the North Carolina Senate; and for several sessions, through 1933, he was principal clerk of the North Carolina Senate.

Following graduation from college he returned to Campbell College as teacher and coach, but got a leave to return to his duties in the Senate during the session of 1927. In this session there was organized the North Carolina State Board of Equalization for the equitable distribution of state funds for public schools. On July 1, 1927, Mr.

Martin became the first executive secretary of this state agency, and continued to serve in this capacity until June 30, 1935.

From 1935 to the date of his death, March 10, 1961, Mr. Martin was vice-president and trust officer in the Raleigh branch of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company. For more than a quarter of a century he was regarded by his associates and all others who knew him as one of the outstanding bankers and financial leaders in North Carolina. In such official capacity he served as a trustee and official on many boards of leading business and industrial operations.

In 1938, Mr. Martin was appointed a member of the Board of Trustees of the Raleigh City Schools, and for twenty-two years was recognized in Raleigh and throughout the state as one of the leaders in public schools. In recognition of these services, three years ago one of the new junior high schools in Raleigh was named the LeRoy Martin Junior High School. Few men have had so much to do with shaping the policies of public education in North Carolina in the last thirty-five years as did LeRoy Martin. In addition, he also worked tirelessly for the development of North Carolina State College, serving on numerous important committees in connection with State College.

Although Mr. Martin never sought political office or recognition, he was active in every significant political move for the last forty years. Those with views and opinions different from his were aware of his ability as a leader.

No true evaluation of Mr. Martin can be made without recognizing him as one of the most dedicated and active Baptist laymen in North Carolina. He was among the first members of the Hayes Barton Baptist Church, Raleigh, where he was active as a deacon, teacher in the Sunday School, and trustee. He rarely missed an annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention and served continuously as a trustee of one of the Baptist colleges and member of every important convention committee, as well as the General Board of the Baptist State Convention. At the time of his death he was serving as a member and vice-chairman of the Convention Committee on Advance Program for the Seven Baptist Colleges and Student Work, and as president of the Board of Trustees of Meredith College. Of particular significance was his assistance in all financial matters. It was he who led his associates in Wachovia Bank and the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company in protecting the good credit of North Carolina Baptists in the depression days of 1930's, and no major financial matter for the Convention escaped his understanding and helpful assistance.

In his home and among his thousands of devoted friends, his advice and counsel were sought and given generously. He died March 10, 1961, and was buried in Raleigh Memorial Park.

LeRoy Brown Martin was a human mystery to everyone who knew him. No one could understand how one person could possess such a wide range of abilities and succeed with such consistency in whatever he undertook. In early life he learned to meet hardships with courage and never to accept defeat. Strong in body, mind, and spirit, LeRoy Martin gave to all of us an enviable record of a successful life.

In Memoriam

MRS. LUCILLE CARPENTER

Mrs. Lucille O'Brien Carpenter was born in Granville County, N. C., September 25, 1895, and died in Rex Hospital, Raleigh, November 11, 1960, after a brief illness. She is survived by her husband, Dr. L. L. Carpenter, former editor of the Biblical Recorder, and two sons, Dr. Robert O'Brien Carpenter of Lexington, Mass., and William L. Carpenter of Greenville, S. C., and six grandchildren.

A graduate of Oxford High School and East Carolina College, she was a teacher prior to her marriage to Dr. Carpenter on September 2, 1919. Her husband's work as a college professor carried them to South Carolina and later to Texas, and during these years Mrs. Carpenter earned the B. A. degree from Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C., and did graduate work at Baylor University.

In 1942 when Dr. Carpenter became editor of the Biblical Recorder, they moved back to North Carolina and made their home in Raleigh. From that time until her death Mrs. Carpenter was active in the Baptist life of North Carolina, in her church, association, and on the statewide level. In her church, First Baptist of Raleigh, she taught in Sunday school, was active in Woman's Missionary Union, sang in the choir, and served in other ways. For a time she was superintendent of the WMU of the Raleigh Association, and she taught mission study courses in many of the churches. As an Approved Worker of the State Sunday School Department, she visited churches across the state, touching many lives with her influence.

Always alert and enthusiastic, Mrs. Carpenter gave her time and energy unstintingly to other worthy causes in the community as well as to church work. She was especially active in the work of the Raleigh YWCA and of the Raleigh Chapter of the American Association of the United Nations. In other organizations she gave her wholehearted support to work for brotherhood and fair treatment for people of all races and creeds. With all her other activities, she found time for personal acts of kindness, such as sharing the flowers she grew with shut-ins and with other friends. Until her last brief illness her life was full and rich in service.

Report of Secretary of Missions

The Baptist Jubilee Advance theme for 1962 is "My Church Reaching Out." This is a challenging theme and deserves our highest loyalty and strongest effort. Ever since Dr. C. C. Warren presented the challenge of 30,000 new preaching places by 1964 to the Southern Baptist Convention in 1956, we have had a growing concern to have a share in this "reaching out."

Actually this theme needs to be interpreted in at least two ways: First, to establish new missions and churches where needed, second "reach out" with an intensive effort to enlist in the service of Christ the unenlisted members of our churches.

Let us take a close look at this business of starting new missions and new churches. This is a cooperative task between the churches and the association. Starting missions—whose responsibility? Someone says, "our church has voted to help the missionary start a new mission." Someone else says, "our missionary is responsible for getting this mission started."

If these statements mean what they seem to mean, then churches need to re-think their relationship to the starting of new missions. It is not the church that helps the missionary and missions committee start missions, but actually the missionary and missions committee should be there to help the church. Starting missions is no more the private domain of the missionary and missions committee than the winning of lost souls is the private world of the pastor.

In this cooperative effort of starting new missions, there is a place for the Associational Missions Committee and the Missionary to assist the church, but the church ought not to sit back and wait for "someone else" to do all the planning and preparing for them.

The churches of the Raleigh Association have achieved a new record in the support of associational missions during the past year. The financial record does not tell the full story, but this is what it says in a partial way: Forty churches gave more than ever, twenty-two gave the same as last year, sixteen gave less than last year, and four gave nothing. 1962 will present a real challenge for our churches to reach the associational budget goal of $30,000.

Various factors will tend to cut back gifts to associational missions during 1962. All of our churches, institutions and agencies face dire financial needs at the present and for the future. A smaller support of associational missions is not the answer to these long-range needs. What the churches of our association do for the World Missions through the Cooperative Program is to a degree determined by our interest and activity in local Missions.

The thousands of unenlisted church members in our association may be looked upon as either a problem or a challenge. Looked upon as a challenge these unenlisted church members constitute a potential new thrust in Bible study, soul-winning and tithing. "As churches and as a denomination we must cultivate a new compassion in depth, a compassion that loves the unenlisted as much as it loves the unsaved." No longer should we look to 35 percent of the members of our churches to do 95 per cent of the work and give almost 100 per cent of the church budget. Many of our churches have found that Christians will respond to a church-wide program of expansion and enlistment. Integration of all church members into the total life of the church is, in essence, our genuine opportunity for revival.

CONSTITUTION FOR THE RALEIGH BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I—NAME

This body shall be known as The Raleigh Baptist Association of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II—PURPOSE

The purpose of this association shall be (1) the cultivation of closer bonds of fellowship, sympathy, mutual understanding and brotherly love; (2) the counseling together in plans and programs for the strengthening and enlargement of God's Kingdom; and (3) the promotion of Evangelism, Missions, Education, Social Service and Benevolences through the Associational, State Convention and Southern Convention Programs.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section A. The association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area served by this association.

Section B. Any church applying for membership in the association shall be received under the watchcare for a period of time sufficient to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist church. A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Membership Committee of the association. If, in the judgment of the Membership Committee and The Executive Council, such church has met the requirements listed above, by the next regular meeting of the association, the Membership Committee may recommend through the Executive Council that such a church be received into the association without further delay.

Section C. The association shall have full right to withdraw fellowship from any church whose course of conduct is uncooperative.

Section D. Any church may withdraw from the association at its pleasure.

ARTICLE IV—MEETINGS

Section A. The Association shall convene in Annual Session on the last Thursday and Friday of October in each year.

Section B. Each church shall be entitled to one messenger for every 25 members, with sixteen being the maximum sent from any church.

Section C. All pastors of churches in the association shall be recognized as messengers in addition to those specified above.

Section D. The Association, when convened in meeting, shall have no power to infringe on any of the internal rights of the churches; it may advise with the member churches and recommend measures of usefulness for their adoption, and may claim for itself, its objects and programs, the highest consideration.

Section E. In case of emergency the Executive Council is empowered to change the time or place of meeting or call a special session of the Association.

ARTICLE V—DEPARTMENTS

The Association shall promote an aggressive program of teaching, training, Evangelism, Mission and Stewardship Emphasis through the following departments: The Sunday School Department; The Training Union Department; The Brotherhood Department; The Music Education Department. The Woman's Missionary Union shall be recognized as an auxiliary to the Association.

ARTICLE VI—OFFICERS

The Officers of the association shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of The Sunday School Department, a Director of The Training Union Department, a President of The Brotherhood Department, a Director of the Department of Music Education and three Trustees. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in Annual Session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE VII—COMMITTEES

The association shall have the Standing Committees listed below along with any other committees authorized by the association. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in annual session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next annual session. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

- A. Committee On Committees
- B. Committee On Order Of Business
- C. Committee On Nominations
- D. Committee On Membership
- E. Committee On Evangelism
- F. Committee On Ordination
- G. Committee On Time, Place, Preacher
- H. Committee On Resolutions
- I. Committee on Memorials

ARTICLE VIII—ADMINISTRATION

The Secretary of Missions and other employees of the association shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the association and the denomination. They shall work under the direction of and be subject to the authority of The Executive Council. They shall be nominated by the Executive Committee of The Executive Council, and elected by the association at any annual session, or by The Executive Council if the next annual session of the association is thirty (30) days or more beyond the date on which the employee is nominated.

ARTICLE IX—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council shall consist of all active pastors and one lay member from each member church. The officers of the Association shall be ex-officio members and shall serve as the officers of the Council. In addition the Secretary of Missions and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union shall be ex-officio members. It shall be the duty of the Council to carry forward the work of the Association between sessions and make reports to the Association.

ARTICLE X— ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The Associational Year shall begin on October 1 and end on September 30 of each year.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENT

This Constitution may be amended by the association at any annual session.

BY-LAWS

The work of the Association shall be governed by the following By-Laws:

ARTICLE I—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section A. The Moderator shall preside over sessions of the Association and meetings of the Executive Council. He shall not serve more than two terms in succession.

Section B. The Vice-Moderator shall perform the duties of the Moderator in his absence.

Section C. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep full records of the meetings of the Association and the Executive Council and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and the data from the church letters in an annual report. The Clerk shall further cooperate with the other officers of the Association in promoting the total program of the Association. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association shall direct.

Section D. The Treasurer shall receive, safeguard and disburse all funds of the association. Disbursements shall be made in accordance with the Budget adopted by the association. Non-Budget items must be approved by The Finance Committee of The Executive Council. The Treasurer shall make quarterly reports to the Executive Council and an Annual Report to the Association. He shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Council shall direct. He shall be paid such an honorarium and expenses as the Association may direct.

Section E. The Trustees shall hold title to all property of the association. When authorized by the Executive Council of the association they shall execute notes secured by Mortgages or Deeds of Trust in the purchase of church sites or other property. The Trustees in all acts with respect to property purchased shall be controlled and directed by the Association through its executive council.

Section F. The Superintendent of The Department of Sunday Schools shall promote and supervise the Sunday School Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section G. The President of The Department of Brotherhoods shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood work in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section H. The Director of The Department of Training Unions shall promote and supervise The Training Union Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

ARTICLE II—COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

Section A. The Committee On Committees, consisting of seven members, shall nominate the members of the various Standing Committees and submit them for election by the association.

Section B. The Committee On Order Of Business, consisting of five members, shall prepare the Program for the Annual Session. This suggested Program shall be presented in printed form to the association at the beginning of the Session for action.

Section C. The Committee On Nominations, consisting of three members, shall nominate all Officers as authorized herein and submit them to the association in Annual Session for election.

Section D. The Committee On Membership, consisting of five members, shall review all applications from churches for membership in the association. The Committee shall make a thorough investigation of the petitioning church as to its doctrines, practices, and cooperation with the Baptist Program. A Formal statement of its findings along with its recommendations shall be submitted to the association or The Executive Council as provided herein.

Section E. The Committee On Evangelism, consisting of seven members, shall press an aggressive evangelistic effort within the bounds of the association. This shall be done through the encouragement of revivals in the churches, especially where the need is apparent; the promotion of simultaneous campaigns; and the promotion of evangelistic services in unchurched areas. The Committee shall meet no less than four times annually.

Section F. The Committee On Ordination shall consist of no less than seven members. Churches desiring to ordain ministers who have been called to a specific work are requested to place their candidates before the Committee for examination. After such examination the Committee will make its recommendations to the church.

Section G. The Committee On Time, Place, and Preacher, composed of three members, shall recommend to the association in Annual Session (1) the Time of the next Annual Session, (2) the Place, or Places of meeting, (3) the Preacher and Alternate of the Annual Sermon.

Section H. The Committee On Resolutions, composed of three members, shall review all resolutions referred to it by the association in Annual Session, submitting a report on these, along with other suitable resolutions, before the close of the Session.

Section I. The Committee On Memorials, consisting of three members, shall plan for our beloved dead a memorial service to be conducted during the Annual Session of the association.

ARTICLE III—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section A. The Officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Clerk of the Association.

Theme: Reaching Out for the World

Thursday Evening, October 26, 1961

1. The 156th Annual Session of the Raleigh Baptist Association was called to order by Moderator John M. Simms and the congregation joined in singing "Heralds of Christ" under the able leadership of Eddie Gray, Minister of Music at Temple Church.

2. Glenn Y. Lassiter, Vice Chairman of the Board of Deacons at the host church, conducted the period of devotion, using as his theme the Scriptures as recorded in Mark 1:32-39.

3. A cordial welcome was extended to the messengers and visitors of the Association by A. Douglas Aldrich, Pastor of Forest Hills Church.

4. William Vinson, Chairman of the Committee on Order of Business, was recognized and following a few remarks on the program outline, moved that the order of business as shown on the printed program be adopted and that the messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute a quorum for the transaction of business during the several sessions of the Associational meeting. Motion carried.

5. "Why An Association?" was the theme used by Moderator Simms in his message to the congregation as he brought into sharp focus several vital purposes of the association.

- 1) It serves as a line of communication to the local Baptist churches in this area; 2) it is an avenue of service to some of the smaller churches of the association; 3) it serves a vital purpose by having a planned program of activity through a secretary of missions; and 4) it is a vital organization in our Baptist growth. He asserted that the Association enables us to do together what we could not do separately, and that we should ever be alert to discover the needs of the people. It is a rewarding experience to have a share in the establishment of new churches and to render service at every opportunity whereby our total Baptist program is being advanced. The Moderator observed that the presence of such a fine group indicated belief in and support of the Association.

6. New staff members coming into our churches during the past year were appropriately recognized and welcomed into the association. A special word of welcome was extended to those representing Fuller Mission and Turner Memorial.

NEW PASTORS, EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORS, MUSIC DIRECTORS IN OUR ASSOCIATION

7. Garland Hendricks presented the report on Ministers Retirement and moved its adoption. He then spoke to the report and urged laymen to plan adequately for their minister by giving support to his membership in the retirement plans of the Southern Convention.

The report as presented was adopted.

Annuity Board Report

About one-half of the churches of the Raleigh Baptist Association now participate in retirement plans for their ministers.

Ministers need some financial protection for themselves in case of disability before retirement age, care of widow and children in case of death, or income during retirement from the active ministry.

The Southern Baptist Convention and our State Baptist Convention work together to provide plans whereby the pastors and their churches may contribute each year and then be assured of financial protection when it is most needed.

We suggest that each church in the Raleigh Baptist Association have their leaders study this program and decide upon a policy for providing the pastor with the protection he needs. Every church should make the study. If your church is now participating, study to find out if the protection is adequate. If your church does not now participate, study the program to decide how best to help your pastor.

If you need help, write or call the associational representative, Garland A. Hendricks, Wake Forest, North Carolina; or the Department of Retirement Plans, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Raleigh North Carolina; or your associational Missionary, Robert L. Costner, Raleigh Baptist Association, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Garland A. Hendricks, Representative

8. A congregational hymn, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations," was led by Harold West, Minister of Education at Forest Hills Church.

9. Secretary of Missions Robert L. Costner brought a timely and challenging message entitled "Motivation for Reaching Out." He asserted that the supreme motivation is "The love of God constraineth us." The Secretary declared that a primary need is to "reach out" for new churches and missions in order that all of our boys and girls may be given every opportunity for Christian growth. He further emphasized the imperative that rests with all of us in "reaching out" for the "unenlisted" church members. This constitutes an "untapped resource" which should receive from each of us the same degree of love that unsaved persons share.

10. Special music was presented by the Forest Hills choir under the direction of Mrs. Glenn Lassiter.

11. Leon Spencer reported that 293 messengers and 66 visitors had been registered for the evening session and that this represented a record attendance insofar as available records revealed.

12. Speaking on the topic, "Southern Baptist Program of World Missions," General Secretary Douglas M. Branch of the Baptist State Convention, brought an impressive message and a challenging appeal to everyone present. Briefly outlining the history of World Missions through cooperative giving, our speaker called attention to the fact that only nine cents of the offering plate dollar found its way last year into the Cooperative Program. Emphasizing the need for our institutions of Christian Higher Education he expressed a feeling that the Christian Education Advance program adopted by the Convention in special session in May, 1961, can conceivably awaken a sense of responsibility among the Baptists of this state and bring about a sense of concern for and a consciousness of a God-given mission to a world in darkness and in sin. He further declared that God has his people, He has a message and He has a purpose. His concluding remarks included the challenging question, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?"

13. W. C. Adkinson, vice moderator of the Association, pronounced the benediction.

Theme: Reaching Out Through Strengthened Churches

14. In opening the morning session Moderator Simms extended, on behalf of Cary, Ephesus, Morrisville, Reedy Creek and Salem Churches, which were serving as joint hosts for Friday's meetings, a cordial welcome to everyone present. He also expressed to representatives of the host churches the association's gratitude for every act of courtesy shown the messengers and visitors.

15. Led by Eddie Gray, the congregation joined in singing, "The Church's One Foundation" and "Wonderful Words of Life."

16. The devotional period was led by Carlton A. Gilfillan, layman of the Cary Church. He used I Thessalonians 1:2-10 as the theme for his remarks.

17. Robert Mullinax, pastor of the Cary Church, was recognized and he brought a word of greeting, on behalf of the host churches, and also made several necessary announcements.

18. The report of Sunday School work in the association during the past year, together with aims and goals for the new year, was presented by Allen Laymon. The report as adopted, follows.

Sunday School Report

Your Associational Sunday School officers have attempted to help and serve the churches during the past year. "Outreach for the Unreached" was the theme for all of our efforts. How we succeeded will be reflected in the records of the churches.

Perhaps the outstanding achievement of the year was the Pastor-Led Sunday School Enlargement Campaign held October 29-November 3. This campaign was led by Dr. Edgar Williamson, former Sunday School Secretary of Arkansas, and by Dr. Herman Ihley, Secretary of the Sunday School Department for North Carolina. Pastors of the participating churches met each morning during the week for conferences. The afternoons were given over to visits in the churches to study the space problems. Pastors led their own Sunday School workers in a study each evening. As a result of this week, some of the churches surged ahead in organizing new classes and departments.

In January, 1961, departmental conferences were led by a staff of state and Associational Sunday School workers. These conferences were most helpful in bringing more quality to all of our work. The following quarterly meeting presented a study in the best methods to reach more people for Bible study.

Two sessions of the annual Vacation Bible School Clinic were held at the Cary Baptist Church under the able leadership of Mrs. Frances Cooke, our Vacation Bible School Superintendent. A night session of the clinic was offered for the first time and proved to be most acceptable to those who could not attend during the day.

A Training-Planning Clinic for Associational Sunday School officers September 5, 1961, was of genuine value. This clinic set the stage for "Action Night" on September 25. Plans and goals were suggested for the new Sunday School year of 1961-62.

"Action Night" was held on September 25 at the Caraleigh Baptist Church with very good attendance. The inspirational message was brought by the Reverend U. A. McManus of Rocky Mount. A film-strip "Outreach for the Unreached Spearhead for Advance" provided the theme of our work for next year.

SOME OF THE GOALS ADOPTED WERE:

- 50 Churches earning awards in Category 17
- 55 Churches to observe January Bible Study Week
- 5% enrollment increase in the Sunday Schools
- 75 Churches enlisted in Operation Home Folks
- 100 new classes; 20 new departments
- 83 Vacation Bible Schools; 5 Mission Schools
- 6 New Mission Sunday Schools
- 3 Standard Sunday Schools; 25 Standard classes; 20 Standard departments

Allen Laymon, Acting Supt.

19. In the absence of Bennett Straughn, Marion D. Lark presented the report of the Training Union. He called attention specifically to the calendar of activities and to the "M" Night program tentatively scheduled to be held at the State Fairgrounds Arena instead of the City Auditorium. The following report was adopted.

Training Union Report

During the past Associational year Training Union has had the following scheduled meetings: four officers' and leaders' conferences, four mass meetings, four executive committee meetings, and one clinic. Attendance at all of these has been very good.

The annual Associational banquet was held on Friday night during Christian Home Week in May. As usual attendance was overflowing in Carroll Hall of the Tabernacle Baptist Church. Each year this is one of the outstanding events for the Association. The speaker for the second time was Dr. Albert Edwards, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh. The theme was "The Christian Home."

"M" Night was one of the highlights, as usual, during this past year with a large attendance at the Memorial Auditorium. The Raleigh Association was the second highest in the state with 2208 present and ranked twelve in the Southern Baptist Convention. The speaker for this meeting was Dr. Jack R. Noffsinger of the Knollwood Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Winners of the attendance trophies were: Tabernacle and Pilot.

Participation in the state and southwide Training Union tournaments is being stressed. Miss Charlotte Herbert of the Garner Church was second in the state for the Intermediate Sword Drill tournament and Miss Kathryn Bradshaw of the Tabernacle Church was first-place winner for the state in the Adult Scripture Reading Tournament.

The Training Union Youth Convention at Hickory in April was another outstanding event. A large number of Intermediates, Young People, and their leaders attended this convention from the Raleigh Association.

Baptist Youth Night was observed this year by the Association with a meeting at the Longview Baptist Church in April. Again this year it was one of the "big" events of the year. An outstanding speaker, Rev. Ken Bryant, student at Southeastern Seminary, was well-received by the youth of our churches.

Our Training Union secretary for North Carolina, James P. Morgan, directed an Associational clinic in our Association for a week in March of this year. Outstanding southwide and state leaders were among those assisting in the clinic. This clinic was held for five nights at the Tabernacle Baptist Church. Attendance was very good.

Our state assemblies have been well attended by our people of all ages in the Association. It is estimated that at every conference there were people attending from this Association.

Training Union is looking forward to an even better and bigger year for 1961-62 with special emphasis being directed toward more of our people taking advantage of our special study courses and the assisting of our churches without Training Unions in the organization of one.

Bennett Straughn,
Training Union Director

20. In her usual efficient manner, Mrs. W. C. Adkinson, Associational W. M. U. President, presented the report of Woman's Missionary Union which was supplemented by attractive and informative charts. Upon her motion the report was adopted.

Woman's Missionary Union Report

It is always hard for me to make an adequate report on Kingdom work, because I realize too well that some of the finest work can never be expressed; and, all our consecrated leaders cannot be mentioned. With this in mind, I wish to acknowledge the work of every person, who has made it possible, through the leadership of the Holy Spirit, for the Raleigh Associational WMU to show the progress, for which I am grateful.

In our Association, with 83 churches, we have 77 WMS, a net gain of 2 over last year, with 4,434 members. We have 34 YWAs, a net gain of 1 over last year, with 325 members. We have 121 GAs, a net gain of 3 over last year, with a membership of 1,851. Our total number of WMU organizations is 350, with a total membership of 7,904.

Keeping the above figures in mind, out of the 83 churches we find:

77 WMSs	75 with WMSs	8 without WMSs
33 YWAs	31 with YWAs	52 without YWAs
121 GAs	62 with GAs	21 without GAs
118 SB Bands	59 with SB Bands	24 without SB Bands

Of our 350 organizations, we had 201 observing the Week of Prayer for foreign missions, 151 for home missions and 168 for state missions.

We are emphasizing that each individual Christian have a part in our love offerings. These figures are very inadequate, but they are as follows—the WMS members giving through:

Coop. Prog.	L. Moon	A. Armstrong	State M.	Heck Jones
3,368	2,337	2,098	2,001	410
Total Amt. of Offering:	$37,783.78	$14,273.98	$8,882.74	$5,535.07
Grand total:	$66,475.57		Tithers:	1,940

We had 394 mission books taught with 3,427 reading an approved mission book. We had 217 of the 350 organizations doing supervised community missions.

October 20, Wendell Baptist Church, our Associational officers conducted a very helpful WMU Leadership Conference—A day meeting and a night meeting, with 260 adults registering from 34 churches.

Miss Catherine Welbourn, Sunbeam Director, led in a successful Sunbeam Workshop with 65 registering at the Forest Hills Baptist Church, November 3.

Our Mission Study Chairman, Mrs. W. R. Grigg; Stewardship Chairman, Mrs. James Heaton; Prayer Chairman, Mrs. J. J. Horn-back; Community Mission Chairman, Mrs. Fred Waller; YWA Director, Mrs. Douglas Aldrich; G. A. Director, Mrs. L. G. Christian and Sunbeam Director, Miss Catherine Welborn, conducted a very helpful Departmental Institute at the Carolina Pines Baptist Church on January 26, with good attendance at both the day and night meetings.

Our Annual Associational WMU Meeting convened at the Wake Forest Baptist Church, April 7, with 45 churches represented and 250 adults registering, Miss Virginia, WMU Executive Secretary of Japan was our Missionary speaker.

We had very successful GA Camp, Camp LaPaHio, Umstead Park, June 12-17. We want to thank all who helped in any way to make our GA camp possible.

These are the results:

Number churches represented	18
Number girls present	85
Number Staff members	27

These are the results:

(5 Commuted)

Number children	2
Total present	132
Conversions	9
Rededications	9
Dedication for definite Christian service	2
Dedication for Foreign Missions	1
Total decisions	15
Total receipts	$1,455.11
Total Disbursements	1,383.20
Balance	71.91

Mrs. W. R. Grigg, assisted by Mrs. Lewis G. Christian, Mrs. James Miller and Mrs. Douglas Aldrich, conducted a Day and Night meeting for our Missions Study Institute for the Foreign Mission Series, September 26 at the Apex Baptist Church with 38 churches represented and 110 adults registering.

Mrs. Douglas Aldrich, YWA Director has done an excellent job in getting YWA Counsel working again and strengthening all the YWA work.

We had 18 WMSs, 2 YWAs, 40 GAs and 9 Sunbeam Bands earning recognition on our Aims for Advancement. They are:

21. Brotherhood President J. C. Price, Minister of Education at the Cary Church, presented State R. A. Secretary B. W. Jackson, who outlined briefly the new R. A. Program. The following report covering Brotherhood and R. A. Work in the Association was adopted.

The Baptist Brotherhood and Royal Ambassadors

The 1960-61 Associational year was significant for Baptist Brotherhoods in North Carolina. On October 1, 1960, a new plan of organization went into effect. It now appears that every Brotherhood in the state is organized on the new plan. The Brotherhood Department gave special emphasis to leadership training. Good attendance was reported for many Associational Brotherhood workshops for church Brotherhood officers. Seventy-five men attended the Brotherhood weekend at Fruitland where they received instructions on how to teach the Church Brotherhood Guidebook.

One of the most significant events of the year was World Missions Week at North Carolina Baptist Assembly near Southport. Eleven hundred men, women, boys and girls were in attendance. This week is sponsored jointly by Brotherhood and the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina and is an annual missionary emphasis.

In the ten regional conferences, the Brotherhood cooperated with the North Carolina director of Retirement Plans and the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention in presenting the Protection Plan for pastors.

During the year the Brotherhood Commission published Effective Christian Witnessing by Nelson Tull. This book is to be used by the Brotherhood to teach men how to witness for Christ to lost people. In October the Brotherhood Department will conduct six Christian Witnessing Leadership Workshops for the purpose of preparing men to teach this book in their churches. In cooperation with the Brotherhood Commission and the Baptist Convention of Ohio, the Brotherhood Department sent twenty men to Ohio for special mission work. These men engaged in personal soul winning and conducted services during their week-long stay in Ohio. At the close of the week two new missions were established. As a result of the excellent work which these men did, the Ohio Convention has requested that we send one-hundred men for a similar crusade next year.

The Royal Ambassador Program is undergoing a change in organizational plan beginning October 1, 1961. The new plan will be as follows: Crusaders (9-10-11 year-olds), Pioneers (12-13-14 year-olds), Ambassadors (15-16-17 year-olds). This new plan offers many possibilities for leading boys in missionary education.

Plans are still being made to develop a State RA Camp near Asheboro in the next few years. A site has been selected and preliminary plans for developing it have begun.

We believe that through Brotherhood and Royal Ambassadors Baptist men and boys will be challenged to take a more active part in the churches' efforts to bring the gospel to the whole world.

Locally, the Association has sought to develop men into faithful Christian stewards of time, talents, influence, and money, instill in them a deep sense of loyalty to the church and denomination, and encourage them to give their lives to Christ in effective daily living.

Four Associational meetings were held during the year: (1) A clinic to inform and instruct officers was the purpose of the first meeting. This was held in the Convention building and was well attended. (2) In February a joint meeting with the Evangelistic Department of the state was held at Longview Baptist Church. A program of lay-evangelism was presented by the state department. (3) In May the program featured the Minister's Retirement Plan and Mr. R. T. Greene, Director of the Retirement Plans in the state department presented the appeal. (4) The final program was held in September at New Hope. There were three emphases including the presentation of the new R. A. program, the Co-operative Program and World Missions, and the Simultaneous Revival Crusade scheduled for April 1-15 in 1962.

1. Continue effort to organize Brotherhood in all churches of the Association.

2. To give aid and direction to all churches needing help in setting up R. A. chapters according to the new program.

3. At least 50% of the local Brotherhood officers attending the Associational workshop.

4. At least 50% of the counselors completing the basic leadership course.

5. At least 75% of the Brotherhoods studying Effective Christian Witnessing by Nelson Tull.

6. At least 50% of the men enrolled in Brotherhood receiving the Brotherhood Journal.

7. At least 50% of the boys in R. A. chapters receiving AM-BASSADOR LIFE.

8. At least 100% of the counselors receiving AMBASSADOR LEADER.

9. 75% of the local and Associational Brotherhood officers receiving the 1962 Brotherhood Handbook.

10. 100% of the Brotherhoods using the Brotherhood Workbook for planning programs.

22. Eddie Gray brought an oral report on the Associational music program and called attention to the calendar of activities relating to special emphases during the coming year.

23. Led by Eddie Gray, the congregation joined in singing, "Fling out the banner."

24. J. Marse Grant, Editor of the Biblical Recorder, brought a brief report on the progress, the aims and the objectives of our State Baptist publication. The report was adopted as follows.

Report on Biblical Recorder

Have you ever stopped to think that God chose to use "writing" as His means of self-revelation to the world? He made known His nature and will to men through writing. Where would the world be today were it not for the divinely-written revelation, the Bible? Since God Himself saw fit to use literature to reveal His will, as Christians we obviously have a divine plan to follow. In 1961, this principle still holds true as we think of all the fine Christian literature being written.

When North Carolina Baptists think of their own literature, they naturally think of their state Baptist paper since 1833—the Biblical Recorder. Down through the years, it has been the one connecting link among Baptists. Not satisfied to live in the past, though, the Recorder strives to convey its message in an attractive, appealing manner.

The Recorder is edited so it will be of interest to all North Carolina Baptists. Consider the many features each week—full page pictures on the cover, stimulating editorials, Life in the Churches, the Sunday School Lesson, the Family page, changes in the churches, complete coverage of all Baptist news, numerous pictures, inspirational pieces, stories about your fellow Baptists, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Circulation which is the highest in history continues to rise. At the present time it is more than 78,000, up more than 10,000 over a year ago. The goal for 1964 is 100,000 and the help of every church is needed to reach this goal.

At a workshop of Southern Baptist editors at Syracuse University this summer, the Recorder received high recognition from the Syracuse professors who praised it for its pleasing appearance and good content. The professors especially liked the covers and the large number of good pictures used in every issue.

It is the Recorder's job to keep North Carolina Baptists informed—but please remember that this is a two-way street. Even though the Recorder may be judged the outstanding paper in the Southern Baptist Convention, if you are not receiving it, you have no way of knowing what you are missing.

The Every Family Plan is best and simplest. Nearly 500 churches testify to the value of sending the Recorder to every resident family at the cost of a four cent stamp each week—or $2.00 a year. It doesn't cost, it pays. As a starter, your church may want to get four or more people to take the Recorder, thus qualifying for the Club Plan before going to the Every Family Plan.

The Recorder staff pledges itself to get out a paper that will justify the confidence your church places in it. Nowhere else will you be able to get so much for so little. Try the Recorder this coming year and see for yourself the blessing you will receive from it each week.

In the Raleigh Baptist Association we have fifty-seven churches with the Club Plan, twelve churches with Every Family Plan, a total of 3,223 subscriptions in the Association, and only thirteen without the Recorder.

25. In the unavoidable absence of W. T. Mills, President of the Executive Council, Marion D. Lark, secretary reported for the council. The following report was adopted.

Report of the Executive Council

The regular meeting of the Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association was held on January 9 at the Calvary Baptist Church. President Lamar Brooks called the meeting to order and Dr. James Heaton led in prayer. The minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given and adopted as read.

Brother W. C. Atkinson made the motion that the supplementary report be included in the Association minutes. Brother L. G. Bullard amended the motion that the addition be as a supplementary report and not added into the report. The amended motion was passed.

Brother Eddie Gray presented information concerning the Associational School of Music to be held at the Tabernacle Church, February 6-9.

The president entertained nominations for the presidency of the Executive Committee since he was leaving the Raleigh Baptist Association. The Rev. L. D. Holt nominated the Rev. W. T. Mills. It was moved and seconded that he be elected by acclamation. It carried.

Since there was no further business the meeting was adjourned in prayer by Brother Atkinson.

The meeting of the Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association was held April 10 at Forest Hills Baptist Church. President W. T. Mills called the meeting to order and Mr. L. H. Beck led in prayer. The minutes were read and approved.

Mr. Costner presented the Treasurer's report in the absence of Mr. L. G. Bullard. Discussion, in part, centered around need for special effort to enlist the financial support of the churches which are not contributing to the Associational mission program. The Treasurer's report was adopted.

The Finance Committee in co-operation with Brother Costner were empowered to work out a plan to enlighten the churches which are not supporting the Associational mission program as to its importance and to enlist speakers to implement the plan.

There was discussion of the need for a new emphasis upon the launching of another surge in establishing new work where churches are needed.

Mr. Tom Green called our attention to the Retirement plans and urged churches to put 10% of the pastor's salary in Retirement funds.

Mr. Costner called attention to the proposed week of prayer for Associational Missions and pointed out some aids to help promote this effort.

After motion to adjourn was acted upon, Mr. Costner led our closing prayer.

The regular meeting of the Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association was held July 17 at Hayes Barton Baptist Church With John Simms presiding in the absence of the president. Dr. James F. Heaton opened the meeting with prayer.

New pastors in the Association and attending the Council for the first time were Bob Mullinax of Cary Baptist Church, John Pollock of New Bethel (J), David E. Daniel of Zebulon Baptist, and Earl Crumpler of Calvary.

Following the introduction of new pastors the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. L. G. Bullard presented the treasurer's report for the Association. A motion was made to approve the report and it was so ordered.

Mr. Costner presented a report for the Calendar Committee Chairman who was unable to be present. A "Tentative Calendar" was handed out to the Council members, and Mr. Costner called special attention to several items such as the dates for the Executive Council meetings, the Jubilee Revival, and the Associational Evangelism Clinic. The Council was asked to give approval for the Jubilee Revival dates of April 1-15 for the Raleigh Association. Dr. Heaton made the motion that the suggested time be accepted with Mr. Atkinson making the second to that motion. There was unanimous approval to the motion. Other items of the calendar will be voted upon at a later date.

Dr. John Kincheloe, Chairman of the Missions Committee, gave a report concerning the new church established near Garner, May 4, 1961. Information was given that a site for the new church is available on the Benson highway. It was also reported that forty nine people joined the church as charter members on the first Sunday. At the time of this report there were 61 members.

Mrs. W. C. Adkinson, Associational WMU President, sent a report concerning the Girl's Auxiliary Camp held at Umstead State Park, June 12-17. There was a total enrollment of 127.

The State Convention had asked the Association to take a vote to give support to the Co-Operative Program, and to increase gifts by 35% for Christian Education purposes in 1962 as was suggested by the special session of the State Convention in Greensboro. By this method approximately 10 million dollars would be raised in three years. Mr. L. H. Beck made the motion that the churches in the Association be encouraged to make the suggested increase. The motion was carried.

Mr. Costner discussed the idea of inviting Seminary pastors of the Association to a luncheon in the Seminary cafeteria at the opening of the school this year. This meeting would be to orient them to the Association and show how it could be of help to them and their churches. A motion was made and passed.

Mr. Costner discussed the idea of inviting Seminary pastors of retirement and that it had almost "retired" with him in it. Therefore, Mr. Hodge of Zebulon Baptist Church made a motion that expenses for a new desk chair be underwritten by the Association. Dr. Canady made a second to the motion which was unanimously approved.

Comments were also made by Mr. L. G. Bullard concerning religious programs of our local television station on which local pastors appeared. He was appreciative of these efforts. Dr. James F. Heaton made additional comments on the program, Light Unto My Path, which is televised at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, and remarked that the time is donated by WRAL-TV of Raleigh.

With no further business at hand, Mrs. Hatch led in the closing prayer.

The fourth meeting of the Executive Council was held October 9, 1961, at the Calvary Baptist Church. The meeting was called to order by Mr. W. T. Mills and Mr. Bill Vinson led in prayer.

Mr. L. D. Holt presented the proposed budget for 1961-62. Mr. W. C. Adkinson made motion that we approve the budget, and the motion was seconded by Mr. Harold Blackley and approved.

John Simms mentioned the Social Security for the Associate Secretary would go to 3½%. This increase would come from contingency fund. This was approved unanimously by the committee.

Mr. Fred Scott presented a motion that in the future the Moderator, Vice Moderator and Clerk of the Association serve as President, Vice President, and Secretary of the Executive Council. Mr. W. P. Biggerstaff made motion we accept the committee's recommendation, this was seconded by Mr. Roy Pearsonry and approved.

Mr. Roy Keller made motion that the Constitution Committee be notified of the action and change the constitution to fit the above recommendations. It was seconded by Mr. H. A. Hodge and approved.

Mr. L. G. Bullard presented the Treasurer's report and this was approved by the council.

Mr. Robert L. Costner made the following reports: EVANGELISM COMMITTEE—Jubilee Revivals, 1963- March 24-April 7; 1964-March 29-April 12. A motion was made that we adopt these dates as Jubilee Revival dates by John Simms, seconded by Mr. H. A. Hodge and approved. MISSIONS COMMITTEE—The newly formed Turner Memorial Church wants approval of their request for $1,000.00 aid from the State Missions fund in 1962. Mr. Johnny Pollock made motion to approve this request and it was seconded by Mr. W. C. Adkinson.

Mr. W. C. Adkinson made the motion that we purchase for the Associational office an Elliott Addressing Machine for $284.12, this was seconded by Mr. Bill Vinson and approved.

Mr. John Simms made the motion that we allow Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Bullard to pay the note on the parsonage and that they be allowed to carry the note at the same payment and interest, and to instruct trustees to make all legal arrangements for the transfer without any cost to the Association. Mr. W. P. Biggerstaff seconded the motion and it was approved.

New pastors were introduced: Rev. Jim Poage—Shady Grove Baptist Church; Rev. Millard Crumpler, Highland Baptist Church; Rev. Raleigh James, Salem Baptist Church.

Brother Raleigh James dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Marion Lark, Secretary
Executive Council

26. In his usual capable manner, Treasurer L. G. Bullard presented the report of the treasurer for the preceding year. His report was adopted.

27. Clerk Leon Spencer, in presenting a digest of the church letters, cited areas of growth in almost every department of work of the Association, however he noted that, for the first time in several years, the per capita gifts to missions were less than those in the preceding year. Although gifts channeled through the Cooperative Program increased by about $4,000 the per capita gifts reflected a decrease.

28. L. D. Holt, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the budget for 1961-62.

After appropriate discussion the budget was duly adopted.

29. John W. Kincheloe presented the report on Missions and appropriate comments pertaining to the activities of this division of our program for the year. Upon his motion the report was adopted.

Report of the Missions Committee

Your Missions Committee assisted in the organization of a new Baptist church in the Garner-New Bethel area of Wake County, May 14, 1961. This new work is now known as the Turner Memorial Baptist Church. Dr. Eph Whisenhunt, formerly of Clayton First Baptist Church, has splendidly led as the pulpit supply during the past five months.

The Association has given financial aid toward the purchase of five acres of land to be used as a permanent location for the church. It is the desire of the people to begin construction of their first building unit during 1963.

Financial assistance has continued this year for Fellowship Baptist Church and for the Boulevard Baptist Church. Both churches have made excellent progress in reaching more people with their expanded facilities. Our financial agreement to assist both of these churches will be concluded during 1962.

The Fuller Baptist Mission became an organization independent from the Tabernacle Baptist Church on March 6, 1961. It is located at Glenwood Avenue and Jones Street in Raleigh and is led by the Reverend Thomas Bashford.

Missions in rest homes are conducted by Pleasant Grove and Good Hope. St. Johns and Longview have mission Sunday Schools in fire stations.

Meetings have been held with leaders of the Cary Baptist Church to explore the possibilities of new work in that area. The possibilities are good that a new church will be started there within the next few months.

Other areas are under constant study to ascertain the need for a new mission or church. Pastors and church mission committees can help, especially with a new mission in fire stations, rest homes, trailer camps, jails and detention homes.

From June 1, 1956 to October 1, 1961, more than 12,000 missions and churches have been constituted through the influence of the 30,000 Movement. The goal for 1962 is to establish 6,000 new missions and churches in the area of our convention.

The Missions Committee urges a greater financial support from all of our churches this next year. With adequate support it would be possible to start at least two new churches each year for the next four years.

We further urge:

1. The election of a Church Mission Committee in every church.
2. Fully inform every church member about the 30,000 Movement.
3. Advise the committee of needs in area not being reached by any church.

John W. Kincheloe, Chairman
Missions Committee

30. The report of the Social Service Committee, which was presented by Chairman Thomas Bland, was discussed briefly and adopted.

Social Service Committee Report

The Christian life is lived today within the context of a complex technical civilization. In theory and in practice the Christian faith and the Christian ethic are challenged by the impact of a variety of non-Christian and anti-Christian philosophies which are battling for the attention and allegiance of men and nations. The battle is not new in Christian history, although some of the battle lines are new. In our little time of life in this world it is appropriate to ask ourselves these questions: What am I, as a disciple of Jesus Christ, and as a member of his Church, to do? How am I to live and to conduct myself as a Christian in this world? We confess that the answers to these questions must be wrought out in the daily experiences of each of us as persons and as churches. Your committee calls attention to some of our common responsibilities and opportunities.

OUR LIFE IN THE CHURCH

God has committed to the Church the fulfilling of his eternal purpose as revealed in Jesus Christ. This committee is convinced that we, the churches of the Raleigh Baptist Association need to recapture and to reaffirm our historic concepts of the local church as a gathered community of redeemed persons who are committed to live together in a disciplined fellowship, bound to the Church's purpose and to one another by the faithful keeping of covenant with Christ and among ourselves. That we need to do this is verified, for example, by the fact that, of 35,134 members reported in the Annual of the Association for 1960, 6,601 of these members were non-resident.

OUR LIFE IN THE WORLD

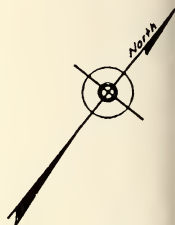

The Social Service Committee, recognizing that our spheres of responsibility begin at the home base, invites your thought and action on the following matters which are within our own everyday concerns.

1. In the institutions of higher learning located within the territory served by our Association there are many students from other countries. Their presence among us affords opportunities for international friendship and good will through practical Christian helpfulness and fellowship. Our churches should seek to minister to these persons, and to bring them into the local fellowship.

2. The tragic loss of life and property in highway accidents is a proper Christian, as well as public concern. We commend our state government for its efforts to guarantee greater safety on our public roads. We call upon ourselves and our fellow Baptists to obey the laws of the state, to practice courtesy on the highways, and to respect and support law-enforcement officers. We wish to assure those who have responsibility for making, interpreting, and enforcing laws, of our full cooperation.

3. The use of alcoholic beverages by so many of our citizens, including members of our churches, presents serious problems. We urge members of our churches to demonstrate before the world the more excellent way of voluntary total abstinence. We commend the Governor of North Carolina for his efforts to improve and expand the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program in our state. We further commend the work of the Christian Action League and its program for concerted social action on alcohol problems. We ask our churches to promote a study of Christian responsibility in a drinking culture.

4. We register our conviction that religious liberty is one of God's gifts to man. A corollary of such a conviction is our historic Baptist insistence upon the separation of Church and State. We must not only be alert to encroachments of either State or Church upon the other's proper sphere of activity, but we must also seek to find positive ways to strengthen both our free church tradition and our political democracy.

Thomas A. Bland, Chairman
Social Service Committee

31. Daniel W. Silver presented the report of the Calendar Committee which was adopted. The schedule of activities is found elsewhere in the annual.

32. In the absence of Ronda Robbins, Secretary of Missions Robert Costner commented on the policies concerning ordination procedures and then presented the report which was accepted as incomplete. Permission was authorized to revise the report to conform to latest information before printing the annual.

Ronda Robbins, Chairman
Ordination Committee

33. E. Paul West, Sr., presented the report of the Memorials Committee and in doing so he called attention to the fact that the names of our deceased Christian friends will be found elsewhere in the annual. Prayer was offered by Charles Stevens. The report was adopted as follows.

Memorials Committee Report

With a day on the battlefield ended—for us, the past Associational year—we find ourselves here drawn up, as it were, in bivouac. In this short sojourn we are duly engaged in assessing the fortunes of our latest undertakings and in devising strategy for tomorrow's campaign for the souls of men.

We would note however, that since we last assembled a number of our faithful comrades are reported missing from our ranks. It is therefore amply fitting that we turn aside from the regular proceedings of our meeting to memorialize those whom we have "Long since loved but lost for a while," and those whose names will be inscribed in the annual. We thus honor their memory and extend sympathy to those loved ones so intimately affected.

While remembering these beloved who have been transferred to the homeland we would commit ourselves afresh to the glorious cause of Him who goes "forth conquering and to conquer" and in whom "death is swallowed up in victory."

Respectfully submitted,

Paul West, Chairman

34. In the absence of Chairman Crate Jones, the report on Evangelism was presented by Roy Davis of the Falls Church. It was adopted as follows.

Report on Evangelism

These are tremendous days in which we live. Billions are being spent for getting men to the moon, while comparatively little is spent for getting men to God. Multitudes sit in darkness and many in despair while the forces of darkness move constantly in a dedicated abandon toward their objectives. The number of hopeless people—hopeless because they do not know Christ—grows daily. The world's population is increasing by 48,000,000 per year. All religions are winning only 10,000,000 per year.

Many of these lost people live in the territory of our Association. They live near our churches. In regard to their need for God they have been deluded by the powers of darkness, and numbers of them disillusioned by the apathy and lack of dedication to Christ on the part of professed Christians. In this desperate day God's people must wake up to the fact that "business as usual" will not suffice. Surely this is the time for total dedication to Christ in His purpose of winning the multitudes to God.

To move forward we must start from where we are. Our Association is the best launching place for new frontiers in evangelism and missions.

Therefore, we recommend:

1. That we encourage ourselves in the Lord our God for the resurging interest in evangelism across our Convention, continuously praying that God may work in us and through us to bring the revival we need.

2. That our Association participate in the "Baptist Jubilee Revival" in 1962 through 1964. Our dates are as follows:

1962 April 1-15

1964 March 29-April 12

3. That each church prayerfully and studiously consider participating in the Baptist Jubilee Revival, and that special emphasis in all revivals and week by week evangelism throughout the year be placed upon personal, face-to-face, heart-to-heart soul-winning and faithful teaching and preaching of the Gospel.

4. That all churches make full use of the Revival Plan Book for 1962, 1964, supplied free to all pastors by the Division of Evangelism, Baptist State Convention. Reprints of portions of the book are available for members of the church council.

5. That our Association have an Evangelism Clinic following the suggested program supplied by the Division of Evangelism. The date for our next clinic is February 5, 1962.

6. That our Association recognize the elected Associational officers as the evangelism committee, the Chairman of Evangelism to be the Chairman of this committee, and that we pledge our whole-hearted cooperation to this committee.

7. That our Association send the Chairman of Evangelism to Ridgecrest for the annual conference on Evangelism during Home Mission Week.

8. That we commit ourselves to the following outline of achievement for 1962:

I. CHAIRMAN OF EVANGELISM—An evangelistic pastor elected to serve during Associational year. Promotes perennial soul-winning in all churches. Serves as Chairman of Baptist Jubilee Revival committee and Chairman of Evangelism Committee, which is composed of Associational officers.

II. ASSOCIATIONAL EVANGELISM CLINIC—Annual clinic devoting two sessions exclusively to evangelism. Seventy-five percent of churches represented by pastors. Seventy-five percent of churches with at least three members of their church councils present.

III. ANNUAL BAPTIST JUBILEE REVIVAL—Eighty percent of churches participating. Eighty percent of churches observing same dates. Eighty percent of churches with two consecutive weeks of evangelistic preaching.

IV. ALL CHURCHES CONDUCTING REVIVALS—Each church conducting a minimum of one revival annually. Fifty percent of churches conducting two revivals annually. Churches sponsoring mission revivals where needed.

V. EACH CHURCH WINNING AND BAPTIZING NEW MEMBERS—Churches endeavoring to increase previous year's baptismal record. Seventy-five percent of churches using the church council. Churches sustaining perennial evangelism and perennial spiritual growth programs.

Respectfully submitted,
Crate Jones, Chairman
Committee on Evangelism

35. The Baptist Student Union report was made by Jack Painter, Pastor of the Knightdale Church. It was adopted as follows.

The Baptist Student Union

Introduction:

The Baptist Student Union is a voluntary, organized effort of students to realize the love and concern of Christian Community; to explore the depths and implications of the Christian Faith; and to be a laboratory of experimentation and application for the enlightenment and renewal of faith.

Who . . . (is the BSU)?

The Ministry of the Baptist Student Union is opened to anyone in the campus community. Technically, its membership consists of any Baptist student involved in the ministry of a local church and any commuting student involved in his home church. But other persons in the campus community (even Overseas Students) participate in the life and ministry of the Baptist Student Union.

The BSU Director, the Rev. Leroy P. Richardson, Jr., is a graduate of the University of Richmond and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He aids the students in achieving a more mature understanding of their faith through counselling, guiding, and helping students discover significant life goals.

Where . . . (is the BSU)?

The Baptist Center is the geographical vehicle of the ministry on campus. Here the students work, listen, discuss common problems and questions, and participate in Christian Fellowship and community. The center is located at 2702 Hillsboro Street across from the College Union and is opened at all times except during normal school holidays.

The General Board of the Baptist State Convention has authorized completion of plans for a new center to be constructed on the same location. This will be done in 1962 as funds become available through the Christian Education Advance Program.

What . . . (does the BSU do)?

The Baptist Student Union ministry centers primarily in its supper forums held weekly on Friday nights from 5:45 to 8:00. The forum community participates in a common meal and then disperses into four forum groups. The forum topics and their direction are designed for maximum interest and benefit to the student. The forums for first semester will include: Christian Ethics, (led by Alton "Buz" Buzbee); Christian Faith and Human Existence, (led by Dr. John Lewis); Four Influential Men of Western Culture, (led by Leroy Richardson); and Christian Faith and the Contemporary World, (led by Dr. E. C. Swertmann).

Overseas students are invited to attend these forums or special conversation sessions designed to develop understanding between the world views of different nations, religions and cultures.

Socials also play a role in the ministry of the BSU. State College students share visits with students from Meredith College, Woman's College and other groups around the state. Deputations between campuses are frequent.

Through LISTEN (Love Impels Sacrifice Towards Every Need) students are challenged to express their concern for the needs of people around the world. Programs highlighting this aspect of the BSU's ministry are always anticipated.

36. V. P. Locke, Pastor of Carolina Pines Church, brought the report of the Membership Committee. The following report relating to Fuller Mission and Turner Memorial Church was adopted. Messengers from both groups were recognized.

Membership Committee

The Fuller Baptist Mission located on corner of Glenwood Avenue and Jones Street, Raleigh, N. C. with Rev. Thomas Bashford as Pastor, is hereby making application to come under watchcare of the Raleigh Baptist Association.

The Turner Memorial Baptist Church, presently meeting in the Garner School, with Dr. Eph Whisenhunt as interim pastor, until the church calls a full-time pastor, hereby makes application to come under watchcare of the Raleigh Baptist Association.

We the Committee on Membership do recommend that Fuller Baptist Mission be taken under watchcare of this Association and that The Turner Memorial Baptist Church be admitted to this Association under watchcare as requested.

V. P. Locke, Chairman
Committee on Membership

37. In the absence of Chairman Carl Holleman, Lonnie Woolweaver brought several recommended changes in the Constitution of the Association. The changes were approved as follows.

Report on Committee on Constitution

Pursuant to a motion made and adopted at a recent meeting of the Executive Council, it is recommended:

1. That the Constitution of the Association be amended as follows:

ARTICLE IX—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council shall consist of all active pastors and one lay member from each member church. The officers of the Association shall be ex-officio members and shall serve as the officers of the Council. In addition the Secretary of Missions and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union shall be ex-officio members. It shall be the duty of the Council to carry forward the work of the Association between sessions and make reports to the Association.

2. That the By-Laws of the Association be amended as follows:

ARTICLE I—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section A. The Moderator shall preside over Sessions of the Association and meetings of the Executive Council. He shall not serve more than two terms in succession.

Section C. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep full records of the meetings of the Association and the Executive Council and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and the data from the Church Letters in an Annual Report. The Clerk shall further cooperate with the other officers of the Association in promoting the total program of the Association. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association shall direct.

ARTICLE III—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section A. The officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice Moderator and the Clerk of the Association.

Carl P. Holleman, Chairman

38. The congregation joined in singing "God of Grace, God of Glory."

39. Visitors from other associations were recognized. Tom Lawrence, from South Carolina and W. R. Wagoner, General Superintendent of the Baptist Children's Homes, were thus recognized.

40. Motion was offered and passed that the 1961 annual be dedicated to Mrs. L. L. Carpenter and to Leroy Martin, both of whom have made a great contribution to the religious and cultural life of this area.

41. Host Pastor Mullinax made several announcements about arrangements for lunch.

42. Scripture reading by Marion D. Lark from the 12th chapter of Romans and a special choral rendition by a trio from the Cary Church, was followed by an inspirational sermon by L. D. Holt, who developed in excellent manner the theme, "Your Christian Commitment." He asserted that we can strengthen the witness to our church through prayer, service, presence, purse, and stewardship. Half-hearted participation will not furnish the witness needed. Our Christian commitment should strengthen our witness, declared the minister. He further reminded us that when we go to church it permits our best side to strengthen our weaker side.

43. After singing "Rise Up, O Men of God" the congregation adjourned for lunch.

Theme: Reaching Out Through Effective Service

44. The afternoon session was opened with singing "To the Work, to the Work" and was led by Eddie Gray.

45. Roy Keller, Pastor of Green Level Church, using the Scripture as found in Ephesians 3:1-12 as his theme, led in the period of devotion and meditation.

46. Emory Holden brought the report of the Committee on Committees which was adopted. The full report is found elsewhere in the annual.

47. The report of the Nominations Committee as presented by Chairman James West was adopted as presented.

48. Joe Roach presented the report of the Committee on Time, Place and Preacher. The report was adopted.

Report on Time, Place and Preacher

a. The 1962 session of the Raleigh Association will be held with the Wake Forest Baptist Church on Thursday evening before the 4th Sunday in October.

The Friday Sessions will be held in the morning and afternoon with the Garner Baptist Church. Host churches are Fellowship, Highland, Mount Moriah, and New Bethel (J).

b. We recommend Crate Jones to preach the annual sermon in 1962 and Lonnie Woolweaver as alternate.

c. We recommend the 1963 session will be held on Thursday evening before the 3rd Sunday in October with the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Raleigh.

The morning and afternoon sessions with the Knightdale church.

Host churches are Bethany, Central, Bethlehem (R) and Samaria.

Joe Roach, Chairman

49. Resolutions Chairman Alphonso Jordan brought the report of his committee and after appropriate comments, he offered a motion to adopt the report. Motion carried.

The Committee on Resolutions

1. We resolve that the Raleigh Baptist Association does express its sincere thanks to John Simms for the splendid way he has presided over this 156th Annual Session.

2. We resolve to express our thanks to all of those who have taken part in this splendid program, all speakers, musicians, and to those who have given reports from the various departments of our Associational work.

3. We resolve to express our appreciation to the host churches, Forest Hills, Cary, Ephesus, Morrisville, Reedy Creek, and Salem, for this Annual Session. Their hospitality and cordiality have been clearly demonstrated and appreciated.

4. We resolve to express our gratitude to our Associational Clerk, Leon Spencer, and to our Associational Treasurer, L. G. Bullard, for their faithfulness and efficiency. Their tasks require much effort, time, and ability. For their devotion and service we are thankful.

5. We resolve to give a higher degree of loyal support and service to our Association and to the Kingdom work of our Baptist State Convention.

Alphonso Jordan, Chairman
Committee on Resolutions

50. The clerk reported that a record had been set in the registration of messengers and visitors to this annual meeting. 460 messengers and 121 visitors had registered.

51. James Nicholson, Historical Collector-Researcher at Wake Forest College, brought an interesting report for the Historical Committee. He urged all churches to get someone to prepare a history of their church and to supply him with a copy so that the records could be microfilmed for posterity. He invited the use of his office to obtain any available information for use in celebrations and for tracing the history of a particular church. He suggested that a historian be named by each church to assemble and maintain interesting items relating to the history of one's church.

52. Allen Laymon, Pastor of the Bethlehem (R) Church, led in a congregational hymn.

53. In discussing the 30,000 Movement, John W. Kincheloe cited the growth in the Raleigh area during the last few years. In these "new" churches there are now more than 4,000 members and 193 baptisms were reported last year.

Others contributing to this item of discussion were:

Robert Weatherspoon and Marion S. Terry, who gave testimonies of "Mission" in the rest homes of this area; Eph Whisenhunt, who gave an interesting account of the organization and growth of Turner Memorial Church; and Robert Coates, who gave a testimonial on the financial stewardship of Fellowship Church.

54. The report on Christian Education was presented by Grace Yow. Speaking to the report was Harold Cole, Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Education of the Baptist State Convention, who cited the urgent need for increased support of our institutions of Christian Higher Education. Quoting Elton Trueblood, Cole said that "The ripest mission field in America is in the area of Christian Education." He reminded us that we need not only quality education, but education motivated by Christian ideals and principles. The report brought by Miss Yow was adopted.

Report on North Carolina Baptist Colleges

You will note that in giving a title to this report it has been defined as "Report on North Carolina Baptist Colleges." Such terms as "Christian Education, "Christian Higher Education," and "Baptist Colleges" are in common usage today. They are not exactly synonymous. We usually refer to Christian education in the broader sense, denoting every type of training and activity which we provide in our homes, churches, communities, schools, colleges, and seminaries for the purpose of Christian growth. Our goal then should be to provide our children from very birth with an environment that is totally Christian.

Such a concept requires that we make the training in our homes and churches Christian in every aspect as we prepare our youth for college. Many difficulties and failures in college could be solved and overcome if in the earlier years young people were spiritually prepared. It is, therefore, imperative that the home, the church, and the college work in closest cooperation as a team, each fulfilling its particular responsibility.

But in this report we are most directly concerned (as the title indicates) with the role and ministry of our seven Baptist colleges—Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wake Forest, and Wingate.

It should be pointed out that in our homes and churches we are working almost entirely with boys and girls who are Baptists. Here we can present a Baptist witness with the sole purpose of indoctrination as well as of a Christian emphasis. We are, however, dealing in our colleges with a fine group of students from other than the Baptist denomination; therefore, the work in our colleges requires a somewhat different approach. The whole program of the Christian college must have a sound academic base, furthermore resting upon and permeated by an unapologetic Christian philosophy. This Christian perspective calls for an openness and unhindered investigation of truth in the light of divine revelation. In no respect will this emphasis be harmful to the academic standards; in fact, such may well be an academic asset.

We are not satisfied to be only a good college, nor even a good Christian college. There must be the added characteristics which are distinctive to the Baptist faith. Herein is our reason for being. Our colleges should offer opportunity for a thorough study of Baptist history and doctrine to all its students. Perhaps such courses should be required by those who are in training for church-related vocational service.

State colleges, by their very nature, work under certain restrictions which prevent them from doing this task. Of all people, Baptists do not expect the state to teach religion in any form. We have said throughout our history that this is the responsibility of the church. Our state colleges must deal with the so-called secular emphasis in life, having education for education's sake as their goal. Into this vast sea of secular education, Baptists with our homes, churches, and colleges must witness to our faith as it relates not only to the means but also to the ultimate ends of life.

With this general concept of the Baptist colleges, our forefathers set about to provide colleges where Christian education would be provided not only for ministers and other church leaders, but for leadership in all areas of social activities. For more than seventy-five years after the opening of Wake Forest College, her presidents and supporters often opposed any colleges being operated by the state. Evidently, these men foresaw what has happened with much of higher education in America today. With a secular state providing a secular education we are rapidly losing the early Christian education emphasis. Unless something is done quickly to change this trend in America, we can find little hope for our churches and our Christian homes. North Carolina Baptists have been pioneers in this effort to preserve Christian education. These efforts have met opposition from many sources, often from those who would be expected to be their strongest supporters. The struggle for these colleges as the hope of providing Christian education for young men and women must never stop if our Baptist people wish to have a significant role in shaping the kind of world we are to have. As go these Christian colleges, so will go our homes and our churches. There can be no Christian homes and churches in today's world when we cease to provide Christian education in Christian colleges.

The principal characteristic of a Christian college is to be found in the men and women who constitute its personnel—not in buildings and subject matter, or other non-personal features. These people in our colleges constitute the very fabric into which every worthwhile experience must be woven. These are the people who are determining largely the kind of Baptist denomination we shall have in the future. It is becoming increasingly difficult each year to secure these dedicated and well-trained people to work and teach in these colleges. They are given no special considerations in costs of living or preparation for this work, but they must be willing to accept these responsibilities with salaries much lower than those paid in public schools and colleges. As Baptists, we must give serious thought to this important matter of providing people for operating our colleges. Perhaps we should make it possible for our most capable and promising young people to continue their education and prepare to become our teachers and leaders of tomorrow.

Now let's look at the young people who are living in these seven college communities for the greater part of each year. There are approximately 8,000 regular students enrolled, with another 2,000 who do special work and come for summer school. Two-thirds of these are Baptist young people and the other third young people of other denominations. We are happy to help this group from the other churches because three-fourths of all Baptist youths in colleges are in other than Baptist colleges. We must never forget that three out of every four Baptist youths in college must look to some college other than our seven Baptist colleges, and we are deeply concerned for their welfare also. This is why we must be careful to continue to provide a good ministry through the Baptist Student Union in all colleges along with and in addition to the work in our Baptist colleges. Also, we should never place requirements on those students of other denominations in our seven colleges which we would not want imposed on our Baptist youth attending other than Baptist colleges. These are important matters which are often overlooked by critics of our Baptist colleges. Of the Baptist students attending one of our seven colleges, one out of eight students is preparing either for the ministry or some other church-related vocation. Here we find our Baptist seed corn for the kind of Baptist harvest we may expect to reap in the future. The annual operating budgets of these seven colleges—Wake Forest, Meredith, Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, and Wingate total between eleven and twelve million dollars. Students pay some over half of this total and Baptists through the Cooperative Program this last college year paid about five per cent of the operating costs. In addition to these two sources, students and Baptists, other sources provided nearly one-half of the operating costs. Other sources include endowment income, net earnings from such auxiliary enterprises as dormitories, dining room, student centers, etc. In addition to these costs for operation, the seven colleges are spending several million dollars each year in expanding and improving their physical plants and equipment. For the last ten years our Baptist people have provided an average of $500,000 each year to help with these capital outlay costs.

In these financial matters we have heard much discussion in recent years. The special Convention Committee of 21 members brought its report to the special session in Greensboro on May 4, and all the report and actions taken relate to this matter of trying to help these seven Baptist colleges meet the growing needs of these young people. The proposals of the committee and the recommendations adopted by the Convention are aimed at helping in both operating costs and capital outlay or plant costs. The operating needs would be helped by freeing all the regular Cooperative Program funds for operation only, which would almost double the present five per cent, or give the colleges some $1,200,000 each year to aid in operation. The special convention approved this idea by adopting a Program of Advance for the next three years, 1962-64, through the Cooperative Program. The carrying out of the proposed program in full will give the colleges in the next three years more than $8,000,000 for plant expansion and improvements and nearly $1,000,000 for new student centers in other colleges for our Baptist youths. Also, the colleges are urged to continue their special fund raising efforts from every source other than in the Baptist churches. At no time in their history has there been greater interest in the importance of the work of these colleges among our Baptist people and all of us should join in this significant undertaking. As Baptists, we have different opinions as to how we may best proceed to do our work, but of greatest importance is the fact that we recognize the needs and set about doing something to meet them. Now what can you do to help?

- (1) Be informed and concerned. Read about our colleges, visit them, become acquainted with the administration, faculty, and students.
- (2) Encourage your best students to attend.
- (3) Pray for these schools.

(4) Support the Cooperative Program, especially the Program of Advance.

(5) Promote and support Christian Education Day in your church.

For fifteen years North Carolina Baptists have coordinated the work of their colleges through a Council on Christian Education in our Baptist State Convention. This Council consists of representatives of our colleges, the General Board, and our convention officers. Throughout these fifteen years Claude F. Gaddy has been the executive secretary. Last January he announced his plans to retire from this position and did so on July 31, 1961. In its July meeting, the Council on Christian Education recommended the election of Mr. A. Harold Cole as its executive secretary and the General Board officially elected Mr. Cole. For four years he has served as director of our Department of Baptist Student Work in our convention and comes to this new position well prepared and as no stranger to North Carolina Baptists.

In conclusion, I should like to express appreciation to the office of the Council on Christian Education for information contained in this report.

Respectfully submitted,
Grace Yow, Representative
Christian Education

55. In the absence of Mrs. Marse Grant, Representative for the Children's Homes, the time was given to W. R. Wagoner, General Superintendent of the Homes, who expressed gratitude for the support given to the Children's Homes, but in doing so he cited case histories which revealed that an expanded service could be given to the needy children of our state only if more funds were available. He invited continued support through the Thanksgiving offering in order that needed improvements could be made. The report was adopted as follows.

Report on Baptist Children's Homes

Since 1885, Baptists of North Carolina have taken pride in their child care program which is one of the best in America. This ministry meets pressing human needs and therefore it has great appeal.

The Children's Homes are caught up in a period of change in support, in the type of child they minister to, the care being provided and in approaches to meeting the needs of the child.

For example, the trend is toward a greater percentage of children in foster homes—and yet last year the Homes had to cut back this program because of the lack of funds. At one time the Homes were caring for 162 children in foster homes, but last year the number dropped to 127. Many child care authorities feel that there should be as many children in foster homes as in institutional care.

When financial needs of the Homes is mentioned, two important sources of help come to mind—the Cooperative Program which provides 32 per cent of the support and the Thanksgiving Offering which provides 33 per cent. Once-a-month offerings, on the decline now, bring in 18 per cent while special gifts and endowment bring in the remaining 17 per cent. The Thanksgiving Offering goal this year is $400,000. Last year's offering was the biggest in history—more than $296,000—but this year more is needed.

The addition of the Odum Home for Indian Children at Pembroke to the program put an even tighter squeeze on funds available. The work there is showing great progress, as well as the programs at Mills Home and Kennedy Home. Well-trained caseworkers investigate every application for help.

The best way to be informed about your Baptist child care program is by reading Charity and Children, weekly newspaper published by the Children's Homes. It is now in its 75th year of service to the Homes. If your church does not get a bundle, it should take steps to do so immediately.

It is almost trite to say that the foundation of the world of tomorrow will be composed of today's children. That's why it is so important for us to see that deserving children are given a chance to reach their potential. Your support of the Baptist Children's Homes will strengthen the foundation of the world of tomorrow.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. J. Marse Grant

56. W. H. Vinson, Representative for the Homes for Aging, made his report and moved its adoption. W. A. Poole, General Superintendent of the North Carolina Baptist Homes, was recognized and he made a brief, but very interesting report on the activities of the Homes. He stated that there are 150 persons on the waiting list and that the Hamilton Home, which was to open in the spring of 1962, will be able to accommodate only about 30 of that number. He urged continued support of the Homes for Aging so that this waiting list could eventually be reduced.

North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging Report

How thrilling it is to minister to the aging in our midst! North Carolina Baptists can be justly grateful for their Christian ministry to 125 residents in their three homes—Resthaven and the Hayes Home in Winston-Salem, and the Albemarle Home in Albemarle.

With 130 people waiting for admission at the present time, lack of rooms is one of our most acute problems. North Carolina Baptists, however, are definitely doing something about this situation. The Hamilton Home, now under construction in Martin County, is a proof-positive. This, our fourth home, will provide for 30 additional residents. It is hoped that the Hamilton Home will be ready for occupancy no later than the first of January, 1962. A debt of $275,000.00 has been assumed on this home, and for the purpose of completing the liquidation of the indebtedness on the new infirmary at Winston-Salem. There is no further expansion of desperately needed additional facilities anticipated until the major portion of this debt is paid. Special day offerings and gifts from the churches should, therefore, be increased greatly in order that we may go on in the great task which is ours, and that we might meet the ever-increasing demands of the aging among us as quickly as possible.

We are now in the eleventh year of operation, and the past year has been a great one and a good one. Twenty-six new residents have been received and are now finding happiness and peace, love and security, in their new home.

The special day offerings and special gifts are running 17% ahead of last year's contributions, and we are profoundly grateful to each church and to each individual for the liberal support to the wonderful cause which we represent.

The appointment of Mr. C. O. Weaver of Greensboro, North Carolina, as Business Administrator of the Homes has proven to be one of the greatest blessings of the past year. This dedicated layman is serving with unusual ability and insight and is making a splendid contribution to the work.

The average age of our residents is around 80, and we rejoice in the fact that the life-span is increasing for them. We are exceedingly grateful that one of them, Aunt Fannie Drumwright, reached her 100th birthday on July 6. She is the first resident in our North Carolina Baptist Homes to attain this remarkable milestone. She is the living example of the years that are actually being added to a person's life by the loving kindness of North Carolina Baptists through the tender care of our Homes.

One of the most wonderful gifts ever made to the Homes is now coming fruition. It is the handsome duplex apartment, made possible through the generosity of Miss Roxie Sides of Winston-Salem. This new facility, now under construction on the Reynolds Park Road site in Winston-Salem, will be occupied in the fall, we hope, and will open an avenue for four additional residents.

Along with our many blessings have been the moments of bereavement which have saddened our hearts, but we have soon been lifted up in the knowledge that God has called His own unto Himself. During the past year the following persons have been called to the Heavenly Home: Mr. Charles V. Pegram, Mr. Jack Stanley, Mrs. Bertha King, Mrs. Leona Wade, Mrs. Bertha Swindell, Miss Cora Byrd, Mrs. Lillie Scott, Mrs. Louise King, Mrs. Lillie Giles, Miss Lucy Stout, Mrs. Mattie Owen, Mrs. Mary Clontz, Mrs. Ida Ayers, Mrs. Rose Blanton.

The happiest times in the Homes ever are when friends and members of our North Carolina Baptist churches visit us. We extend a cordial welcome to come and see first-hand the things of great Christian significance that are being experienced daily in our Homes and that can never adequately be described on the printed page.

Pray for us, visit us, and continue the same splendid support in the future that you have so graciously given in the past. Remember that we cannot go on without the love, the fellowship, and the help of every North Carolina Baptist.

57. In the absence of L. M. Massey, Representative of the Baptist Hospital, Ed Sessoms, Pastor of the Boylan Heights Baptist Church, brought the report. Upon his motion the report was adopted. In speaking to the report, the representative of the Hospital stated that they seek to create a feeling of belonging to those who have to become a patient at the hospital. Through the Progressive Care Unit notable progress has been evident in the recovery of the patients. The hospital has pioneered in several areas of patient care which have proved highly effective and encouraging.

Report on North Carolina Baptist Hospital

Cost of caring for Service Patients beyond what the patients paid	$968,000.

Normal Charges for professional services by the physicians who make no charge to any service patient, beyond insurance payments which may be available, would amount to at least as much as the cost of the Hospital service for which the patients do not pay	$ 968,000.

Total free service to the Service Patients	$1,936,000.

Mother's Day Offerings	$ 233,000.

Amount of free service for every Mother's Day dollar received	8.

Funds from various Welfare and health agencies, foundations (all for individual, qualifying patients), and other voluntary gifts for this purpose	$312,500.
---	------------

The Hospital was able to absorb this large cost in 1960, but it looks now as if it will not be able to do so this year, or to continue to do so.

Hospital received from Cooperative Program	$146,862.

This is committed to capital need: payments on buildings, purchase of equipment, etc. (All our institutions have regular capital requirements.)

Our State Convention Program is sent up on the premise that the major part of the Hospital support from our churches will come through the Mother's Day Fund. Most churches give this in a special offering at Mother's Day. Some of the churches provide it through budget designations, or by a combination of both plans. Some churches have a Mother's Day Offering envelope printed and placed in each member's package of church offering envelopes.

The Service work of the Hospital is dependent on the Mother's Day Fund, which makes it possible to secure many other funds from Welfare agencies which never pay the total cost for the care of Service patients. If the Mother's Day Fund were taken away and no substitute provided, it would completely cripple the Service Program of the Hospital.

Hospital Representative

Report of American Bible Society

Please listen to this earnest appeal of a Chinese College student: "We students want to know Jesus. We must have this book." Then listen to another who says: "Your English Bible speaks to my head, but my Chinese Bible speaks to my heart."

People must have the Bible because it presents Jesus Christ, the one hope of men and nations.

Each person must have the Bible in his own language because it speaks to his heart as no other language can speak.

The Bible is the essential tool of missions and evangelism. The missionary uses it in all his work. The Bible itself is a missionary. It can go where the human missionary cannot go. It can stay on after he must leave—and keep on speaking to a person's heart. But, we must remember, in most lands people cannot afford even the cost of printing the Scriptures.

The American Bible Society helps missionaries to translate the Bible. It publishes without note or comment and distributes without profit, usually below cost. In cases of special need, at home and abroad, Scriptures are given without charge. The Bible Society is an active partner of Southern Baptists and serves every form of Southern Baptist work around the world.

During 1960 the American Bible Society—

- rejoiced that some part of the Bible has been published in 1165 languages: the full Bible in 221, a Testament in 277 more and a Gospel or other complete book in 667 more.
- gave over a million Scripture volumes for distribution by Chaplains to our Armed Forces and Veterans' Hospitals, as a vital link between the home churches and men in service.
- observed its 125th anniversary of supplying Scriptures for the Blind, far below cost, in Braille and other raised-letter systems and on Talking Book records.
- enlarged the ministry of the Finger-Fono, a phonograph operated by one finger, with Bible records in the languages needed, for use in areas throughout the world where many people can not read. Records are now available in 30 languages and others are being prepared.

—helped the Korean Bible Society to realize their long-sought goal of distributing more than a million Scripture volumes in a single year; also rejoiced in the sustained interest in Japan where, for the last 5 years, Scripture distribution has averaged almost 2 million volumes.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS SUPPORT THE WORK

Because the Society serves mission work—and Southern Baptist missionaries depend on the Bible Society for Scriptures they need for their people—Southern Baptist churches believe in the missionary importance of giving to the American Bible Society. In 1960 Southern Baptist churches gave $151,626 to the American Bible Society.

The help of every Southern Baptist church is needed. Has your church given this year?

Dedicated to John W. Kincheloe, Jr.

In the summer of 1948 Dr. John W. Kincheloe, Jr., assumed the pastorate of the Hayes Barton Baptist Church of Raleigh, North Carolina. Through his scholarship, his deep consecration, his modest and quiet manner, his basic outreach to human need, his powerful prayer life, and his Christian example, his service has blessed the entire Raleigh Baptist Association.

For fourteen years Dr. Kincheloe gave faithful and fruitful leadership on important committees in the association. For two years he was a wise and able moderator of the association. As Chairman of the Missions Committee, he led in establishing new churches and missions. Under his leadership, Hayes Barton contributed almost $34,000 to the work of the Raleigh Association.

Dr. Kincheloe was never too busy to give generously of his time and friendship to young pastors. No worthy cause for Christ found him lacking in devotion and loyalty. Among other responsibilities beyond his church and association, he was a trustee of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, and served as chairman of the Board of Directors of the BIBLICAL RECORDER.

The prayers and good wishes of countless friends in the Raleigh Baptist Association will follow Dr. Kincheloe and his dedicated family to their new ministry in Richmond, Virginia. Our own lives are enriched by their fourteen years of noble service to Christ in our community.

Report of Secretary of Missions

This has been a good year in the Raleigh Baptist Association. We are grateful to God for the holy privilege of working with churches in the association that are increasingly aware of their responsibility to share the message of Christ in all areas of life.

The volunteer leaders of the association are finding many ways to be of service to the church. These leaders are seeking by every possible means to provide a strong program of associational activities through the Training Union, Sunday School, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, and Music Department Ministry. The helpfulness of these well-balanced monthly associational activities is limited only by the degree of participation on the part of the churches.

At this 157th Annual Session of our association permit me to challenge you with "Our Mission Together in the Association" for 1963. As you know, 1963 is to be observed as World Missions Year as a part of the Baptist Jubilee Advance. All that we plan to do in the association this year needs to have a concentrated emphasis upon World Missions.

In all of our associational meetings let us pray for deeper conviction concerning our world missions obligation at home and abroad. Every effort should be made to stimulate a sense of personal involvement and responsibility on the part of our people in the churches. We need to intensify our prayer life in behalf of world evangelization, quicken response and commitment to the call of Christ, and inspire faithful stewardship practice in its fullest significance. All of this will strengthen the cause of world missions for years to come.

Associational programs and activities are planned to focus attention upon what is being done and should be done in the name of Christ beyond the confines of the church in its local community. Special emphasis for world missions will be given on "M"-Night. The Training Union will sponsor studies of World Missions Week, April 22-26, 1963. We will continue to disseminate information about the Cooperative Program so as to personalize and dramatize this plan of giving to world missions. Every church will be encouraged to give a larger percentage of its offerings to world missions through the Cooperative Program.

The Sunday Schools will be challenged to teach the Bible so effectively to persons of all ages that they will prove to be a "spearhead for missions." The paramount need in every church is for Bible teaching that will be fruitful in evangelism and increased missions interest.

The associational Woman's Missionary Union and the Brotherhood will spare no effort to cause us to see our place in the Great Commission and to arouse an awareness of our responsibility to do something vital about this whole world in our day. A call for increased personal and concerted prayer for missions will be a priority in all gatherings. This should result in an increase of mission volunteers among the youth of our churches.

Your Missions Committee will continue to encourage the establishment of more missions and new churches. Nine known missions in the association are now bringing the gospel to needy multitudes. More of our churches need to know the joy of service in this phase of world missions. This is our next door world missions opportunity.

CONSTITUTION FOR THE RALEIGH BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I—NAME

This body shall be known as The Raleigh Baptist Association of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II—PURPOSE

The purpose of this association shall be (1) the cultivation of closer bonds of fellowship, sympathy, mutual understanding and brotherly love; (2) the counseling together in plans and programs for the strengthening and enlargement of God's Kingdom; and (3) the promotion of Evangelism, Missions, Education, Social Service and Benevolences through the Associational, State Convention and Southern Convention Programs.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section A. The association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area served by this association.

Section B. Any church applying for membership in the association shall be received under the watchcare for a period of time sufficient to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist church. A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Membership Committee of the association. If, in the judgment of the Membership Committee and The Executive Council, such church has met the requirements listed above, by the next regular meeting of the association, the Membership Committee may recommend through the Executive Council that such a church be received into the association without further delay.

Section C. The association shall have full right to withdraw fellowship from any church whose course of conduct is uncooperative.

Section D. Any church may withdraw from the association at its pleasure.

ARTICLE IV—MEETINGS

Section A. The Association shall convene in Annual Session on the last Thursday and Friday of October in each year.

Section B. Each church shall be entitled to one messenger for every 25 members, with sixteen being the maximum sent from any church.

Section C. All pastors of churches in the association shall be recognized as messengers in addition to those specified above.

Section D. The Association, when convened in meeting, shall have no power to infringe on any of the internal rights of the churches; it may advise with the member churches and recommend measures of usefulness for their adoption, and may claim for itself, its objects and programs, the highest consideration.

Section E. In case of emergency the Executive Council is empowered to change the time or place of meeting or call a special session of the Association.

ARTICLE V—DEPARTMENTS

The Association shall promote an aggressive program of teaching, training, Evangelism, Mission and Stewardship Emphasis through the following departments: The Sunday School Department; The Training Union Department; The Brotherhood Department; The Music Education Department. The Woman's Missionary Union shall be recognized as an auxiliary to the Association.

ARTICLE VI—OFFICERS

The Officers of the association shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of The Sunday School Department, a Director of The Training Union Department, a President of The Brotherhood Department, a Director of the Department of Music Education and three Trustees. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in Annual Session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE VII—COMMITTEES

The association shall have the Standing Committees listed below along with any other committees authorized by the association. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in annual session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next annual session. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

- A. Committee On Committees
- B. Committee On Order Of Business
- C. Committee On Nominations
- D. Committee On Membership
- E. Committee On Evangelism
- F. Committee On Ordination
- G. Committee On Time, Place, Preacher
- H. Committee On Resolutions
- I. Committee on Memorials

ARTICLE VIII—ADMINISTRATION

The Secretary of Missions and other employees of the association shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the association and the denomination. They shall work under the direction of and be subject to the authority of The Executive Council. They shall be nominated by the Executive Committee of The Executive Council, and elected by the association at any annual session, or by The Executive Council if the next annual session of the association is thirty (30) days or more beyond the date on which the employee is nominated.

ARTICLE IX—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council shall consist of all active pastors and one lay member from each member church. The officers of the Association shall be ex-officio members and shall serve as the officers of the Council. In addition the Secretary of Missions and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union shall be ex-officio members. It shall be the duty of the Council to carry forward the work of the Association between sessions and make reports to the Association.

ARTICLE X— ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The Associational Year shall begin on October 1 and end on September 30 of each year.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENT

This Constitution may be amended by the association at any annual session.

BY-LAWS

The work of the Association shall be governed by the following By-Laws:

ARTICLE I—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section A. The Moderator shall preside over sessions of the Association and meetings of the Executive Council. He shall not serve more than two terms in succession.

Section B. The Vice-Moderator shall perform the duties of the Moderator in his absence.

Section C. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep full records of the meetings of the Association and the Executive Council and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and the data from the church letters in an annual report. The Clerk shall further cooperate with the other officers of the Association in promoting the total program of the Association. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association shall direct.

Section D. The Treasurer shall receive, safeguard and disburse all funds of the association. Disbursements shall be made in accordance with the Budget adopted by the association. Non-Budget items must be approved by The Finance Committee of The Executive Council. The Treasurer shall make quarterly reports to the Executive Council and an Annual Report to the Association. He shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Council shall direct. He shall be paid such an honorarium and expenses as the Association may direct.

Section E. The Trustees shall hold title to all property of the association. When authorized by the Executive Council of the association they shall execute notes secured by Mortgages or Deeds of Trust in the purchase of church sites or other property. The Trustees in all acts with respect to property purchased shall be controlled and directed by the Association through its executive council.

Section F. The Superintendent of The Department of Sunday Schools shall promote and supervise the Sunday School Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section G. The President of The Department of Brotherhoods shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood work in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section H. The Director of The Department of Training Unions shall promote and supervise The Training Union Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

ARTICLE II—COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

Section A. The Committee On Committees, consisting of seven members, shall nominate the members of the various Standing Committees and submit them for election by the association.

Section B. The Committee On Order Of Business, consisting of five members, shall prepare the Program for the Annual Session. This suggested Program shall be presented in printed form to the association at the beginning of the Session for action.

Section C. The Committee On Nominations, consisting of three members, shall nominate all Officers as authorized herein and submit them to the association in Annual Session for election.

Section D. The Committee On Membership, consisting of five members, shall review all applications from churches for membership in the association. The Committee shall make a thorough investigation of the petitioning church as to its doctrines, practices, and cooperation with the Baptist Program. A Formal statement of its findings along with its recommendations shall be submitted to the association or The Executive Council as provided herein.

Section E. The Committee On Evangelism, consisting of seven members, shall press an aggressive evangelistic effort within the bounds of the association. This shall be done through the encouragement of revivals in the churches, especially where the need is apparent; the promotion of simultaneous campaigns; and the promotion of evangelistic services in unchurched areas. The Committee shall meet no less than four times annually.

Section F. The Committee On Ordination shall consist of no less than seven members. Churches desiring to ordain ministers who have been called to a specific work are requested to place their candidates before the Committee for examination. After such examination the Committee will make its recommendations to the church.

Theme: Witnessing to the World

1. The 157th Annual Session of the Raleigh Baptist Association was called to order on Thursday evening, October 25, 1962 in Wake Forest Baptist Church by Moderator John M. Simms. He presented Randy Gann, Minister of Music at Carolina Pines Church, who led the congregation in singing "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult."

2. Moderator Simms then recognized Host Pastor Ben Lynes, who extended a cordial welcome to the messengers and visitors of the association.

3. J. Leonard Shearon, layman in the Wake Forest Church, conducted the devotional meditation, using as his theme the Scriptures as found in Romans 10:12-15 and Ephesians 3:8-11.

4. Ronda Robbins, chairman of the Committee on Order of Business, was recognized and commented on the general program outline for this session of the association. Chairman Robbins moved that the printed program, with such changes as may be necessary, become the order of business for the meeting and that the messengers now registered and those to be registered constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

5. Moderator Simms brought a brief message on the topic "A Look Ahead." The speaker reminded the congregation that "If we are to share Christ with the whole world we must be good Christians here at home." He stated further that, according to statistical information currently available, the Raleigh Association is not "average" in maintaining a ratio of one Baptist to every four persons in North Carolina. He challenged everyone to have a worthy part in the continued growth of our denomination by witnessing for Christ every day. He concluded his message, "Let us rejoice in what we have done, but let us keep before us what can be done."

6. Guy C. Moore brought the report on the Baptist Foundation and briefly outlined the function of this phase of our Baptist work. He explained that for the first time in the history of North Carolina Baptists we now have a full-time executive director in the person of C. Gordon Maddrey. Upon the motion of the speaker the report was adopted as follows:

THE REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

The North Carolina Baptist Foundation was authorized by the Baptist State Convention in 1919. The Board of Directors organized for business in 1920. From the period of the organization until the present, the Baptist Foundation has had a rather irregular promotion.

The Committee of 25 recommended to the State Convention in 1959 that the Baptist Foundation be fully staffed and activated. It requested the Convention to adopt a budget providing for a full-time executive secretary, with the necessary travel, office expenses, etc. It was not until July 1 of this year that a full-time executive secretary was employed. For the past few months, Mr. Peyton J. Brown has served as Interim Director, without remuneration. The total assets of the Foundation as of June 30, 1959, were $245,131.32. The total assets as of June 30, 1962, were $303,186.66. In these past three years our total assets have gained $58,055.54. This gain has largely been due to the Interim Director and our present chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Brown.

What is the Baptist Foundation? The North Carolina Baptist Foundation is an incorporated agency of the Baptist State Convention of N. C. It was created by the Convention for the purpose of procuring endowment funds and for administering said funds for all institutions and agencies owned and controlled by the Convention. It is independent of the cause it serves, but committed to its best interests. It is not a competitive agency, but a service agency dedicated to the task of undergirding all our Baptist work.

Funds usually come to the Foundation through one of five channels:

(a) Through a CHRISTIAN WILL. In his will a person leaves all or part of his estate with the Foundation for some Baptist cause. Of course, the Foundation then receives its share when the estate is settled.

(b) Through a LIVING TRUST. A person makes a donation to the Foundation while he is living. The Foundation then administers the fund and directs the income to the Baptist agency of his choice. This allows the donor to see his gift at work.

(c) Through a MEMORIAL TRUST. A person makes a gift to the Foundation in memory of a loved one and instructs the Foundation to place the income from it to one or more Baptist agencies.

(d) Through a LIFE INCOME TRUST. A person makes a gift to the foundation and specifies a Baptist agency as beneficiary, but requests the income for himself as long as he lives. This permits him to receive the earnings to the end of his life and to know the beneficiary of his charity after his death.

(e) Through LIFE INSURANCE. A person takes out a policy in some amount in the name of the Foundation and designates the Baptist cause as irrevocable beneficiary. The premium he pays is then tax free as a charitable gift.

Respectfully submitted,

Guy C. Moore

Representative

7. Pastors and other staff members coming into the association during the past year were appropriately recognized and welcomed.

NEW PASTORS, EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORS, MUSIC DIRECTORS AND SECRETARIES

Several pastors, educational directors, and music directors have come into our association since our last associational meeting. These are listed below.

Cary—Miss Sylvia Grubbs came to the Cary Church as Minister of Music on July 1, 1962. She attended Campbell College and Westminster Choir College.

Cary—Rev. John H. Dowling came to Cary as Minister of Education on September 15, 1962. He is married and has two children. He attended the University of South Carolina and Southeastern Seminary.

Cary Mission—Richard Hawk, a student at Southeastern Seminary, is serving as pastor of the Cary Baptist Church Mission.

Fuquay Springs—Rev. Otis Colston came to serve the Fuquay Church as Minister of Education on January 15, 1962. He attended Campbell College, Wake Forest College, and is a student at Southeastern Seminary. He is married and has two children.

Harris Chapel—Rev. John Darnelle was recently called as pastor of the Harris Chapel Church. He is a student at Southeastern Seminary.

Highland—Millard Crumpler began his pastorate at the Highland Church in October, 1961. He attended Campbell College, Wake Forest College and Southeastern Seminary. He is married and has two sons.

Highland—Miss Susan Leathers began serving as Minister of Music at Highland on April 1, 1962. She is a senior at Meredith College.

Hopkins Chapel—Rev. Claude Walker became pastor at Hopkins Chapel in November, 1961. He attended Carson-Newman College and is a student at Southeastern Seminary.

Knightdale—Derrick Davis is now serving the Knightdale Church as Minister of Education. He is a Carson-Newman graduate and is a student at Southeastern Seminary.

Leesville—Austol Youmans is now serving the Leesville Church as pastor.

Mary's Chapel—Tom McBride is new pastor at Mary's Chapel. He is married and is a student at Southeastern Seminary.

Millbrook—Mel Luther is Minister of Music at the Millbrook Church. His wife is serving as organist. They are both graduates of Mars Hill College and have attended Greensboro College. They have one son.

Millbrook—Mrs. Charles Bradley is serving as Church Secretary at Millbrook. She is married and has two children.

Morrisville—Norman E. Mitchell is now serving as pastor at Morrisville. He began his pastorate there on April 15. He attended Campbell College, Louisburg College, and N. C. State College. He is married and has three children.

Mount Hermon—David H. Bland is pastor of the Mount Hermon Church. He attended Wake Forest College and is presently a student at Southeastern. He is married.

Mount Vernon—Paul E. Parrish began his pastorate at the Mount Vernon Church on September 1, 1962. He attended Norman Junior College and Florida Southern College. He is a student at Southeastern Seminary. He is married and has two children, a son and a daughter.

New Bethel (R)—Thomas Pullium is now serving as pastor at New Bethel (R).

Oak Ridge—James Howard Tew became pastor of the Oak Ridge Church in October, 1961. He is a graduate of UNC and is a student at Southeastern Seminary. He is married and has three children.

Samaria—Burly Turner began serving as pastor of the Samaria Church on March 18, 1962. He attended Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He is married and has two children.

Temple—Herbert B. Gray, Jr. began serving as Minister of Music at Temple on January 1, 1962. He attended Mars Hill College. He is married and has three children.

Turner Memorial—James D. Bowen is serving as pastor of Turner Memorial.

Union Chapel—Robert Ward is now serving as pastor at Union Chapel.

Wake Forest: Glen Royal—Gerald Fountain, a student at Southeastern, is now serving the Glen Royal Church, Wake Forest.

Wake Union—Robert Ballard became pastor at Wake Union on May 1, 1962. He attended Mercer University and is a student at Southeastern Seminary. He is married.

Woodland—Roy E. Capehart is the new pastor at Woodland Church.

8. Clerk Leon P. Spencer was recognized and he reported that 224 messengers and 81 visitors had been registered for the evening meeting.

9. Prefacing his message, Secretary of Missions Robert L. Costner, paid special tributes to Moderator Simms, Treasurer L. G. Bullard, Clerk Leon Spencer, and Mrs. Barbara Barham, his office secretary, for the contribution that each had made to the work of the association during the past year. To all departmental directors and leaders he offered a kind "thank you." Inasmuch as Treasurer Bullard was in Rex Hospital undergoing surgery it was agreed by common consent to instruct the clerk to send a telegram to our treasurer expressing our concern and to assure him of our love, esteem and prayers.

Our Secretary of Missions, in a very effective and forceful manner, emphasized that World Missions, a matter of concern for all Christians, is dependent on how well we perform "Our Mission Together in the Association." He called to our attention the fact that special emphasis is to be placed on World Missions in 1963 and that the calendar of activities provides for strengthening this program in every phase of our work. He urged everyone to plan his individual calendar so that he could make his contribution to this significant effort of Southern Baptists.

10. Special music was presented by Miss Laura Kendall, soloist, and by Max Smith, organist, both of the Wake Forest Church.

11. Dr. I. N. Patterson, missionary to Nigeria, brought a stirring message on the topic, "Sharing Christ with the Whole World." In relating some of his experiences on the mission fields, Dr. Patterson cited the enthusiasm that appears in many areas on the part of the natives and the almost unbelievable leadership qualities which are in evidence among these Christians. In commenting on some of the problems that face our missionaries, he stated that there are some 250 languages in Nigeria and there are Bible translations for only four known languages. Dr. Patterson further stated that the life expectancy in America is 68 years whereas in Nigeria it is only 35; that 975 babies of each 1,000 in America live, in Nigeria 500 of 1,000; and that there are 75 doctors in America to every 1 doctor in Nigeria. Surely this missionary was well justified in saying that opportunities are unlimited in this part of our world.

12. Benediction was pronounced by H. A. Hodge.

Theme: Witnessing to the Association

13. The morning session was opened at the Garner Church with Randy Gann leading the congregational hymn, "I've Found a Friend." He was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Maynard and at the piano by Mrs. Harper.

14. W. C. Adkinson, Pastor of the Garner Church, was recognized for announcements and comments. On behalf of the host churches, Fellowship, Highland, Mount Moriah, New Bethel, Turner Memorial and the First Church, Garner, he extended a very hearty and cordial welcome to the representatives of the association.

15. Using passages of Scripture from II Corinthians 5:18-21 and Acts 1:8, Richard Byrd, layman from the Garner Church, conducted the period of devotion and meditation.

16. Associational Superintendent Allen Laymon offered brief comments concerning the witness of the Sunday School during the past year and presented the following report which was adopted.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

This past year for the Sunday School Department has been a very fruitful year. We have seen greater responses to our planned meetings than last year and for this we are thankful. We only hope and pray that the churches have received valuable aid and help for the organizations and departments of their Sunday School.

In January, 1962, departmental conferences were led by a staff of State and Associational Sunday School workers. These conferences were most helpful in bringing more quality to all of our work. The Rev. Neil Armstrong of High Point, N. C. brought the inspirational Message. This conference was held at Emmanuel Baptist Church.

In July, 1962, with the temperature very warm we met at Millbrook Baptist Church for our Summer Associational Workers Conference. Attendance was excellent at this Conference with the theme being on "Visitation." The film, "Missionary to Walker's Garage," was shown for the Inspirational feature.

At our Officers Clinic in September the newly appointed officers met with Mrs. Myra Motley to discuss the Work of the Sunday School for the New Year. The theme will be, "Outreach for the Unreached—Spearhead for Missions". At this Clinic we discussed the goals for our Association in the coming year. These goals were adopted at our Sunday School Action Night.

40 Churches earning awards in Category 17.

50 Churches observing January Bible Study Week.

8% Enrollment increase in the Sunday Schools.

84 Vacation Bible Schools; 1 Mission School.

35 Churches observing Preparation Week, September 22-29, 1963.

5 Standard Sunday Schools.

This year 19 Churches observed Preparation Week and 28 Churches observed January Bible Study Week.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Frances Cooke, two Vacation Bible School Clinics were held at New Hope Baptist Church on April 19.

We are looking forward to a New Year in 1962-63 with special emphasis on our theme, "Outreach for the Unreached—Spearhead for Missions". We hope that our Sunday Schools will become better and bigger and that each member will work to promote the entire church program.

Allen Laymon, Superintendent

17. In the absence of Bennett Straughan, Training Union Director for the association, Marion Lark presented the report of the Training Union. He called attention to "M" Night and announced that the chief speaker would be Jerry Potter, Missionary to the Deaf in North Carolina. Upon motion duly made the report was adopted.

TRAINING UNION REPORT

During the past associational year Training Union has had the following scheduled meetings: four officers' and leaders' conferences, four mass, four executive committee, and one clinic. Attendance at all of these has been very good. Also, in cooperation with our associational missionary, our officers attended in good number the planning meeting for all associational officers.

The annual banquet was held on May 11. As usual attendance was overflowing in Carroll Hall of the Tabernacle Baptist Church. The speaker this year was the Rev. Russell Churchill of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church, Raleigh.

As usual, "M" Night was another of the highlights of the year. Unable to secure the facilities of the Memorial Auditorium for this meeting, the J. S. Dorton Arena at the North Carolina State Fairgrounds was used. A large choir, directed by Willis Abernethy of the Emmanuel Church, added to the occasion. This year the attendance was 2,615—the highest in the State. Rev. Harold Cole, BSU Secretary, was the speaker.

The Youth Convention at Graham, N. C. was another highlight of the year with many of our young people from the association attending.

Baptist Youth Night was observed this year and was held at the Longview Baptist Church.

Our State assemblies were well-attended by our people of all ages at all of the conferences.

We are looking forward to a most challenging year in 1962-63 with special emphasis toward organizing more Training Unions in churches with none and in encouraging our people to visit more in the interest of the entire church program.

Bennett Straughn, Director

1. Mrs. Earl Crumpler, Associational Woman's Missionary Union President, in her brief report paid tribute to the outstanding service rendered by her predecessor, Mrs. W. C. Adkinson. She made reference to the report as recorded in the Book of Advance Reports and moved its adoption with the privilege of amending it upon receipt of additional information. Motion carried.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

"That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations." As we take a backward look, just how have we measured up to our motto in making Christ known to all nations?

Of the 84 churches and missions in our association, 76 have WMS's. Two of these churches have two WMS's making a total of 78 WMS's with a membership of 4,588. We have 33 YWA's with a membership of 294. We have 141 GA's with a membership of 1,545. We have 134 Sunbeam Bands with a membership of 1,860. We have 13 Sunbeam Nurseries with a membership of 79, thus making a total of 356 WMU organizations with a membership of 8,366.

October 12-13 our associational officers conducted a WMS Workshop at the Ephesus Baptist Church, with some over 200 attending. Those participating in the Workshop were: Mrs. Roger Crook, Mrs. Leo Horton, Mrs. J. B. Hipps, Mrs. L. D. Holt, Mrs. William Pope, Mrs. Ben Fisher, Mrs. James Heaton, Mrs. L. G. Christian, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Douglas Aldrich, and Mrs. W. C. Adkinson. There were some more than 125 women receiving their Cards of Accreditation.

On October 14, Mrs. Douglas Aldrich conducted her YWA Council Meeting at Umstead State Park. They had a clinic for their officers with a picnic supper following and climaxed with an inspirational message by one of our Missionaries, Rev. Colon Godwin from Kumasi, Ghana, West Africa.

Our Youth Workshop was held November 2 at Ridge Road Baptist Church with some over 125 attending. All of these ladies received their cards of accreditation. Those helping in the Workshop were: Miss Willa Dean Freeman and Miss Delois Hamrick, both from our State WMU Office, Miss Freeman working with the GAs and Miss Hamrick working with the Sunbeams. Then the following associational officers helped: Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. L. G. Christian, Mrs. Douglas Aldrich and Mrs. W. C. Adkinson.

We met at Millbrook Baptist Church, January 25 for our Mission Study and Departmental Institute. There were conferences on Prayer—Mrs. W. C. Adkinson; Stewardship—Mrs. L. D. Holt; Community Missions—Mrs. Roger Crook. Then the Method classes for our Home Mission Series entitled, "New Churches for Our Time", were taught by the following: Sunbeams—Mrs. Paul Stewart and Mrs. James Roberts; Juniors GAs—Mrs. Bernice Harvey; Intermediate GAs—Mrs. Lila Hopkins, the author of the book taught; YWAs—Mrs. A. D. Aldrich; WMS—Rev. Robert Costner and Mrs. Leo Horton. This meeting was repeated that night for the women who work.

Mrs. Douglas Aldrich with her YWAs met for their YWA Council Meeting at Hayes Barton Baptist Church, January 29. This was in the form of an International Tea with some twelve or fourteen foreign students present for the meeting.

Our Annual WMU Meeting met at Samaria Baptist Church, March 22, with a total of 412 registering, was a high light of our year's work. Our theme was: "That Thy Way May be Known". We had as our guest speakers for the day, Miss Kathryn Bullard from our State WMU who spoke on the Theme: "That Thy Way May be Known in North Carolina." Mrs. Marvin L. Garrett, one of our Missionaries from Africa, spoke on the Theme: "That Thy Way May be Known in Southern Rhodesia." Of course our Secretary of Missions, Rev. Robert L. Costner was with us along with his wife, Mrs. Costner, who installed our new officers.

On April 30, Mrs. Aldrich had a very nice Banquet for our YWAs at the Forest Hills Baptist Church, with Mrs. Colon Godwin, one of our missionaries from Krumasi, Ghana, West Africa, as speaker.

There were many of our GA girls attending the GA Queen's Court at Meredith College, June 8-9.

June 25-30 was the time for our Associational GA Camp. We had a very good camp with 86 girls attending and 25 staff members, making a total of 111. These girls came from 25 of our churches. There were:

- 10.....Conversions
- 2.....Dedicated life for Foreign Mission work
- 3.....Dedicated life for full time Christian service
- 23.....Rededicated their lives to Christ

38.....Decisions

We brought our associational year to a close with a very helpful Mission Study Institute, conducted by our Vice President, Mrs. Roger Crook, assisted by Mrs. A. D. Aldrich, Mrs. Leo Horton, Mrs. Clifford Horton and W. M. Enzor. This was preparing our people for our Foreign Mission Series of studies to be taught in November. We had as our guests six International Students and three retired missionaries. There were 42 churches represented with 164 registering.

We had 29 WMSs, 2 YWAs, 51 GAs and 10 Sunbeam Bands earning recognition on our Aims for Advancement. They are:

Now in closing I would like to call your attention to the words of Jesus when he said, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." —John 12:32. May we lift Him up in our living during the year ahead, "That the world through Him might be saved." John 3:17.

19. Dr. G. K. Middleton spoke briefly to the Brotherhood report and moved its adoption. The report follows:

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

Four Associational Brotherhood meetings were held during the year. In November, 1961 the emphasis was on World Missions. Plans were presented for the promotion of the Lottie Moon Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions in December. This meeting was under the direction of the World Missions Leaders and featured a message by a foreign missionary. The meeting was well-attended and of high interest to all Brotherhood members.

The February meeting emphasis concerned preparation for Jubilee Revivals in the churches during April. "Telling the Story" was the theme for the meeting. Ways of witnessing proved helpful to those present.

At the May quarterly meeting personal Stewardship and the preparation of church budgets was the emphasis.

Ways to make our Royal Ambassador work more effective in the churches were presented in a helpful way at the August meeting. This, and all other quarterly meetings of the Associational Brotherhood were planned to be of service to the Church Brotherhoods.

One of the greatest challenges of the Brotherhood is the sponsorship of the Royal Ambassadors. We are constantly making efforts to assist the churches in this work. Clinics and study groups are provided to inform R. A. Leaders about methods, materials, and activities that will appeal to the boys in our churches.

The full enlistment and utilization of the men for Christ is the greatest challenge facing North Carolina Baptists. Our churches are suffering today, not because they are over organized but because they are undermanned.

We will strive to organize four new Brotherhoods and eight new R. A. Chapters during this next year.

Respectfully submitted,

G. K. Middleton

Associational President

20. The report on Music Education was brought by Randy Gann, who introduced a motion for its adoption. This report follows:

CHURCH MUSIC REPORT

The Music Ministry of the Association, carried on by the Music Education Committee, has not been active this year, due to a lack of a full slate of officers. This will not be the case this year, and we look forward to a favorable year of progress.

An area Music Clinic is scheduled for September 9-10, 1963 in our association. We will have State and Southwide leaders here to lead in this clinic. Nearby states will be invited to participate in this important event. This type of Music Clinic will not be available again in this vicinity for several years.

Your Music Education Committee of the association stands ready to assist any local church upon request. We believe that our churches have an increased interest in and appreciation of the best in church music. To that end the Music Ministry of the association dedicates itself.

Randy Gann, Director

21. The congregation joined in singing "Like a Mighty Army."

22. In the absence of Garland Hendricks, the Annuity Board report was presented by Ben Lynes, who moved it adoption. The report follows:

ANNUITY BOARD REPORT

All of us are concerned about economic security for pastors and other ministers who serve the churches. A few basic considerations demand our attention:

1. Churches demand competent workers who are well educated and who have excellent leadership qualifications. Such persons have invested considerable time and money in preparation for service to the churches. Other persons in our society who possess comparable abilities are doctors, attorneys, managers in business and industry, educators. These are expected to lead the way for others.

2. Most of our churches do not pay salaries which are adequate. A minister must pay current living expenses for his family, operate an automobile, represent his church in many places, educate his children, and provide some protection in the form of insurance and annuity. Most ministers have little or nothing left for insurance and annuity protection for disability or old age.

3. The Southern Baptist Convention, through its Annuity Board, now offers financial protection for Baptist ministers and some other church employees. Our Protection Program assures church workers and their families of future security in case of disability, death, or retirement. It is designed to help those in the lower income brackets, as well as those with higher income.

How do churches and their ministers take advantage of this Protection Program? Both the church and the minister make an agreement with the Annuity Board. Now it is recommended that a church pay the monthly installments for itself and its minister. This should be in addition to his regular salary. So if your church is not participating in the Program, find out about it by getting in touch with Guy Cain at the Baptist State Convention, Baptist Building, 301 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh, N. C. He will send literature which explains the program. Or he will arrange to see you and explain the Protection Program.

There are several situations in which a minister benefits by participating in the Annuity Board Protection Program.

1. Retirement. If a minister lives to retirement age he can draw monthly income as long as he lives. The amount he can draw each month is based upon the number of years he participates in the Program and the average annual salary for those years.

It should be pointed out that the average minister who lives to retirement age lives fifteen years longer. Many of them live to be more than eighty years of age. Unless a person has some guaranteed income for those years he can find himself in serious difficulty.

2. Disability. A great many persons lose their health and find it necessary to quit regular work. In such a case a minister who is in the Protection Program can retire with monthly income prior to age 60. After age 60 one can retire under Early Retirement Provision with more liberal benefits. The maximum benefit which one can receive in early retirement or under disability provision is dependent upon the number of years of participation and average salary.

3. Death. In event of death before retirement or in retirement there is provision for payments to the widow for life or until remarriage, or if no widow survives there is a lump sum paid to the family survivors.

Your associational representative recommends that:

1. Each church participate in this Southern Baptist Protection Plan for the benefit of its pastor and any other ministers.

2. Each church participate on a regular basis and continue during periods when the church is seeking a new minister.

3. Each church pay the full cost of participation for its minister(s).

4. Each minister in the Raleigh Baptist Association learn about the provisions of the Plan and inform his people.

5. Each minister and church inform all members of a church about the Plan and its provisions so that our people may appreciate this kind of protection for ministers.

23. The Report of the Executive Council was made by W. H. Vinson. The minutes of the Council's activities during the year were read and appropriately discussed. Upon motion the report was adopted.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association held its first meeting of the new year on January 15, 1962, at the Calvary Baptist Church. Secretary of Missions R. L. Costner opened the meeting and explained that President John Simms would be delayed due to another engagement.

The group joined in singing "Blessed Assurance", after which Dr. E. F. Canaday led in prayer.

New pastors and lay representatives of the Council were recognized and welcomed to the meeting.

Treasurer L. G. Bullard's report was presented and, upon motion of L. D. Holt, was adopted. It was noted that at various times there are some unused balances on hand. In view of this situation motion was offered by Dr. Canaday, seconded, that the treasurer be instructed to invest any inactive funds in savings on the daily interest plan. This would enable the Association to realize some income in this manner.

Mr. Mullinax, Pastor of the Cary Church, gave a progress report on the cooperative effort between the Cary Church and the Missions Committee of the Association toward the establishment of new work in the Cary Community which is expected to grow soon into a church.

Following the request of Reverend Robert Coats, Pastor and B. L. Johnson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Fellowship Baptist Church, that title to the property be transferred from the Raleigh Baptist Association to the church, motion was offered by John W. Kincheloe, Jr., seconded by H. A. Hodge and passed unanimously as follows:

"I make a motion that title to all property of the Fellowship Baptist Church now held by the Trustees of the Raleigh Baptist Association be turned over to the Trustees of the Fellowship Baptist Church, subject to the approval of First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Raleigh, North Carolina."

Mrs. W. C. Adkinson reported briefly on several significant dates on the Calendar of Activities for W. M. U. work in the Association.

The matter of lending financial assistance toward the expense of the Associational Training Union Director attending a southwide meeting in Memphis brought considerable discussion. In the absence of a policy on this type of program, motion was offered by David E. Daniel of Zebulon to pay the expenses of Alton Strickland, which was estimated to be about $125.00, and one-half of the expenses of two other persons if there were others who desired to attend the meeting from our Association. Pursuant to this action, Dr. Heaton moved that the Finance committee confer with the Secretary of Missions to study the matter and to recommend a policy that will serve as a guide for similar situations in the future.

Mr. Costner urged members of the Council to mark their calendars and plan insofar as possible to attend the regularly scheduled meetings throughout the year.

There being no further business the motion to adjourn prevailed and Dr. Whaley said the benediction.

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association held its second meeting of the year on April 16, 1962, at the Carolina Pines Baptist Church. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Robert L. Costner in the absence of the Moderator. A welcome was extended by Rev. V. P. Locke of the Carolina Pines Baptist Church and he also led in prayer.

Bennett Straughn, Associational Training Union Director, made the announcement concerning the Annual Training Union Banquet to be held at the Tabernacle Baptist Church on May 11, at 6:30 p.m. Reverend Russell Churchill of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church will be the guest speaker. Straughn asks that we please use the tickets that we request. He also mentioned the Training Union Youth Convention at Graham, North Carolina at the First Baptist Church during the weekend of May 4.

Rev. Allen Laymon, Sunday School Superintendent of the Association, announced that the Vacation Bible School Clinic would be held on Thursday, April 19 at the New Hope Baptist Church from 9:00-12:30 and a repeat from 7:15-9:15 that night. The Clinic will be under the direction of Mrs. Frances Cooke.

Mr. Costner distributed materials for the Week of Prayer for Associational Missions. The week suggested is April 29-May 6. No extra meetings or offerings are necessary.

Rev. R. T. Mullinax of the Cary Baptist Church gave the report concerning the Mission that the Cary Church is sponsoring. On March 11, the group began meeting at Cary High School. Average attendance is now about 60 and offerings are over $100.00 per week on the average. Two Sunday Services are now being held. The present need is for pastoral leadership, the group has asked the Missions Committee of the Association for assistance in this area, so a pastor can be called. A member of the Cary Church has donated five acres of choice land in Cary for the new church.

Therefore, a proposal came that the Association assist with the pastor's salary. Mr. H. A. Hodge made the motion that the association pay 2/3 of the pastor's salary up to $200 per month until January 1, 1962. At the end of this period the situation will come up for reappraisal. This motion was unanimously approved.

In the absence of the Treasurer, Mr. Bullard, the moderator made brief comments concerning the budget and financial report. A suggestion was made that Mr. Bullard be thanked for his work as Associational Treasurer. It was also noted that some of the smaller churches, that had not given to the Association in a number of years were doing so at this time. The report was accepted.

A letter from the Chairman of the Committee on Nominations for the Baptist State Convention was read. Mr. Wade Brown was seeking suggestions for people to fill vacancies on the Boards of our Convention Agencies such as the Homes for the Aging, Colleges, Hospitals, etc. Pastors and laymen are urged to submit the names of qualified people. This information is needed by June 15, 1962.

Material concerning Music Week at Caswell and Fruitland was distributed for Joe Stroud.

Mr. R. J. Carter led in the closing prayer.

The Executive Council met on July 9, 1962, at the Pilot Baptist Church, Raleigh. The meeting was called to order by Mr. John Simms. The host pastor, the Rev. Wesley Enzor, welcomed the group and led in the opening prayer.

In the absence of the clerk, Mr. David Daniel read the minutes of the last meeting. One correction was made relative to the salary of the Mission pastor. The association voted to pay up to $200.00 per month through December, 1962. This correction was made and the minutes of the last Executive Council meeting were approved.

Dan Silver, Chairman of the Calendar Committee, presented the tentative calendar for 1963 and it was unanimously approved.

The Chairman of the Finance Committee, L. D. Holt, gave the report of the Finance Committee with a suggested budget for the new associational year. It was approved by the Council and will be presented to the annual meeting.

James West, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, reported the following general officers be nominees for the 1962-1963 associational year:

L. D. Holt, Moderator

H. A. Hodge, Vice-Moderator

Leon Spencer, Clerk

L. G. Bullard, Treasurer

Bennett Straughn, Training Union Director

Allen Laymon, Sunday School Superintendent

G. K. Middleton, Brotherhood President

Randy Gann, Music Education Director

The report was approved as read by Mr. West.

Mr. L. G. Bullard presented the treasurer's report for the past quarter and it was adopted.

Charlie Herbert gave a brief report concerning the Training Union, and Allen Laymon spoke of plans for the next Sunday School conference to be held at the Millbrook Baptist Church.

In the absence of Mrs. W. C. Adkinson, Mr. Costner presented the report of the W. M. U.

It was announced that Mr. Jerry Potter will be "M" Night speaker for 1962 and special invitation would be given to all silent people to attend.

Dr. E. F. Canaday led the closing prayer.

The fourth meeting of the Executive Council was held on October 15, at the St. John's Baptist Church. The meeting was called to order by the Moderator, John Simms. The Reverend John Lambert, pastor of the host church, gave a welcome to the council members and led in prayer.

The Reverend David Pope, new pastor at Bethlehem (C), was welcomed into the association.

The minutes of the July meeting were read by James West, and he served as acting secretary for this meeting.

Attention was called to the conflict between meetings of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention and the Executive Council meetings for July and October each year. Dr. James F. Heaton made a motion that the Secretary of Missions be allowed to adjust these dates of the Council. The motion was seconded and approved.

The treasurer's report for the associational year was read by Mr. L. G. Bullard and approved by the Council. The report revealed a growing support of the associational program by the churches.

Dr. John Kincheloe, chairman of the Missions Committee, gave a brief summary of the work of the committee in recent months and brought a suggestion that the association start a "Revolving Loan Fund" as soon as possible. This would be in the interest of long range expansion in the area of new missions and churches. Marion Lark made a motion that the Missions Committee bring a report relative to this matter to the annual meeting on October 26. The motion was seconded and carried.

An announcement was made by the Secretary of Missions concerning plans for a new church on highway 98. A group of about thirty people have held prayer meetings in the area for about six weeks. The Missions Committee was instructed to study a request for aid in beginning this work and bring a report to the annual meeting.

A request was forwarded to the Council by L. D. Holt, Chairman of the Finance Committee, that the maintenance item for the Associational home be increased to care for expected repairs and improvements. Dr. Harvey Whaley made a motion that the request be approved for the 1962-63 budget. The motion was seconded and carried by Council vote.

Al Laymen, Associational Sunday School Superintendent, gave a report of the recent Leadership Training School held in the association. This report was approved.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Mrs. Mabel Hatch of the Millbrook Baptist Church.

Leon Spencer, Clerk

24. In the absence of Treasurer L. G. Bullard, the treasurer's report was presented by L. D. Holt, Finance Chairman, who commented upon the outstanding service which Treasurer Bullard had rendered the association during the years. Chairman Holt observed that a growing support for the work of the association is most encouraging, which means an expansion in the establishment of Missions in our association. The report was adopted as follows:

25. Clerk Leon Spencer presented a digest of church letters which showed substantial growth in some areas and a modest increase in most of the churches. Per capita mission gifts reached a new level in the association when the average gift for the associational year reached $11.09. Cooperative Program gifts were reported from 77 of the 84 churches in the association, and the increase over 1961 was shown at 11.6%. The First Church, Raleigh led in per capita mission gifts of $28.19; Hayes Barton trailed at $27.15; Cary ranked third with $25.77; Forest Hills fourth with $20.51; and Ridge Road fifth with $20.02. The clerk made further comparisons with ten other leading associations in North Carolina, which showed that the Raleigh Association was comparing favorably on a State level.

26. The group joined in singing "We're Marching to Zion."

27. Finance Chairman L. D. Holt presented the proposed budget for 1962-1963 and offered explanatory remarks concerning the recommendations. After a brief review the budget, upon motion of L. D. Holt, was approved.

28. Before presenting Missions Committee Chairman John W. Kincheloe, Jr. for his report, Moderator Simms expressed to Chairman Kincheloe appreciation for the contribution that he has made to the programs of the association during his pastorate at Hayes Barton and pledged to him every good wish in his new field of service at Branch's Church, Richmond, Virginia. The report of the Missions Committee, upon motion duly made, was adopted as amended.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

Your Missions Committee has held five informative meetings since making its last report to the association. Three of these were relative to assisting the Cary Baptist Church in the organizing of a new mission. Your committee found the Long Range Planning Committee of the Cary Church most helpful. A special group in the Cary Church was selected, and the new mission was started on March 11, 1962. A generous gift of land as a site for this new work was made by a family in the membership of the Cary Church. The Associational Executive Council at its April meeting voted to assist with the Mission pastor's salary up to $200.00 per month through December 1962.

The association has also assisted with the work at Fellowship and Boulevard during the past year. The financial assistance for these two churches this year concludes the agreement made by the association. We are happy to announce that Fellowship has just begun two missions. This is a splendid example for all of our older churches to follow.

At the direction of the Associational Executive Council the Missions Committee made a study of three proposals:

1. That $5,055.00 on deposit for expansion of new work be reserved for this purpose and be used for purchase of sites for churches as early as suitable locations can be found. Your Missions Committee urges the approval of this proposal.

2. That the association consider the matter of being incorporated. We believe that incorporation of the association would serve useful purposes for the future. Therefore, we recommend that the general officers and trustees of the association work as a committee with the purpose of giving further study to the matter and possible recommendation that the association be incorporated for the future.

3. That the Missions Committee study the request for financial aid for the new work begun about two months ago on Highway 98, near the Stoney Hill community. Your committee has no report or recommendation to make on this matter at this time.

Your Missions Committee urges the stronger churches to look with favor upon establishing new missions in their areas. These could be mission Sunday schools in needy places, special Bible classes in Rest Homes, Jails, and Trailer Camps. Remember that "A mission is anywhere one or more members are sent for the local church or churches at regular intervals to preach or teach the Word of God."

Churches of our association now sponsoring missions are: Cary, Good Hope, Fellowship, Longview, Pleasant Grove, Mt. Hermon, and St. John's.

Respectfully submitted,
John W. Kincheloe, Chairman
Missions Committee

29. The Report on Social Service was presented by James E. West. He commented on Biblical principles involved and subsequently moved adoption of the report as printed in the Book of Advance Reports. Motion carried.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE REPORT

We, as Christians, are the redeemed family of God having one nature and one function. Christlikeness is our nature; worship and work is our function.

Today, as never before, our society needs the presence, power and practice of a Christian conscience. We are not "seeking first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness." Horizontal vision, selfish concerns, materialism, secularism, communism, idolatries, shamefully describe our condition.

Christian Social Service emphasizes the Christian endeavor as both corporate and active. Social means united fellowship; service means creative Christian action.

In the light of who we are, and what we have to do, and keenly conscious of our sinful society, your Social Service Committee Challenges you to the following.

CHRISTIANS IN SOCIETY

We remind you of Jesus' declaration, "Ye are the salt of the earth." In the climate of Palestine salt was indispensable for the preservation of food. A bag of salt was extremely valuable because it preserved life. The implication is great. Salt gives zest to food. Christian folk ought to add joy to the common day, because they are Christian—the zest of serenity, trust, and worship. Salt is also a preservative; food spoils without it. Greed, lust, and indifference corrupt society. They cannot be corrected unless some folk are salt. That which needs to be preserved is faith, hope, and love.

Again Jesus speaks, "Ye are the light of the world." A light is first and foremost something to be seen, therefore, Christianity is something that is seen in our lives. As someone has well said, "There can be no such thing as secret discipleship for either the secrecy destroys the discipleship or the discipleship destroys the secrecy." A person's Christianity should be evident to all. A light is not only to be seen, but it is also to be a guide. Light makes the way clear so a Christian must make the way clear for others. Jesus said that His followers were to be lights in the world—lights that could be seen and lights that would serve as guides.

CHRISTIANS IN SERVICE

The salt and light of Christians are needed most of all in our homes. When the foundation and center of the home is Jesus Christ, it becomes a fortress which will stand the stress and strain of a corrupt society, and at the same time will become an agency of evangelism. Upon this foundation should be a superstructure of family prayer, respect and regard for the Bible, loyalty to the church, mutual love, trust and respect among the members of the family. The husband-wife relationship must be founded and maintained on love and fidelity. The parent-child relationship must include love and obedience. Such a home will reflect wholesome Christian living and will be attractive to others.

As Christians seek to be the light of the world and the salt of the earth, they cannot close their eyes to the many social evils that plague our day. The beverage alcohol problem is the leading culprit being used by satan to defame, destroy, and damn. If Christian forces are to be effective against this evil certain things are essential. We must shake off the indifference that has come upon us as we have listened to the constant beating of the propaganda drums by those, who for various reasons, advocate the sale of and use of alcohol. Baptists should take seriously the obligation of our church covenant, "to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage." We must promote a program of alcohol education in the home, church and school. We should insist that the law which requires the teaching of alcohol education in the public schools should be enforced, and can be enforced only in ratio to the convictions of those who teach. We can aid law enforcement officers as they seek to govern the sale and use of alcoholic beverages. We must minister to those who have become victims of this dread habit. We must fervently pray that this social evil may be crushed and finally destroyed.

The function of Christians in society is not one of conforming but one of transforming. The mind and spirit of Christ is to be applied in our dealings with minorities, as well as majorities; the aged, as well as the youth; the mentally ill, as well as the well adjusted; the alcoholic and drug addict, as well as the Christian social worker; the man who toils with his hands, as well as the professional white-collar worker. In short, the Christian ethics apply to all levels of human life, and the "Golden Rule," Matthew 7:12, needs to be practiced by all Christians.

CONCLUSION

In facing these crucial issues of our time, the Christian must base his actions on the principles of conduct taught in the Scripture. Some of these Biblical principles are:

(1) The Christian must deal with all persons on the basis of love (Mark 12:29-31).

(2) The Christian must be concerned not merely with overt actions but also with attitudes (Matt. 5:21-48).

(3) The Christian must recognize and respect the worth of every individual (Luke 15:3-32).

(4) The Christian must avoid attitudes, practices, and loyalties which threaten to enslave him (I Cor. 6:12).

(5) The Christian must consider the effect which his actions may have upon others (I Cor. 8:13).

(6) The Christian is concerned not merely to avoid evil but to do good (I Cor. 10:23; Matt. 25:31-46).

James West, Chairman
Social Service Committee

30. Calendar Chairman Dan Silver presented the recommended Calendar of Activities for the 1962-63 associational year. Upon his motion the calendar, which is found elsewhere in this annual, was adopted as presented.

31. In presenting the report of the Ordination Committee, Chairman Fred Scott outlined the procedures involved in the examination of persons seeking ordination. In order that the assignment given to the committee may be carried out in the best possible manner the chairman urged those concerned to give the committee appropriate notice so that the committee can be assembled without difficulty. Upon his motion the report was adopted:

32. The report of the Memorials Committee was brought by E. Paul West, Sr., chairman of the committee. Brief observations were made concerning the passing of Earle L. Bradley, Director of the Stewardship Promotion Division of the Baptist State Convention. Chairman West then made the following report which, upon his motion, was adopted. G. Van Stevens led in the memorial prayer.

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

We pause for a moment in our proceedings to take note that from all about us and from among us "God's children are gathering home." Many choice spirits, until recently with us, have moved up since last we met in annual session.

While we as loved ones, friends and brethren painfully relinquish for a little while the fellowship of these our former comrades, we submissively resign them to a Father's inscrutable way and goodly purpose.

In thus memorializing these our beloved who have so lately entered into the heavenly estate, we who are yet sojourners, are moved to make more lively our own hope of glory, with them and all the ransomed, by the blessed atonement and resurrection of Him who declares "I . . . was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore."

We shall assume that our clerk will, as usual, cause to be recorded in the Annual in honor of their memory the names of all the departed whose death have been reported to him by the letters from the churches.

Respectfully

E. Paul West, Sr., Chairman

33. Roy Keller, Chairman of the Membership Committee, brought the report of his committee which recommended that Fuller and Turner Memorial be received into full fellowship in the association and that Gilbert Street Church be placed under watch-care. The following report was adopted.

REPORT OF THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

The Fuller Mission and Turner Memorial came into the association last year under watchcare arrangement. We now recommend that both of these be received in full fellowship of the association. By practice and attitude as cooperating bodies each has earned the rights and privileges of full fellowship.

The Gilbert Street Baptist Church, 318 Gilbert St. in the Caraleigh section of Raleigh, was a non-denominational church until November 1960 when they voted to change their name to Gilbert Street Baptist Church. They have been using Southern Baptist literature for almost two years. The pastor, Johnny New, was ordained by the Six Forks Baptist Church.

During the summer of 1962 the Rev. Emory Holden was their evangelist during their revival. The church manifested interest in affiliating with the Raleigh Baptist Association. Mr. Holden went back and counseled with them asking them questions and answering their questions.

We recommend that this church be received under the watchcare of the Raleigh Baptist Association for one year.

Respectfully submitted,
Roy D. Keller, Chairman

34. The report of the Evangelism Committee was made by Crate Jones, chairman. He called attention to the dates on the calendar especially arranged for evangelism emphasis. Upon his motion the report as printed in the Book of Advance Reports was adopted.

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

Someone has said, "Two things make our age unique. It is the age of total revolution, and it is the age of terrible urgency."

If this is a total revolution, then it means that it will sweep the entire world in its onslaught. This certainly provokes a terrible urgency. This is not another crisis. The world has had numbers of these. This is total revolution, and it can only be met with any degree of success with total dedication, on our part, to our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The past is behind us and the future is before us. What can we do in a practical way to meet this present threat? Evangelism offers us a commendable contribution through our local church, our association, and our Convention.

Important meetings and programs:

Our associational clinic on evangelism will be held January 28, 1963 at North Street Baptist Church. All pastors and associational officers should attend, along with the teachers and officers of all church organizations.

Soul-Winning Commitment Day, January 6, 1963. We must train soul-winners by using "The Guide for Training Christian Witnesses"—pastor's edition—(which will be mailed free to every pastor on November 15, 1962, by the Training Union Department). Also, "Learning to Witness" to be ordered along with Sunday School quarterlies from the Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee.

In January, it will be worthwhile to start your three months of cultivative witnessing, training our people to witness for Christ in preparation for our Baptist Jubilee Revivals in March and April.

February 11-13, 1963 State-wide Evangelistic Conference, Greensboro. Every church would do well to consider sending its pastor to this spiritually refreshing conference. Lay people should attend too.

February is transfer Church Membership Month. The non-resident church membership problem should have special attention at this time to be followed with perennial efforts.

March and April—Baptist Jubilee Revival Crusades. The date for the Baptist Jubilee Revival in our Association is March 24-April 7, 1963.

July 2-4, 1963—Convention-wide Evangelistic Conference, Dallas, Texas. Many people are praying and planning for this to be the greatest conference on evangelism ever held among Southern Baptists.

March and April, 1964 World-wide Baptist Jubilee Revival. The date for our association is March 29-April 12, 1964.

All things point up the need for full committal to Christ in His redemptive purpose NOW . . . Nothing less than this will be enough. In fact nothing less than this has ever been enough.

Crates Jones, Chairman

35. W. C. Adkinson presented the report of the Baptist Student Union in the absence of Baptist Student Union Representative Jack Painter. Attention was called to the objectives and program of the Student Union and the importance of this phase of Baptist work.

STUDENT UNION REPORT

Objective

I. The objective of this department is to assist each person in becoming a mature Christian who is committed to God in faith, who nurtures his faith in the Church, and who manifests the Christian life in all his attitudes and actions. Involvement in a local church and growth into a faithful, qualified member of the Christian community is the aim.

Programs

II. Programs of worship, study, service, and fellowship are designed to obtain this objective.

A. Campus programs are carried out on campus and in and with the cooperation of local Baptist churches. There are 32 Baptist Student Unions in the state, and new ones are formed when and where possible. To fulfill their objectives the BSU's seek to provide an attractive inclusive religious program and to include all Baptists. In addition to Worship, Sunday School, BTU and other local church programs, most BSU's provide sustained Bible study, devotional periods, mission study and activity, forums, discussions, retreats, focus weeks, personal evangelism, service opportunities, and fellowships. Personal counsel is given by BSU Directors, Pastors and faculty. Local BSU's are Christ-centered, church-related, student-led, and campus-oriented. There are about 26,000 Baptist students enrolled in 59 colleges. Efforts are made to relate the students to a local church in a vital and redemptive manner. Baptist student centers provide significant means for reaching and involving students. Centers are located presently at East Carolina, N. C. State, Woman's College, and one has been completed at Duke University recently.

B. Statewide activities provide opportunities for Christian growth. For example, the BSU Fall Convention will meet November 2-4, and explore the theme "God's Redemptive Love" as it is expressed in a theology of missions.

C. The Student Nurses Program is concerned with student nurses and provides opportunities and activities for growth in the Christian faith. More than 750 Baptists are enrolled in the 34 schools of nursing.

D. Another item is the program near Christmas which tells about student work on the campus and is called Student Night at Christmas.

Personnel and Finances

III. The Department seeks to employ well-trained and well-qualified personnel to work in the student program. The work of the Department of Student Work is financed by the local churches when they give through the Co-operative Program. All of these work to engage each student in a meaningful religious life which demonstrates vital Christian action in and through his church. At this time more workers are needed in order to keep pace with the great increase in the number of Baptist students in college. Also, new Baptist student centers are needed now. Careful estimates show that Baptist enrollment will probably double by 1970. If we are to keep pace with our opportunities for service and our responsibilities in the name of Christ, we ought to follow through today and be prepared to provide adequate responses when students come to us and say, "Help us to grow in the grace and knowledge of God's redemption and Christ's Church."

Jack Painter, Representative

36. The congregation joined in singing "Wonderful Words of Life."

37. The clerk reported that 371 messengers and 173 visitors had been registered during the two sessions of the association. A final analysis of the registration revealed that 392 messengers and 164 visitors were enrolled from 76 churches of the association, thus making a grand total of 556 persons in attendance at the meeting. Of the eight churches not represented, two were Raleigh churches. There were 60 pastors present.

38. Several necessary announcements were made by Host

Pastor Adkinson about the serving of the lunch, which had been prepared by the six host churches.

39. Special music was rendered by members of the Garner choir.

40. Scripture reading and prayer by Lonnie Woolweaver was followed by an inspirational message by Crate Jones on the subject, "We Have Seen the Lord." Effectively illustrating his points of emphasis, the speaker stated that we can see the Lord in the pages of the Bible, that we can and must see Him as Saviour in the deep recesses of our own heart, that we see the Lord when we witness for Him, and that we shall see the Lord on that day when faith will give way to sight.

41. The meeting adjourned for lunch.

Friday Afternoon, October 26, 1962
Theme: Witnessing to North Carolina

42. Moderator Simms expressed, on behalf of everyone present, sincere appreciation for the many courtesies extended by the host churches to make our meeting with them a very enjoyable occasion.

43. Randy Gann led the congregation in singing, "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart."

44. John M. Pollack conducted the devotional period by reading the Scripture as found in John 6:35-40 and by leading in prayer.

45. Marion Lark, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, presented the report as found in the Book of Advance Reports and moved its adoption. Motion carried. He then commented favorably on the programs being carried on our TV stations. Special attention was called to "Church of Our Fathers" and "Light Unto My Path." The clerk was instructed to prepare a letter of appreciation to WRAL-TV setting forth the gratitude of the Raleigh Association for this contribution to the religious life of this area.

Chairman James West of the Committee on Nominations presented the recommendation of his committee. There being no nominations from the floor, the report of the committee was adopted.

46. The report of the Committee on Time, Place and Preacher was made by Chairman Joe Roach. The report was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON TIME, PLACE AND PREACHER

The 1963 session of the Raleigh Association will be held with the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Raleigh on Thursday evening after the 3rd Sunday in October.

The Friday sessions will be held with the Knightdale Baptist Church in the morning and afternoon. Host churches are Bethany, Bethlehem (R), Central and Samaria.

We recommend James F. Heaton of the Tabernacle Church to preach the annual sermon in 1963 and Jack Bullard of the Millbrook Church as alternate.

We recommend that the 1964 session meet on Thursday evening after the 4th Sunday in October with the Emmanuel Baptist Church, Raleigh.

We recommend further that the morning and afternoon sessions on the following Friday be held with the Stony Hill Baptist Church. Host churches are Bay Leaf, Mary's Chapel, Wakeminster, Wake Union and Woodland.

47. Chairman of the Resolutions Committee Alphonso Jordan presented the following report, which, after appropriate remarks by the chairman, was adopted.

THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

1. We resolve that the Raleigh Baptist Association does express its sincere thanks to John Simms for the splendid way he has presided over this 157th Annual Session.

2. We resolve to express our thanks to all of those who have taken part in this splendid program, all speakers, musicians, and to those who have given reports from the various departments of our Associational work.

3. We resolve to express our appreciation to the host churches, Wake Forest, Garner, Fellowship, Highland, Mount Moriah, New Bethel, and Turner Memorial, for this Annual Session. Their hospitality and cordiality have been clearly demonstrated and appreciated.

4. We resolve to express our gratitude to our Associational Clerk, Leon Spencer, and to our Associational Treasurer, L. G. Bullard, for their faithfulness and efficiency. Their tasks require much effort, time, and ability. For their devotion and service we are thankful.

5. We resolve to express our gratitude and appreciation to Dr. John W. Kincheloe, Jr., pastor of the Hayes Barton Baptist Church by dedicating the 1962 Annual of the Raleigh Baptist Association to him. Dr. Kincheloe will be leaving the Raleigh Association the latter part of November to begin his new work in Virginia. We are conscious of the splendid contribution Dr. Kincheloe has made to the Raleigh Baptist Association as Moderator for two years and as Chairman of the Missions Committee for several years. He and the Hayes Barton Church have given an unusual degree of loyalty and support to all phases of the program of the Raleigh Baptist Association.

6. We resolve to give a higher degree of loyal support and service to our association and to the Kingdom work of our Baptist State Convention.

Alphonso Jordan, Chairman

48. "Editing a Baptist Paper—A Two Way Street" was the topic of Editor Marse Grant of the BIBLICAL RECORDER. Grant asserted that the Editor and Baptists share responsibility in this program of editing a Baptist paper. In his usual interesting manner the speaker called attention to the service which the RECORDER seeks to render to the Baptists of North Carolina.

REPORT ON THE BIBLICAL RECORDER

The BIBLICAL RECORDER is deeply indebted to North Carolina Baptists for the manner in which the rate increase of July 1, 1961, was accepted. This was the first such increase in many years and frankly, there was some concern about how it would affect circulation. You will be pleased to learn that the increase has had little if any effect on the circulation of the RECORDER. Such acceptance on the part of our Baptist people provides great encouragement to the RECORDER staff and directors.

Even though the BIBLICAL RECORDER will be 130 years old next year, it continues to be as fresh and up-to-date as the morning headlines. Our state paper is solid and dependable yet keeps an open mind to that which is progressive and that which will help Baptists to do a better job.

As all of us know in our local churches, an accurate channel of information is necessary. This is as true in our denomination as it is in our churches. The RECORDER is that channel to keep you in touch each week with all that Baptists are doing around the world.

In addition to keeping you informed, the RECORDER also is an open forum for discussion of issues in which all of us are interested. Being a free people, Baptists are never afraid to discuss their problems in a Christian spirit. This has been evidenced in the RECORDER during the past year.

More than 1,700 churches now have RECORDER clubs but that number should be at least 2,000. This goal can be attained if pastors and church leaders will put forth a little special effort. The Every Family Plan, costing only 4¢ a week per family, is the best way as more than 500 churches can testify. Even the Club Plan is only a nickel a week or $2.50 a year.

Those connected with the BIBLICAL RECORDER consider it an honor as well as a responsibility to serve North Carolina Baptists. Keep them in your prayers during the coming year.

Marse Grant

Editor and Business Manager

49. Christian Education Representative Grace Yow recognized Miss Grimmer from Meredith and Bill Cobb from Wake Forest as the college representatives present. She then presented the report on Christian Education, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

"There is nothing that money can buy which is worth more to the world than Christian education." Those words were read from the will of two loyal Baptists as they pledged their estate to one of the North Carolina Baptist colleges.

The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina has believed in Christian higher education from the beginning of its great founding. One of the two main purposes which led to the organization of the convention in 1930 was "to establish an educational institution that would give training under Christian influence and provide educated ministers." Thus, immediately after the formation of the Baptist State Convention, Wake Forest College began operation.

Today North Carolina Baptists are proud of their seven institutions of higher learning: Wake Forest, Meredith, Mars Hill, Gardner-Webb, Wingate, Campbell and Chowan, located from the east to the west in our state. The colleges wish to express gratitude to God and to the Baptists of our state for divine providence and Christian concern in their behalf.

In the fall of 1961 the colleges opened with their largest enrollments in history: Campbell—1,429; Chowan—752; Gardner-Webb—611; Mars Hill—1,099; Meredith—778; Wingate—912; Wake Forest—2,866, making a total of 8,477. (Numbers of other students enrolled during the second semester and summer school of 1962.) The enrollment this fall, 1962, is more than 9,050.

The colleges are deliberately and continually seeking to illuminate the total educational process with the atmosphere of the Christian faith. In addition to Christ-related teaching, opportunities are provided daily and weekly for corporate worship. On each campus is a qualified director of religious activities whose responsibility is to counsel with students and faculty, as well as to correlate and promote a program of voluntary religious activities designed for spiritual growth.

The physical plants of the colleges continue to improve and enlarge to meet current needs. In addition to serving the thousands of students enrolled on the campuses last year, each college used its facilities for many local, state-wide, and south-wide groups.

Campbell and Mars Hill are becoming senior colleges, Campbell will graduate its first class in the spring of 1963 and Mars Hill in the spring of 1964.

The Convention is in its first year of the Cooperative Program Advance Program, in which it seeks to encourage churches to increase gifts to the Cooperative Program by 35% for a three-year span, thus providing capital outlay for the colleges and the Baptist Student Union. The Cooperative Program is somewhat higher at this time than last year, and for this we are grateful. The Christian Education Emphasis was observed on Father's Day, at which time information was sent to the churches pertaining to the work of the colleges and their role in today's world.

And, so our Baptist leaders in 1830 were wise when they recognized the value and need of Christian higher education, and were it not for their vision our seven Baptist institutions of higher learning would not be in existence today. The colleges have and will continue to provide leadership in all areas of life—ministry, teaching, home-making, etc, thus enriching our denomination, state, nation, and world.

Grace Yow, Representative
Christian Education

50. The congregation joined in singing "Take My Life and Let It Be."

51. E. L. Spivey, Director of the Division of Missions of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, spoke eloquently and interestingly on the topic, "Our Mission Together in North Carolina." Introducing his message by reference to the tense International situation he challenged everyone present to approach reality face to face without letting the tendency to run from it prevail. He cited areas of progress being made with the Negroes, the Indians, the Japanese at Cherry Point, and the Military in our State, but he graphically portrayed the urgent need for expansion in these areas as fast as adequate support can be obtained.

51. In the absence of Mrs. Marse Grant, the report of the Baptist Children's Homes was made by Marse Grant, which was adopted as presented. Vernon Sparrow, Superintendent of Mills Home, then spoke to the report. He briefly reviewed in a most interesting manner several case histories of children who had benefited by the Baptist Children's Homes and who are taking their place in society to lead our denomination to even greater heights of achievement and to make their contribution to the community in which they live.

THE CHILDREN'S HOMES REPORT

Building a better tomorrow has always been the dedicated concern of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. Today's children will become the adults who shape tomorrow's world. NO task is more important than helping a child, hurt by life, to grow into healthy, well-adjusted, responsible citizenship.

Each child who comes to the Children's Homes is different, with a different need to be met and a different problem to be solved. It is the responsibility of the Homes to find the best solution possible. For many years that meant providing food, clothing, and shelter for orphans. Today the need has changed. Today our work is with children who for various reasons have lost the security of home and parents.

During the past year, 848 boys and girls were served by the Baptist Children's Homes. In addition to those already in care, applications were received for the admission of 646 other children. We had space and money sufficient to admit 170 of these—leaving 476 for whom no room was available. Provision should be made immediately to expand greatly our foster home program to meet the needs of these children. This can be done through an increased Thanksgiving Offering.

Increasingly, your Homes are being called upon to serve children who are disturbed and emotionally ill. In addition to traditional types of child care, there is a growing need for specialized supervision and services. It is hoped that a step can be taken, within the year, to begin to provide, on a small scale, such services at the North Carolina Medical Center at Chapel Hill.

Financial support this year has come from the following sources:

Cooperative Program	33 Per Cent
Thanksgiving Offering	30 Per Cent
Once-a-Month Offering	16 Per Cent
All Other	21 Per Cent

For the first time, income to the Children's Homes through the Cooperative Program exceeds that of the Thanksgiving Offering. This source of income meets one third of our operating budget and is greatly appreciated. At the same time, the Thanksgiving Offering continues to be vital to our existence, providing 30 per cent of income. We sorely need an increase of one hundred thousand dollars through the Thanksgiving Offering this year. This would enable us to provide a Christian home and care for an additional 125 children.

We owe a debt of deep gratitude to our friends whose genuine concern for the welfare of our children makes this help possible—especially our Baptist people. You have afforded hundreds of boys and girls opportunities and privileges which they otherwise could not have had.

Charity and Children, our official publication, which this year celebrated its 75th anniversary of service to North Carolina Baptists, continues to grow in popularity and circulation. Each week 55,000 copies are sent to churches and individual subscribers throughout the state and beyond. You are invited to be among these readers and thus stay informed of our child care ministry and other denominational endeavors throughout the year.

Mrs. Marse Grant, Representative
Children's Homes

53. Marion Terry, Representative for the Baptist Homes for Aging, moved the adoption of the report of the Homes as printed in the Book of Advance Reports and presented General Superintendent W. A. Poole of the North Carolina Baptist Homes, who spoke to the report. Superintendent Poole stated that 25% of the support of the Homes comes from the special offering in February, that about 12% comes from the Cooperative Program; and that the remainder comes from the patients or interested friends of the Homes. He added that over 90% of the residents of the Homes are in need of some financial assistance. A disturbing note in his message was that there are 150 persons on the waiting list who desire the wholesome influence of the Baptist Homes. Superintendent Poole also invited people to request a print of the new movie entitled "The Loom of Love," which is an authentic film of the Baptist Homes.

HOMES FOR THE AGING REPORT

The past year in our N. C. Baptist Homes for the Aging has been one of great blessing. Of unusual significance has been the opening of our fourth Home, the Hamilton Home, located in Eastern North Carolina, and enabling us to minister to 30 additional people. The residents there are supremely happy and are enjoying the abundant life in this beautiful new facility.

Over the past eleven years we have increased by 8 times our ability to minister to the aging in our midst. In the beginning, there were 20 residents, and now we are able to give loving care to 160 persons in our four Homes—Resthaven, and the Hayes Home, in Winston-Salem, the Albemarle Home, at Albemarle, the Hamilton Home, at Hamilton.

The need for more space is most urgent and pressing. Today there are 138 applicants on the waiting list. We will want to move forward, therefore, as rapidly as funds will permit in meeting the crying demands of our ever-growing population of aging people who need our care.

The Special Day Offerings from our churches are at an all-time high and are likely to go beyond all previous offerings by the end of the fiscal year. We want to thank all who have had a part in these vital offerings, and we would urgently appeal to each church to continue giving as liberally as possible through this vital medium. Ninety per cent of the residents who live in our four Homes are financially needy people and are sustained by the Special Day Offerings from our churches each year.

The plea of the elderly person in our midst, "Cast me not off in the time of old age!" is one that cannot be lightly brushed aside, but one that must continue to challenge the highest and holiest in every North Carolina Baptist as we move forward in this great ministry which God has committed to us.

Marion Terry, Representative
Homes for the Aging

54. Edward H. Sessom, Representative of the Baptist Hospital, presented the report of the Hospital, commented briefly on the report and moved its adoption. Motion carried. He then recognized W. K. McGee, Director of Denominational Relations at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital, who spoke to the report. Director McGee outlined effectively, in his usual interesting manner, the services being offered by the Baptist Hospital. He cited Patient Care, Educational Program, Research, etc. as areas of continuing expansion and growth. Only through the generosity of individuals, business firms, Foundations, etc. can the Hospital make any Capital Improvements. He urged a continuing interest in and support of the indigent and needy persons through the Mothers' Day offering, because without this offering those individuals would be unable to obtain necessary hospital treatment.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Cost of caring for service patients beyond

what the patients paid	$1,002,208.
Mothers' Day Offering	236,903.

Amount of free service for every Mothers' Day dollar received—assuming that the free service of the physicians is equal to the hospital care $8.50

Aid for individual patients that qualify, from welfare and health agencies, foundations and voluntary gifts 250,085

Hospital receipts from Cooperative Program—this amount is used for capital need; payments on buildings, purchase of equipment and etc. 152,950

Less than four cents of every Cooperative Program dollar goes to our hospital. All of this amount is used for capital needs, therefore, the service patient help comes from our Mothers' Day offering and agencies who help qualified individuals. Our Churches make their contributions to the hospital through special Mothers' Day Offerings, budget designations. Which ever your Church does, will you give the amount a close examination? The services of our hospital will suffer greatly if we don't give deep concern, because our offerings are not increasing much while cost of service is advancing rapidly.

The total of our Mothers' Day Offerings for 1961 in the Raleigh Association was only $238.37 over 1960. The total amount of our contributions from this Association equaled about twenty-six cents per member in our membership. Will you help us to raise this average to at least one dollar per member for 1963? The majority of North Carolina people pay twenty-five dollars or more for automobile liability insurance to meet the needs of others—can we not have a more benevolent mind toward this worthy cause? Let's give this worthy cause some enthusiastic support!

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY REPORT

"Sharing Christ with the Whole World" is the aim and theme of the Baptist Jubilee Advance. Sharing the Bible with the whole world is an essential part of this program of advance.

If the people of the world are to know Jesus Christ the one hope of men and nations, they must have the Bible.

Each person must have the Bible in his own language because it speaks to his heart as no other language can speak.

But, in most countries, people cannot afford even the cost of printing the Scriptures.

The Bible is the essential tool of missions and evangelism. The missionary uses it in all his work. This Bible itself is a missionary. It can go where the human missionary cannot go. It can stay on after he must leave—and keep on speaking to a person's heart.

The American Bible Society is an active partner of Southern Baptists. It serves mission work at home and abroad. It helps missionaries to translate the Bible, publishes without note or comment and distributes without profit, usually below cost. For the Blind, it supplies

Scriptures in Braille and other raised-letter systems and on Talking Book records.

During 1961 the American Bible Society—

- rejoiced that some part of the Bible has been published in 1181 languages; the full Bible in 226, a Testament in 281 more and a Gospel or other complete book in 674 more.
- distributed a record total of over 24 million Scripture volumes in over 100 countries on 6 continents. Of these, more than 11 million volumes went overseas. Distribution abroad showed, for the second consecutive year, an increase of 20 per cent over the year before.
- realized anew, from sharp increases in Scripture distribution in Cuba and Congo, that the demand for the Bible often rises dramatically in areas of political tension and revolution.
- continued to enlarge the worldwide ministry of the Finger-Fono, a special phonograph for Bible records, operated by one finger for use in areas where many people can not read. Records are now available in 40 languages and others are being prepared.
- gave almost a million Scripture volumes for distribution by Chaplains to our Armed Forces and Veterans' Hospitals, as a vital link between the home churches and men in service.
- expanded its distribution of Scriptures to persons of special needs: Cuban refugees and others from overseas; hurricane and flood victims; patients in hospitals and nursing homes; inmates of jails, reformatories and prisons; migrant farm workers—and many others.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS SUPPORT THE WORK

Because the Bible Society serves mission work—and Southern Baptist missionaries depend on the Society for Scriptures they need for their people—Southern Baptist churches believe in the missionary importance of giving to the American Bible Society.

In 1961 Southern Baptist churches gave $164,342 to the American Bible Society. Methodist gifts were $163,593. Gifts from all churches in the U. S. A. totaled $1,065,649.

Southern Baptists can continue to lead—if every church will give. Has your church given this year? Here are suggestions, based on what many churches are now doing:

Every church can give at least these amounts each year:

Smaller churches	$ 10 to $ 60
Larger churches	$ 60 to $300
Great city churches	$300 to $600 or more

Report on Cooperative Program Increase for Christian Education Advance

Hundreds of churches across North Carolina have increased their Cooperative Program giving by 35% over what they gave last year through the Cooperative Program.

Will you do the following four things?

1. Will you let the people of your church vote on increasing your Cooperative Program giving by 35% over what you are giving this year?
2. Will you pray daily that God will call forth laborers into His harvest?
3. Will you pray daily that God will lay upon the hearts of the people of your church to give more through the Cooperative Program so that more may be won to Christ and trained?
4. Will you pray daily that the other churches of our association will increase their Cooperative Program giving?

On July 24, Cooperative Program giving was 11.24% ahead of the same week in 1961. This is one of the largest increases in Cooperative World Mission Program giving in the history of the Convention. God is blessing your efforts a great deal in this campaign.

Will you pray that God will send forth laborers into His harvest, pray daily that God will lay upon the hearts of your people to give more through the Cooperative Program, pray daily that the churches in our association will give through the Cooperative Program what God would have given, and will you let your church vote on increasing its Cooperative Program giving by 35% above what you are giving this year?

Tom Greene, Secretary
Program

55. Secretary of Missions Robert L. Costner served as installing officer for the following officers: L. D. Holt, Moderator; H. A. Hodge, Vice Moderator; L. G. Bullard, Treasurer in absentia; and Leon P. Spencer, Clerk. Moderator Holt, in accepting the responsibilities of the office, pledged his best efforts toward the strengthening of our association program during the coming year with special emphasis on the spiritual life of the membership of our association.

56. The 157th annual session of the association adjourned after singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

CALVARY—Purchased a new church site on New Bern Avenue—passed at conference on August 12, 1962

FIRST—Sesquicentennial Celebration March 4-11, 1962

After weeks and months of careful planning our church celebrated in a wonderful way its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary. Station WRAL televised a feature historical television show giving some of the historical highlights of the Church with Dr. Lewis narrating the show. In a seminary program Mrs. W. S. Penney, Mr. W. L. Wyatt, Mr. Talcott Brewer, and Mr. J. S. Farmer related some of the early human interest stories of the Church and its people.

In the worship services, Dr. Lewis delivered the message on Sunday morning and Dr. Carlyle Marney, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Charlotte, delivered the message at the evening service. Special guests for the day included Dr. S. L. Stealey, former Pastor and President of Southeastern Theological Seminary; Dr. Douglas Branch, Executive Secretary, North Carolina Baptist State Convention; and representatives from our sister Baptist churches in Raleigh.

Our guest minister on Tuesday evening was Dr. Glenn Archer, Executive Director of Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State, Washington, D. C. Special guests included The Reverend William S. Hicks, Executive Director, The Council of Churches of Greater Bridgeport, Connecticut (Mr. Hicks, a former member of the First Baptist Church, was ordained by this congregation); The Reverend Charles Ward, Pastor, and President of the Raleigh Ministerial Association, and the Board of Deacons of the First Baptist Church, Negro.

Dr. Roy O. McClain, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Atlanta, Georgia, delivered the message on Wednesday evening. Special guests included Dr. Broadus E. Jones, former pastor (1943-1959), and Dr. Albert Edwards, Pastor, and members of the Board and the Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh.

On Thursday evening The Honorable Brooks Hays, Special Assistant to President Kennedy, was scheduled to speak but was unable to fill the engagement due to a death in his immediate family. Dr. James Clelland of Duke University was the speaker and brought one of the most outstanding and challenging messages of the series. Special guests for this service were The Reverend Harry Wood, Jr., Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Leaksville, North Carolina, (Mr. Wood, a former member of our church, was ordained by our congregation in 1939); Dr. Howard P. Powell and members of the Board of Stewards of the Edenton Street Methodist Church of Raleigh, North Carolina.

The final message in the series was brought on Sunday morning, March 11, by Dr. Baker Cauthen, Executive Secretary of The Foreign Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, Richmond, Virginia. The special guest was The Reverend Robert Costner, Secretary of Missions, Raleigh Baptist Association.

Special music for the Sesquicentennial Program was provided by: The Campbell College Choir, the Meredith College Chorus, the Southeastern Seminary Choir, and the Senior Choir of our own Church.

Other features of the Sesquicentennial Program included: a bound volume history of our Church with one copy presented to each family in the Church; a very complete scrapbook of the Church and its leader, prepared and presented to the Church by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Baucom; a historical exhibit of the Church and its activities; and a church-wide reception celebrating the one hundred fiftieth birthday of our Church with a huge birthday cake, refreshments, and fellowship.

As one of our speakers said, "Tradition makes good ballast but very poor cargo." As we reflect on the past history and achievements of The First Baptist Church, we move into the future with hope and enthusiasm using our past achievements as stepping stones for greater achievements in Christian service.

HAYES BARTON—We had a disastrous fire on the morning of September 5th. The Sanctuary was burned and part of the Educational space. It will probably be two years before we get a new Sanctuary and Educational facilities built. Church services are being held at present in the Myrtle Underwood School, Glenwood Avenue, for the morning worship, and the Westminster Presbyterian Church, 301 East Whitaker Mill Road, for the evening services

HIGHLAND—Music Director called on April 1, 1962

RIDGE ROAD—Installed pews, pulpit furniture and wall-to-wall carpeting in Chapel. Paved driveways and parking lots. Also installed air-conditioning in the entire building

ST. JOHN'S—New $100,000 "Chapel" and the dedication service was held in September, 1962. New building will seat about 333

TRINITY—The church dedicated an educational wing of its new building program. This is the first of three future buildings

WAKE FOREST:

GLEN ROYAL—Fixed Pastor a study, put a heating system in the parsonage and did some remodeling in parsonage

WAKE UNION—Called new pastor on May 1, 1962. Purchased two window fans

WOODLAND—New pastor was called on June 3, 1962. New pews installed and vestibule started YOUNGSVILLE—A sound system for the playing of recorded music was installed at the church as a gift from the family of the late E. J. Hart. Draperies for assembly room were presented by two adult classes. Equipment and books were purchased towards establishing a Church Library. The Church eliminated its debt.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. Simms

On October 6, 1963, our association lost a good and valued friend. Robert N. Simms, Sr., 87, member of Tabernacle Baptist Church, died on the above date. He had been a deacon at Tabernacle Church for more than sixty years. In 1900, he organized the Baraca Class at Tabernacle and was its teacher for sixty years. At one time, he was worldwide vice-president of the Baraca organization. Mr. Simms served as president of the Baptist State Convention for three years, 1938-40. Typical of his abiding interest in all Baptist groups, large or small, was his address at a banquet of the Wake Forest College Ministerial Association in 1939. Speaking to young ministers, he said, "All you will ever say about Jesus and the gospel has been said by thousands before you. What is original and unique about your message will be born out of your own relationship with Jesus." Walking intimately with Jesus was characteristic of Mr. Simms throughout his long and useful life.

From 1902-46, Mr. Simms was a trustee of Meredith College, serving as its counsel and executive committee chairman for many years. He was on the first board of trustees at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. With all of his responsibilities Mr. Simms maintained a loyal and faithful interest in the Raleigh Baptist Association.

Surviving are Mrs. Simms, the former Virginia Adelaide Egerton, and six children: Robert N., Jr., and John M., who have served the association as moderators and Mrs. A. L. Haskins, Jr., all of Raleigh; the Reverend Albert E. Simms, Lynchburg, Va.; the Reverend Stewart B. Simms, Greer, S. C.; and William G. Simms, Atlanta, Ga.

SECRETARY OF MISSIONS REPORT

It is good to greet you on this my sixth Annual Session as your Secretary of Missions, and to have this opportunity to share with you some thoughts on our associational life. All of us owe a great debt of gratitude to the large group of associational leaders who faithfully strive to enrich the spiritual objectives of our churches. I wish to express my personal appreciation to the churches that are giving loyal support to the work of the association.

During this associational year our association will join all other Baptist bodies in the 150th anniversary of the organization of Baptist work on a national level in the United States and North America. This will be a good year for us to reexamine the purposes and objectives of our associational work in the light of God's call to His people.

"His Love Constrains Us" should be the basic point of reference as we seek to cultivate and manifest a Christian concern for the work and needs of the churches within the association. What is the task given by Christ to the churches and what are the evident needs of the churches? The task and the needs are best expressed in six objectives of the Jubilee Advance we have been sharing for the past five years:

"1. To win through compassionate and concerned witness to Jesus Christ a great host of people, at home and beyond the seas, who have not as yet experienced a saving faith in him as their personal Saviour, Redeemer, and Friend.

"2. To interpret the supreme lordship of Jesus Christ in reference to the opportunities, responsibilities, and privileges of Christians in these days of destiny, and in reference to the nature and functioning of his church.

"3. To make the Bible a vital reality as the sufficient, constantly renewed rule of faith and practice for Baptist churches and people as they witness for Jesus Christ in every relationship of life.

"4. To make clear to our own people, and to others, the nature and binding relevance and authority of our historic Baptist principles, and to indicate why and how they must be creatively and courageously expressed in these times by true Baptist individuals and churches.

"5. To build our Baptist churches into genuine communities of redeemed, nurturing young and old in Christian growth and fruitfulness, and manifesting to all the world the beauty and strength of Christian love and unity as marking the life of the people of God.

"6. To cultivate the spirit of fellowship and interdependence among Baptists of the North American continent in this fateful hour of history, to the end that they may enrich and supplement each other in joint efforts for the furtherance of Christ's kingdom. . . ."

Your associational leaders and officers renew their pledge to make the life of the association strong and effective. By such service we believe the vitality and spiritual power of the local churches can be immeasurably increased. The motivation of all that we do shall continue to be "His love constrains us."

The purpose of this association shall be (1) the cultivation of closer bonds of fellowship, sympathy, mutual understanding and brotherly love; (2) the counseling together in plans and programs for the strengthening and enlargement of God's Kingdom; and (3) the promotion of Evangelism, Missions, Education Social Service and Benevolences through the Associational, State Convention and Southern Convention Programs.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section A. The association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area served by this association.

Section B. Any church applying for membership in the association shall be received under the watchcare for a period of time sufficient to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist church. A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Membership Committee of the association. If, in the judgment of the Membership Committee and The Executive Council, such church has met the requirements listed above, by the next regular meeting of the association, the Membership Committee may recommend through the Executive Council that such a church be received into the association without further delay.

Section C. The association shall have full right to withdraw fellowship from any church whose course of conduct is uncooperative.

Section D. Any church may withdraw from the association at its pleasure.

ARTICLE IV—MEETINGS

Section A. The Association shall convene in Annual Session on the last Thursday and Friday of October in each year.

Section B. Each church shall be entitled to one messenger for every 25 members, with sixteen being the maximum sent from any church.

Section C. All pastors of churches in the association shall be recognized as messengers in addition to those specified above.

Section D. The Association, when convened in meeting, shall have no power to infringe on any of the internal rights of the churches; it may advise with the member churches and recommend measures of usefulness for their adoption, and may claim for itself, its objects and programs, the highest consideration.

Section E. In case of emergency the Executive Council is empowered to change the time or place of meeting or call a special session of the Association.

ARTICLE V—DEPARTMENTS

The Association shall promote an aggressive program of teaching, training, Evangelism, Mission and Stewardship Emphasis through the following departments: The Sunday School Department; The Training Union Department; The Brotherhood Department; The Music Education Department. The Woman's Missionary Union shall be recognized as an auxiliary to the Association.

ARTICLE VI—OFFICERS

The Officers of the association shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of The Sunday School Department, a Director of The Training Union Department, a President of The Brotherhood Department, a Director of the Department of Music Education and three Trustees. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in Annual Session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE VII—COMMITTEES

The association shall have the Standing Committees listed below along with any other committees authorized by the association. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in annual session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next annual session. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

- A. Committee On Committees
- B. Committee On Order of Business
- C. Committee On Nominations
- D. Committee On Membership
- E. Committee On Evangelism
- F. Committee On Ordination
- G. Committee On Time, Place, Preacher
- H. Committee On Resolutions
- I. Committee On Memorials

ARTICLE VIII—ADMINISTRATION

The Secretary of Missions and other employees of the association shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the association and the denomination. They shall work under the direction of and be subject to the authority of The Executive Council. They shall be nominated by the Executive Committee of The Executive Council, and elected by the association at any annual session, or by The Executive Council if the next annual session of the association is thirty (30) days or more beyond the date on which the employee is nominated.

ARTICLE IX—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council shall consist of all active pastors and one lay member from each member church. The officers of the Association shall be ex-officio members and shall serve as the officers of the Council. In addition the Secretary of Missions and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union shall be ex-officio members. It shall be the duty of the Council to carry forward the work of the Association between sessions and make reports to the Association.

ARTICLE X—ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The Associational Year shall begin on October 1 and end on September 30 of each year.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENT

This Constitution may be amended by the association at any annual session.

BY-LAWS

The work of the Association shall be governed by the following By-Laws:

ARTICLE I—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section A. The Moderator shall preside over sessions of the Association and meetings of the Executive Council. He shall not serve more than two terms in succession.

Section B. The Vice-Moderator shall perform the duties of the Moderator in his absence.

Section C. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep full records of the meetings of the Association and the Executive Council and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and the data from the church letters in an annual report. The Clerk shall further cooperate with the other officers of the Association in promoting the total program of the Association. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association shall direct.

Section D. The Treasurer shall receive, safeguard and disburse all funds of the association. Disbursements shall be made in accordance with the Budget adopted by the association. Non-Budget items must be approved by The Finance Committee of The Executive Council. The Treasurer shall make quarterly reports to the Executive Council and an Annual Report to the Association. He shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Council shall direct. He shall be paid such an honorarium and expenses as the Association may direct.

Section E. The Trustees shall hold title to all property of the association. When authorized by the Executive Council of the association they shall execute notes secured by Mortgages or Deeds of Trust in the purchase of church sites or other property. The Trustees in all acts with respect to property purchased shall be controlled and directed by the Association through its executive council.

Section F. The Superintendent of The Department of Sunday Schools shall promote and supervise the Sunday School Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section G. The President of The Department of Brotherhoods shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood work in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section H. The Director of The Department of Training Unions shall promote and supervise The Training Union Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

ARTICLE II—COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

Section A. The Committee On Committees, consisting of seven members, shall nominate the members of the various Standing Committees and submit them for election by the association.

Section B. The Committee On Order of Business, consisting of five members, shall prepare the Program for the Annual Session. This suggested Program shall be presented in printed form to the association at the beginning of the Session for action.

Section C. The Committee On Nominations, consisting of three members, shall nominate all Officers as authorized herein and submit them to the association in Annual Session for election.

Section D. The Committee On Membership, consisting of five members, shall review all applications from churches for membership in the association. The Committee shall make a thorough investigation of the petitioning church as to its doctrines, practices, and cooperation with the Baptist Program. A Formal statement of its findings along with its recommendations shall be submitted to the association or The Executive Council as provided herein.

Section E. The Committee On Evangelism, consisting of seven members, shall press an aggressive evangelistic effort within the bounds of the association. This shall be done through the encouragement of revivals in the churches, especially where the need is apparent; the promotion of simultaneous campaigns; and the promotion of evangelistic services in unchurched areas. The Committee shall meet no less than four times annually.

Section F. The Committee On Ordination shall consist of no less than seven members. Churches desiring to ordain ministers who have been called to a specific work are requested to place their candidates before the Committee for examination. After such examination the Committee will make its recommendations to the church.

Section G. The Committee On Time, Place, and Preacher, composed of three members, shall recommend to the association in Annual Session (1) the Time of the next Annual Session, (2) the Place, or Places of meeting, (3) the Preacher and Alternate of the Annual Sermon.

Section H. The Committee On Resolutions, composed of three members, shall review all resolutions referred to it by the association in Annual Session, submitting a report on these, along with other suitable resolutions, before the close of the Session.

Section I. The Committee On Memorials, consisting of three members, shall plan for our beloved dead a memorial service to be conducted during the Annual Session of the association.

ARTICLE III—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section A. The Officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Clerk of the Association.

Section B. The Council shall function through the following committees:

Subsection 1. The Executive Committee which shall be composed of the Officers and the Chairmen of the various Standing Committees.

Subsection 2. The Calendar Committee which shall be composed of the heads of the various Departments and three members at large.

Subsection 3. The Missions Committee which shall be composed of seven appointed members.

Subsection 4. The Finance Committee which shall be composed of seven appointed members.

Subsection 5. The Social Service Committee which shall be composed of seven appointed members.

Section C. The Council shall meet no less than four times annually. Times and places of meeting shall be determined by The Executive Committee or the Secretary of Missions.

Section D. The Council shall submit to the association in Annual Session a full and complete Budget and Calendar of Activities and any other recommendations.

ARTICLE IV—PROCEDURE

Parliamentary Procedure at Annual Sessions shall conform to "Roberts Rules of Order."

Theme: Our World

1. The 158th Annual Session of the Raleigh Baptist Association was called to order on Thursday evening, October 24, 1963, in the Tabernacle Baptist Church by Moderator L. D. Holt. He recognized Robert Poole, Minister of Music at the host church, who led the congregation in singing "Glorious Is Thy Name."

2. Host Pastor James F. Heaton extended a warm and cordial welcome to the messengers and visitors of the association.

3. In the absence of Training Union Director Bennett Straughn whose father had passed away, Crate Jones conducted the devotional period using as his Scripture reading Galatians 5: 13-17.

4. Ronda Robbins, Chairman of the Committee on Order of Business, called attention to the printed program and commented briefly on the theme "For Liberty and Light" which had been adopted for this meeting of the association. He then moved that the printed program, with such changes as may be necessary, become the order of business for the meeting and that the messengers now registered and those to be registered constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

5. Moderator Holt brought a challenging message on the topic, "A Relevant Church." In commenting on current trends, shifting population and constant change he said, "It is an obligation for each church to keep alert and abreast with the changing times." He cited at least four distinct areas of activity as follows: Worship, proclaim the unsearchable riches of God, educate our people in the fundamental truths of the Bible, and minister to all situations.

6. John N. Simms brought greetings from the North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc. and, in his usual excellent manner, outlined briefly the purpose and function of the Foundation. Upon his motion the report was adopted as follows:

THE REPORT OF THE N. C. BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC

Since July, 1962, the North Carolina Baptist Foundation has established an office in the Baptist Building with a full-time Executive Secretary and secretarial help. This is the first time in the history of the Foundation that it has engaged in full-time emphases. The activities of the Executive Secretary have been varied. One of the purposes of the Board of Directors has been to carry the message of the services offered by the Foundation to as many associations as possible; into as many churches as possible; and to as many individuals as he has had the opportunity. These contacts have been quite stimulating and it remains to be seen what results will accrue from these contacts.

On June 30, 1962, we reported to you that the assets of the Foundation amounted to $303,186.66. The assets of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation as of June 30, 1963, were $324,256.39. Since the close of business last year in June, 1962, the Foundation has technically in its control two estates of rather large size. The estate of R. Sterling Graves amounts to approximately $440,000. The estate of T. F. Pettus is in the neighborhood of $110,000. Both of these estates are in the hands of the trustees of the estates and for all practical purposes they will be turned over to the Foundation in the very near future. These two estates will push our assets to over $870,000. The Baptist Foundation has emphasized the fact over and over again that it exists to serve ALL Baptists. Those who have relatively small amounts of money, personal property or other real assets, will find the Foundation is just as anxious to serve them as it is to serve the larger estates. It is a fundamental belief of the Directors of the Foundation that the Foundation exists to serve ALL Baptists.

The Baptist Foundation Board of Directors and the Executive Secretary wish to express their deep appreciation to the various organizations, institutions and agencies that have assisted them with the promotion of the Foundation program. We solicit your continued support and hope that the Foundation will be better able, year by year, to render the services for which it was established.

C. Gordon Maddrey
Executive Secretary

7. Pastors and other church staff members coming into the association during the past year were appropriately recognized and warmly welcomed.

NEW PASTORS, EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORS, MUSIC DIRECTORS AND SECRETARIES

Several pastors, educational directors, and music directors have come into our association since our last associational meeting. These are listed below.

BETHLEHEM (R)—Denny Turner is now serving as Minister of Education and Music at Bethlehem. Denny is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Burly Turner of the Samaria Baptist Church.

FORESTVILLE—Rev. Grady Wheeler, Jr., is currently serving as pastor of the Forestville Baptist Church. Rev. Wheeler is a student at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

FUQUAY SPRINGS—Mrs. Larry Bennett is new Church Secretary at Fuquay Springs. Mrs. Bennett began her duties at Fuquay in July.

HOLLY SPRINGS—Rev. K. L. Matthews is serving as pastor at the Holly Springs Baptist Church.

KNIGHTDALE—J. W. (Bill) Smith came to Knightdale on August 1, to assume the duties of Educational Director. His wife is serving as Church Secretary. They attended Carson-Newman College and are currently studying at Southeastern Seminary in Wake Forest. They came to Knightdale from Fayetteville, North Carolina. They have one son.

NEW HILL and PLEASANT PLAINS—Rev. Joseph D. Creech is serving as pastor of these two churches. He assumed his duties at these two churches on May 15, 1963. The Creeches have one son.

CALVARY—Fenton Moorehead is new Minister of Education and Music at the Calvary Baptist Church. He is a student at Southeastern Seminary, is married and has one son.

CAROLINA PINES—Mrs. Robert Lewis is new Church Secretary at Carolina Pines.

SORRELL'S GROVE—Rev. Jim Lowery is new pastor at Sorrell's Grove. He is a student at Southeastern Seminary.

WAKE CROSS ROADS—Rev. O. W. Pulley is new pastor at Wake Cross Roads.

WAKEMINSTER—Rev. Craven J. Williams is new pastor at Wakeminster Church. He is a graduate of Wake Forest College and is a student at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest. He is married to the former Mary Beth Parker, a graduate of Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

GREENWOOD FOREST—Rev. Charles Tucker is new pastor at the Greenwood Forest Church in Cary. He is a graduate of Southern Seminary and was head of the Bible Department of Wingate College before coming to Cary. He is married to the former Miss Rachel Stubbs of Utica, Mississippi. They have two sons.

RIDGECREST—Rev. Joe Hester, a student at Southeastern Seminary is new pastor at the Ridgecrest Church. He is married.

8. The congregation joined in singing "Faith of Our Fathers."

9. Clerk Leon Spencer reported that 257 messengers and 94 visitors had been registered for the evening session. He noted that this total exceeded the previous year's registration by 56 persons.

10. Preceding his challenging message on the topic, "His Love Constrains Us." Secretary of Missions Robert L. Costner paid tribute to the officers, departmental directors and leaders, and to Mrs. Barbara Barham, his secretary, for the contribution that each had made to the work of the association during the past year.

In a very effective and forceful manner, he urged a greater spirit of mutual helpfulness among the churches in the association, better attendance at scheduled meetings throughout the year to develop a better informed membership, and 100% participation by all the churches in the program of the association.

11. Special music was rendered by the Tabernacle Youth Choir.

12. Dr. Ben R. Lawton, missionary to Italy, brought a stirring message on the topic, "For Liberty and Light." In sharing with us some of his experiences with Communists, Fascists, and others, he presented some rather startling statistical information. Estimating that the population of the world will reach 6 billion by the year 2000, less than one person in ten will be a Christian if the present trend continues. He cited further that there is a smaller percent of professing Christians now than was true 50 years ago. He expressed the belief that Baptists have the LIGHT and it is our responsibility to use every means at our disposal to share this LIGHT which brings LIBERTY to those in darkness throughout the world.

13. The evening session was adjourned with prayer offered by Vice Moderator H. A. Hodge.

Friday Morning, October 25, 1963

14. Robert Poole led the congregation in singing "Holy, Holy, Holy" to open the morning session of the Association at the Knightdale Church.

15. Jack Painter, host church pastor, was recognized for announcements and comments. On behalf of Bethany, Bethlehem (R), Central, Samaria and Knightdale Churches, he extended a cordial welcome to the messengers and visitors of the association.

16. Using a passage of Scripture from II Corinthians 5:14-21, Howard O. Wilder, conducted the period of devotion and meditation.

17. The Sunday School report was presented by Allen Laymon, associational superintendent. He called attention to the goals adopted and to the calendar of events relating to the Sunday School work for 1963-64. Upon his motion the report was adopted.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The Sunday School is an agency of the church. Although the movement started outside the church when in 1780 Robert Raikes in Gloucester, England, paid women to teach children reading, writing, and arithmetic on Sundays, it now belongs to the church. It is the Bible teaching arm of the church.

The Sunday School assists the church in fulfilling its most important functions: worship, proclamation, education, and ministry. It does this in carrying out the following basic tasks: reach all prospects for the church, teach the Biblical revelation, lead all church members to worship and witness daily, provide opportunities for the personal ministries of the church, provide organization and leadership for special projects of the church, and to interpret information regarding the work of the church and denomination.

Dr. A. V. Washburn, southwide secretary of our Sunday Schools, says: "Before outreach can become a continuing reality, our churches must get their programs in the right order. The natural order is the reaching of people, the teaching of the Bible, the winning of the lost, and all the development that should come out of it."

Our theme for 1963-64 is "Outreach for the Unreached—Spearhead for Evangelism." We hope our association will schedule the Sunday School Witnessing Program next January or February in preparation for the Jubilee revivals. All teachers and officers should be soul winners.

In reaching out for the unreached we urge each Sunday School to have an enlargement campaign. The state Sunday School Department will help us follow the proven formula: locate the prospects, enlarge the organization, provide space, train the workers, and visit the people. When we put these into practice along with the observance of the laws of Sunday School growth, we will grow. Functioning Cradle Roll, Extension, and Young People Away departments will reach the unreached. The Extension Bible class will also be of great assistance in enrolling the unenrolled in Bible study.

Each Sunday School should observe January Week of Bible Study, plan a church and mission Vacation Bible School, promote Operation Home Study and other related projects of the Church Study Course, make possible its workers attending the assemblies at Caswell, Fruitland, and Ridgecrest. In this year of evangelism, each teacher and officer should win at least one person to Jesus Christ.

All churches are asked to cooperate with the associational Sunday School program. Attend the meetings. Become acquainted with the goals for 1963-64. Let us work together in such a way that all might come to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

18. In the absence of Bennett Straughn, the Training Union report was made by Marion Lark. In his brief comments, Lark reminded us that Training Union helps us to grow. The report, as presented in the book of advance reports, was adopted.

TRAINING UNION REPORT

During the past associational year Training Union has had the following scheduled meetings: four officers' and leaders' conferences, four mass, four executive committee, and one clinic. Attendance at all of these has been very good. Also, in cooperation with our associational missionary, the officers attended in good number the planning meeting for all associational officers.

The annual banquet was held on May 17 at the Tabernacle Baptist Church in Carroll Hall. The speaker was Jimmy Morgan, our State Training Union Secretary. The theme was "T. U. Aboard Happy Times." As usual, the attendance was overflowing.

"M" Night was a special highlight during this year with the Reverend Jerry Potter, Minister to the Deaf, as the featured speaker. An unusually large attendance—2,788—almost doubled any other association in this State, according to figures received in the State Training Union Office. The meeting was held in the Memorial Auditorium.

Baptist Youth Night was held in the Forest Hills Baptist Church on March 23 with Stephen O. Akinleye, native of Nigeria, missionary to Ghana and student at Southeastern Seminary, as featured speaker. This was one of the most outstanding youth nights ever held.

The Youth Convention at Boone, May 3-5, was another highlight of the year with many of the youth of the Raleigh Association attending.

Our State assemblies were well-attended by our people of all ages at all of the conferences.

We are again looking forward to one of the best years in our work with the organizing of more Training Unions in the Association.

Bennett Straughn, Director

19. Mrs. Earl Crumpler, Woman's Missionary Union President for the association, spoke briefly to the report. She cited especially the aims and plans of the W. M. U. for the new associational year. Upon her motion the report was adopted.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all those who have been "laborers together with God" this past WMU year. "That the world through Him might be saved" has been our purpose.

This was the wonderful 75th Anniversary Year of Woman's Missionary Union, and many of our Churches received recognition on the sixteen Anniversary Goals. These were Boylan Heights, Mount Moriah, Good Hope, Bay Leaf, Youngsville, Hopkin's Chapel, Boulevard, Turner Memorial, and Ephesus. There may be others who have not reported.

One of the highlights of the year was a Prayer Retreat held at Pullen Memorial Church and attended by seventy ladies. This was led by Mrs. William Pope, Associational Prayer Chairman.

On October 18 we had a Leadership Conference at Tabernacle Church, 262 attending and 50 Churches represented. The Associational officers dressed in the traditional lace, ruffles, frills, and floor length attire of a hundred years ago presented the Anniversary Goals for the year. This presentation was directed by Mrs. W. W. Finlator.

Our seven and one-half hour Basic Leadership Course for Youth Directors and counselors was held November 1-2 at the First Baptist Church with 112 enrolled. The teachers were Mrs. W. M. Enzor, Mrs. John Pollack, Mrs. Willa Dean Hagler, Mrs. Edna Lou Aldrich, and Mrs. Ronald Sorenson.

On November 19-20 the WMS Basic Leadership Course was taught at Cary Church with 127 enrolled. This was taught by the associational officers and Miss Kathryn Bullard, State WMS Director.

The Home Mission Study was held at Calvary Church on January 24 with 129 attending from 37 Churches. Miss Bernice Popham from the Good Will Center and Mr. Charlie Morton representing the Raleigh Rescue Mission were guest speakers. Mrs. Howard Reader, Mission Study Chairman for the association was in charge.

On April 25 at Rolesville Baptist Church our annual Woman's Missionary Union Meeting was held. There were 62 Churches represented with 417 attending including 4 men and 40 children in the nursery. The theme for this meeting was "Tell the Whole World." A huge backdrop of the world painted on canvass by Mr. J. P. Johnson depicted the theme. A dramatization in honor of the 75th Anniversary of WMU called "Yesterday's Woman" was directed by Mrs. W. W. Finlator. After which Mrs. Roger Crook presented a most inspiring original monologue, "Today's Woman, Commissioned for Service." Mrs. Michael T. Ray, missionary to India was our guest speaker.

Our Foreign Mission Study was held at North Street Church on September 24 with 115 present. Teachers were Mrs. G. R. Garner, Mrs. F. R. Hunter, Mrs. John Pollack, Mrs. R. L. Weatherspoon, Miss Isabelle Knott, and Mrs. Marse Grant.

The Associational Young Woman's Auxiliary Council led by Mrs. Douglas Aldrich and assisted by Mrs. John Peters was very active. They had four well-attended meetings during the year. Their guest speakers were Miss Verona Chow from Hong Kong who is a student at Meredith College; Mrs. Burton deWolf, missionary to South America; Miss Sara Ann Hobbs, State YWA Director; and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mitchiner of Oxford.

The Associational Girls' Auxiliary Camp led by Mrs. W. C. Adkinson is always a highlight in our year's work. It was held at Umstead State Park July 1-6, with 88 girls from 23 Churches attending. Twenty-five staff members assisted Mrs. Adkinson. The Lord greatly honored their witness with 15 conversions, 4 dedications to full time Christian service, and 35 rededicated lives.

The records show that there are 75 WMS organizations in the Raleigh Association with a membership of 4,499 ladies. These organizations foster the following Youth organizations: 17 Sunbeam Nursery organizations with 112 enrolled, 112 Sunbeam Bands with 1,674 members. 127 Girls' Auxiliary organizations with 1,357 enrolled, and 25 Young Woman's Auxiliaries with 238 members. A new WMS organization was established in the new Ridgecrest Baptist Church.

There were 24 WMS's, 2 YWA's, 55 GA's and 26 Sunbeam Bands earning recognition on the Aims for Advancement.

Our WMU watchword for the Jubilee Year 1964 is "O give thanks unto the Lord; call upon His Name: make known His deeds among the people."

—Psalm 105:1.

We do give thanks unto the Lord for His wonderful blessings in the past year, and let us call upon Him for guidance, strength, and power in the Jubilee year to make known His deeds among the people in a greater way than ever before.

Mrs. Earl D. Crumpler, President

20. In bringing the Brotherhood report, Millard Crumpler stated that the new program of the Brotherhood seeks to make the men and boys of the church become more missionary minded. The report was adopted as follows:

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

Brotherhood leadership in North Carolina has set forth a program which is designed to develop a strong missionary movement of Baptist laymen. They like to think of the Brotherhood as "the missionary arm of the church." A definite program of missionary education for men and boys is underway in the associational and church Brotherhoods. Already, some are engaged in the practical missionary activities. These activities involve the enlistment of men and boys already on the church roll, in witnessing to the lost, and giving of their time, talent, and possessions through the church. Activities are a necessary part of the missionary education program for men because men learn more about missions when they are involved in missions. In other words, men learn by doing. Thus, some Brotherhoods are working with the migrant farm laborers, men in prison, and men on probation. At least, some Brotherhoods are serving the deaf people by seeing that the church provides a Sunday School class and worship opportunities for them. The men provide transportation to and from the services for the deaf. These are mere samples of missionary activities which men can and are doing in the church community and association.

In North Carolina, 1,450 Brotherhoods, with an enrollment of 35,000, and 2,000 Royal Ambassador Chapters, with an enrollment of 25,000, provide a vast reservoir of strength to be used for world evangelization. Still, in Baptist churches of North Carolina, there are approximately 200,000 men and equally as many boys who are not enlisted. This is a tragic waste of manpower. This fact is an indictment against everything our churches have proposed as methods for calling church members to mature, dedicated service for Christ our Lord.

There will be hope for world evangelization as long as there are men and boys in our churches who organize themselves for the purpose of becoming informed about world needs, and who are willing to become personally involved in World Missions. The opportunity to go into the fields for Christ, for most men, has passed; however, they can still pray and give that others may go. Through the Royal Ambassador program men can provide missionary education for boys. From this host of boys which are in our churches today, will come the men missionaries of tomorrow. If men fail at the point of providing for the boys now, the future struggle for world evangelization is already lost.

"Rise up, O men of God!
His Kingdom tarries long;
Bring in the day of Brotherhood
And end the night of wrong."

This past year the Associational Brotherhood has presented helpful programs on World Missions, Personal Stewardship, Christian Witnessing, and Royal Ambassador Leadership. The associational officers have assisted in the organization of new Brotherhoods and Royal Ambassador Chapters in several of the churches. We urge more of the churches to call upon the officers of the Associational Brotherhood for assistance where it is needed.

Gordon K. Middleton, President

21. Visitors from outside the association were recognized and appropriately welcomed.

22. The congregation joined in singing, "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing."

23. Guy S. Cain, Secretary of the Annuity Department of the Baptist State Convention, spoke briefly on the need for every church to support its pastor through the annuity program of the Southern Baptist Convention. He urged laymen especially to open the door for God's leaders to have income when they retire or become disabled. The report which follows was, upon motion of Secretary Cain, adopted.

ANNUITY BOARD REPORT

The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is in its forty-sixth year of operation.

The Board engages in a decreasing program of relief for retired and disabled ministers and widows. These are older persons who did not benefit by more recent annuity plans. The number of persons assisted grows smaller each year.

The Annuity Board has two basic plans for the North Carolina State Convention and other agencies: the Protection Plan and Age Security Plan. At present 69 per cent of all cooperating Southern Baptist churches are in the Protection Plan for their ministers, and 54 per cent of these churches pay all ten per cent of the dues.

A supplemental plan, the Variable Annuity Fund, provides ministers an opportunity to invest soundly beyond the provisions of the basic plan so that they may have more adequate income upon retirement. This is now being accepted widely.

Every church should encourage its minister to prepare for years of disability or retirement at age 65 by sharing in the basic plan provided by the Annuity Board and by paying the full amount for him.

Last year a young pastor who had recently graduated at Southeastern Seminary was stricken with a fatal disease and died a few months later. His country church had been wise enough to share this program with him. His young widow received money to help with the hospital bill, a sizeable amount to help her get established with her child, and she will receive a small amount of help through the years ahead. Only a few months before this pastor's death he was healthy and the future appeared to be bright for him. Life is that unpredictable for all of us.

Any pastor or church may get information about participation in the plans by writing Reverend Guy Cain, Baptist State Convention, Baptist Building, Raleigh, N. C.

Garland Hendricks, Representative

24. Clerk Leon Spencer reviewed the highlights of the action taken by the Executive Council during the past year. The full report follows.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association held its first quarterly meeting of the new year on January 14, 1963, at the Ephesus Baptist Church. President L. D. Holt called the meeting to order and the group joined in singing "Blessed Assurance," after which Host Pastor Lonnie Woolweaver led in prayer.

Inasmuch as the October minutes were printed in the Associational Annual after having been read in detail at the meeting of the association in October, no further reading was considered necessary.

New Pastors and lay representatives of the Council were recognized and welcomed to the meeting.

Treasurer L. G. Bullard distributed mimeographed copies of his report for the first quarter and commented appropriately on several matters. It was revealed that all inactive funds were invested in the Raleigh Savings and Loan Association. Upon motion duly made the report was adopted, with a special vote of appreciation to Mr. Bullard for the faithful and efficient manner in which he handles the financial affairs of the association.

President Holt recognized Ronda Robbins, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who brought the following recommendations:

1. Upon Chairman Robbins' motion the Council appropriated $200 per month to the Greenwood Forest Baptist Church in Cary for six months, at which time the matter would be reconsidered in the light of needs of the church and also the available funds of the church.

2. A motion by Chairman Robbins to assist the Ridgecrest Baptist Church, located on the Wake Forest-Durham highway in the amount of $100 per month for six months, the matter to be reconsidered at that time, was lost.

Following comments by President Holt, a motion to re-open the matter prevailed. Secretary of Missions R. L. Costner reviewed the history of this new church and Stoney Hill Pastor Paul Hester and others participated in the discussion. The motion was called for and the Council voted 12 to 8 to assist as recommended by the Finance Committee.

The program being conducted by the Gilbert Street Baptist Church prompted the Council to authorize President Holt to name a committee to meet with officials of the church and council with them concerning apparent trends being practiced by the church. Mr. Holt requested the Membership Committee under the leadership of Chairman Roy Keller to serve in this connection.

Attention was called to the fact that the Neuse Baptist Church has not been a cooperating church during the past two years since the present pastor was called to the church. After appropriate discussion motion was passed that the Membership Committee direct letters to the Pastor, Sunday School Superintendent, Clerk and any other leaders or officials of the Neuse Church seeking an opportunity to meet with them in business session for the purpose of encouraging them to resume a cooperative relationship with the Association and with the State and Southern Conventions.

Secretary of Missions Costner presented a request from the Greenwood Forest Baptist Church of Cary seeking assistance from the Baptist State Convention as follows: 1. Pastoral assistance in the sum of $1,400.00. 2. Assistance from the Lot Fund of the Convention in the sum of $2,500.

Upon motion of Roy Keller the Council approved this request and authorized the President and Secretary to sign the necessary papers to forward to the Director of Missions of the State Convention.

Announcement was made concerning the Associational Evangelistic Clinic to be held at the North Street Baptist Church on January 28. Council members were urged to make plans to attend and to enlist others to be present at this important meeting.

Associational Sunday School Superintendent Allen Laymon urged attendance at the Sunday School conference scheduled for January 21. He emphasized the importance of giving publicity to this meeting so that good representation may be had.

The meeting was adjourned after prayer by L. G. Bullard.

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association held its second quarterly meeting at the Caraleigh Baptist Church on April 8, 1963. President Holt called the meeting to order and Allen Laymon led the group in singing "I Love to Tell the Story."

Host Pastor W. P. Biggerstaff extended a word of welcome to the Council and guests and led in prayer.

The President recognized new pastors and lay representatives who were in attendance for the first time.

The minutes as prepared and read by Secretary Leon Spencer were approved as read.

In the absence of Treasurer L. G. Bullard, Secretary of Missions Robert L. Costner presented the financial report for the six months ending March 31, 1963, and made appropriate comments on the financial affairs of the association. He expressed appreciation for the excellent service being rendered by our treasurer and for the faithful performance of his duties. Upon the motion of Allen Laymon the report was adopted.

In making the Sunday School report Allen Laymon called attention to the Vacation Bible School Clinic to be held at Forest Hills on April 9.

Training Union Director Bennett Straughn announced that the Raleigh Association led the State in enrollment increases last year and that M-Night was ranked as the 10th in the entire Southern Convention.

Mrs. Earl Crumpler, Associational W.M.U. President, called attention to several important events scheduled in the near future. She urged cooperation in helping to organize W.M.U. work in the few churches in the association which are without a W.M.U.

R. L. Costner spoke briefly on the World Missions Rally scheduled for April 21, at which time Dr. I. N. Patterson was to be the featured speaker. He recognized L. E. Forrest, who reported that Fellowship Church, only four years old—is operating two missions, one at a rest home and the other at the prison. Pastor J. D. Bowen of Turner Memorial was given an opportunity to express gratitude to the Association and to the Convention for the assistance given to their church. He stated that they had just occupied the new building.

Mr. Ray, Chairman of the Deacons at Ridgecrest, stated that they plan to begin work on their building soon.

Pastor Zimmerman of the Bethany Church stated that they, too, plan construction of their new building in the near future.

There being no further business to require the attention of the Council, it adjourned after prayer by Mr. H. A. Hodge.

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association held its third quarterly meeting at the Morrisville Baptist Church on July 9, 1963. The meeting was called to order by president L. D. Holt. The host pastor, the Reverend Norman Mitchell extended a welcome to members of the Executive Council and led the devotion period.

Mr. Holt recognized two new pastors, the Reverend David Bland, pastor of the Mt. Hermon Church, and the Reverend Craven Williams, pastor of Wakemister.

The minutes of the April Executive Council meetings prepared by Leon Spencer were read by Rev. Millard Crumpler in the absence of the secretary of the council. The minutes were approved as read.

The proposed Calendar of Activities was presented on behalf of its chairman and some differences in the 1964 calendar was explained by Mr. Costner. After a brief discussion the proposed calendar for 1964 was approved by the council. It will be presented to the Annual Session in October for final approval.

The Chairman of the Nominating Committee, John Lambert, presented nominees of associational officers for the 1963-1964 associational year. These were as follows: L. D. Holt, Moderator; H. A. Hodge, Vice Moderator; Leon Spencer, Clerk; L. G. Bullard, Treasurer. The report was approved by the members of the council.

Mr. L. G. Bullard gave copies of the treasurer's report for the past quarter and this was approved as read. It was revealed that 15 churches of the association had not made gifts to the work of the association during the past nine months.

The proposed budget for the 1963-1964 year was presented by the moderator in the absence of the chairman of the Finance Committee. It was discussed by the council and approved without change.

Proposals of continued associational financial aid to the work of two churches—Greenwood Forest and Ridgecrest—were presented by the Finance Committee and a general discussion followed. There was no objection to the assistance for Greenwood Forest, but questions were raised and objections voiced in regard to aid for Ridgecrest. After ample and free discussion a vote was taken and the council voted to continue assistance for both churches named above through December, 1963.

The Missions Committee proposed assistance of $50.00 per months for Fuller Mission from July through December, 1963. This proposal was approved.

After brief announcements and remarks by our associational missionary, Mr. Costner, the benediction was given by Mr. Bob Weatherspoon of the Good Hope Church and the meeting was adjourned.

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association met on October 14, 1963, at the St. John's Baptist Church. President L. D. Holt called the meeting to order and J. D. Bowen of Turner Memorial led in prayer.

The report of the Missions Committee, W. T. Mills, Chairman, was read to the Council. The committee recommended the purchase of approximately three acres of land near the conjunction of Lead Mine Road, Highways 50 and 70, and Blue Ridge Road near Crabtree Creek, west of Raleigh.

The cost of this property is $10,700.00 and will provide a good location for a church to serve Laurel Hills, Brookhaven, Glen Forest and other areas. A motion was made and seconded that the property be purchased subject to the approval of messengers at the Annual Session later this month.

Harold West, Chairman of the Membership Committee, gave the following report: 1. That the Raleigh Baptist Association withdraw fellowship from the Neuse Baptist Church because of uncooperative conduct. Following questions and discussion the council voted to adopt this recommendation by an unanimous vote. 2. That Greenwood Forest, Ridgecrest, and Midway Baptist Churches be received into the membership of the association under watchcare arrangement for the following year. The council voted approval of the requests of each of the churches. 3. That the Gilbert Street Baptist Church be continued under the watchcare of the association for at least another year. The council gave approval of the recommendation.

Mr. L. G. Bullard presented the treasurer's report for the associational year, 1962-1963 and it was adopted.

The request for aid of $1,000 from the Baptist State Convention on behalf of Fuller Mission was discussed and approved.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by the host pastor, John Lambert.

Leon Spencer, Clerk

25. Treasurer Bullard presented, in his usual excellent manner, the financial position of the association, together with such explanatory remarks as he deemed proper and necessary. The report was adopted as follows:

26. Clerk Leon Spencer gave a digest of the church letters which revealed some disappointing trends while at the same time showed continued growth in given areas. Baptisms per 100 dropped from 3.7 per 100 in 1962 to 2.6 in 1963; Brotherhood and Training Union showed losses; and Cooperative Program gifts dropped nearly $5,000. It was significant to note that per capita gifts to all missions continued to grow. In 1962 the per capita gifts amounted to $11.09 whereas in 1963 the per capita gifts increased to $11.27. Raleigh, First led the association in per capita mission gifts by reporting $32.38; Hayes Barton was second with $31.72; Cary was third with $26.36; and Forest Hills was fourth with $20.99. Seventy-nine of the eighty-seven churches in the association reported mission gifts through the Cooperative Program and seventy-four churches reported gifts for associational work during the year. While total receipts increased over 35% from 1959 to 1963 mission gifts increased less than 24% during the same period.

27. Finance Chairman Ronda Robbins presented the proposed budget for 1963-64 and made explanatory remarks concerning the several items contained therein. After an opportunity was allowed for discussion the budget was adopted as presented.

28. Missions Committee Chairman W. T. Mills presented the report of the committee and discussed the recommendations which were included in the report. He stated that there is a need for a new church in the general area of the Crabtree Creek—North Hills section of our community and that the owners of a site near the junction of highways 70 and 50 had offered the association a tract of land for the combined total of $10,700. After discussion a motion was adopted authorizing the trustees and treasurer to execute all necessary papers incident to the acquisition of this property.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

Your Missions Committee has held seven meetings during the past associational year. The following churches have been organized since our last report: Ridgecrest, Greenwood Forest, and Midway. New Missions have been started or reported as follows: Wakefield, Forest Hills, Ephesus, and Union View (2).

The association has assisted with the new work at Ridgecrest, Greenwood Forest, and the Fuller Baptist Mission. All three have made excellent progress during the past year. With a new location and more space the Fuller Baptist Mission expects an enriched ministry to an ever increasing number of people in their area.

There are still many places where our churches can establish missions and special Bible classes, and can assist or lead in Vacation Bible Schools during the summer months.

Our Missions Committee has been concerned for some time that there was no church in the Raleigh area, north of Crabtree Creek, and, in view of this fact, began intensive investigation leading toward the location of and purchase of sufficient property to begin new work in this area. The Laurel Hills, Brookhaven, North Hills, and Glen Forest areas, combined with additional development on the Lead Mine Road, have a sufficient number of people to support this new work, therefore, we have felt this area to be our most pressing area of need.

Our Committee made an intensive survey of the property in these areas and felt that the location of a church within any immediate development in this area was almost prohibitive due to agreements of the developers against establishment of institutions within said developments. Our Committee subsequently located three different areas, but upon investigation discovered them to be unavailable. Our search turned toward the junction of the Lead Mine Road, Highways 50 and 70, and Blue Ridge Road near Crabtree Creek. Here we found some property available, and we have been able to bring together five different lots for a total area of approximately three acres more or less.

The owners have consented to sell to the Raleigh Baptist Association these properties for the total sum of $10,700. This property is located some seventy-five yards off the busy Highways 70 and 50 and at the junction of Lead Mine and Lucinda Roads. It is elevated and the church can be readily seen. The property is already accessible from all the areas mentioned and the additional area being developed out on Highway 50 and in the North Hills area. This Committee recommends the purchase of this property as the location of a Baptist church in this area.

William T. Mills, Chairman

29. Social Service Committee Chairman James E. West presented the report of his committee and spoke briefly to the report after which it was adopted.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE REPORT

In such a time as this we commend to you this worthy admonition from the written word, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 2:5).

We hold that it is the Christian's duty to zealously seek after the mind and spirit of Christ Jesus and to earnestly implement this mind and spirit in all human and spiritual relationships.

Today, as never before, the Christian principles of love, humility, and forgiveness should be applied in daily living.

CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES

Christian Love:

"And this is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another" (1 John 3:23).

Christian love in action is that which exemplifies the mind and spirit of Christ, and that which gives a clear conscience. The application of this principle provides a support on which Christians may stand and mature. Its absence leads to a shaky foundation and to spiritual strangulation. Christian love insists that we go all out in love and obedience to God and in respect and service to our fellowman.

Christian Humility:

"In lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than themselves" (Phil. 2:3).

After the foundation of love has been established in Christian living one of the first tiers of Christ-likeness is humility. Humility is not an inborn quality. Indeed, people are born proud sinners. It is a gift which is given from above and belongs to the "man in Christ." Humility is the hallmark of the twice-born. It rules out pride and as pride dies humility is enthroned. Through humility we are able to see the need and hear the cry of human hearts everywhere. The humble Christian is deeply and actively involved in the welfare of others. Humility is not an option but a mandate. This "lowliness of mind" is imperative in winning souls to Christ and bridging the social gap that is present today. Humility in attitude and action is our need.

Christian Forgiveness:

"Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you" (Eph. 4:32).

Christian forgiveness is an outworking of love and humility. It is the blessed principle which aids in making right the wrong, brings reconciliation between God and man, and restores right relations among persons of ill-will. Christ provides the motivation for and the best example of Christian forgiveness.

APPLICATION OF CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES

In these days of social and spiritual unrest Christians need to be reminded that the principles of love, humility, and forgiveness are most applicable in dealing with social righteousness.

We should vigorously oppose the declining moral standards as reflected in the use of vulgarity and profanity on the TV and movie screens, in the over-emphasis of sex in advertising and entertainment, and the constant brain-washing techniques of the alcoholic forces to turn our communities into a thorough drinking culture. These things we deplore, yet, we recognize that they are merely symptoms of a bigger problem-namely, sin and man's estrangement from God.

In the particular problem of racial unrest we urge the practice of love, humility, and forgiveness by peoples of all races. Discrimination must go but care must be taken lest something worse be put in its place. While strongly advocating equal rights for all we also strongly urge respect for the law and the personal, private rights of individuals. If God's people will listen for His voice, He will provide the solution to this problem without His people having to resort to methods that will reflect no glory to His name.

CONCLUSION

Careful and prayerful obedience to the Biblical principles below will lead the Christian into rightness of attitude and action.

- (1) The Christian must deal with all persons on the basis of love (Mark 12:29-31).
- (2) The Christian must be concerned not merely with overt actions but also with attitudes (Matthew 5:21-48).
- (3) The Christian must recognize and respect the worth of every individual (Luke 15:3-32).
- (4) The Christian must avoid attitudes, practices, and loyalties which threaten to enslave him (I Corinthians 6:12).
- (5) The Christian must consider the effect which his actions may have upon others (I Corinthians 8:13).
- (6) The Christian is concerned not merely to avoid evil but to do good (I Corinthians 10:23) (Matthew 25:31-46).

30. Allen Laymon, Chairman of the Calendar Committee, reviewed somewhat in detail the calendar as prepared by his committee and moved its adoption. The calendar appears elsewhere in this annual.

31. Ordination Chairman Fred Scott outlined briefly the work of his committee during the past year and commented on the processes involved in the examination of those seeking ordination. The following report was adopted.

THE REPORT OF THE ORDINATION COMMITTEE

Billy Martin, Examined on October 11, 1962, and ordained by the Spencer Baptist Church, Spindale, North Carolina.

Hansel C. Neathery, Examined on October 18, 1962, and ordained by the Rolesville Baptist Church on October 21, 1962.

B. C. Akers, Examined on January 17, 1963, and ordained by the Forest Hills Baptist Church on March 3, 1963.

Otis Colston, Examined on January 17, 1963, and ordained by the Fuquay Springs Baptist Church.

R. L. Johnson, Examined on February 7, 1963, and ordained by the Oak Grove Baptist Church on March 3, 1963.

Frank Nevielle, Examined on March 7, 1963, and ordained by the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church.

Robert Patterson, Examined on March 7, 1963, ordained by Harris Chapel Baptist Church.

Al Butters, Examined on May 2, 1963, and ordained by the Tar Landing Baptist Church, Route 1, Jacksonville, North Carolina.

William Dixon, Examined on June 13, 1963, and ordained by the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, on June 26, 1963.

Donald L. Bell, Examined on August 1, 1963, and ordained by the Pullen Memorial Baptist Church on August 4, 1963.

32. E. Paul West, Sr., Chairman of the Memorials Committee, presented a worthy and fitting tribute to those of our friends who had passed away during the preceding year, after which J. Clyde Turner led the memorial prayer.

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

In the book of Hebrews we have for our example and inspiration the celebrated Bible-roll of the heroes of faith. During the intervening centuries the scroll has, by His will and purpose, steadfastly lengthened, and multitudes have joined the celestial company of the faithful.

Meanwhile, we would note that the home-going continues apace, and that among those of our number who have lately passed from this scene to their heavenly reward, (and whose names will be inscribed in the annual) are several whose labours in the kingdom extended far and wide:

One, was the late and much beloved General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention—our own Douglas M. Branch, who carried so nobly that torch of faith, and whose race, though all too short, was run so well;

Another, was the very late and dedicated layman, R. N. Simms, Sr., of life-long devotion, who also served the Convention, as well as our Association, so ably, and, so faithfully.

And now, so very lately, is added the name of the venerable and saintly, Dr. W. R. Cullom, whose wide influence and goodly renown need no delineation just here.

We therefore, turn aside in grateful memory of all these loved ones, friends and brethren, who, since last we met, have been caught up to be with the Lord.

"Wherefore," then, "seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses . . . let us also run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith."

Respectfully submitted

E. Paul West, Chairman

33. Membership Committee Chairman Harold West presented the recommendation of his committee, which was adopted after discussion. The report follows.

REPORT OF THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

During the 1962-63 associational year three churches have made application through the membership committee for admission into the fellowship of the Raleigh Baptist Association. The membership committee, in this report, also desires to note the progress of the Gilbert Street Baptist Church which came under the watchcare of the association last year. Another action concerns the withdrawal of fellowship from the Neuse Baptist Church. The Committee on Membership makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Greenwood Forest Baptist Church come under the watchcare of the Raleigh Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

2. That the Ridgecrest Baptist Church come under the watchcare of the Raleigh Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

3. That the Midway Baptist Church come under the watchcare of the Raleigh Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

4. That the Raleigh Association withdraw fellowship from the Neuse Baptist Church as provided in Article III Section C of the Constitution. There has been no report by this church to the association since 1960 and no support of association work. During this period several letters have been sent to the Church Clerk in regard to the church's desire to remain in the fellowship of the Raleigh Association, or to withdraw. The Neuse Church has made no reply to any of this correspondence. The pastor of the church has been contacted, personally, by a member of this committee, and he has expressed their desire to withdraw fellowship from the Association.

5. The committee notes with gladness the progress of the Gilbert Street Baptist Church (Caraleigh Community) and recommends that this church continue under the watchcare of the Raleigh Association as set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

34. Evangelism Chairman Crate Jones, in making the report of his committee, called attention to the Jubilee year in 1964 and to the suggested dates for revival services. He urged that everyone seek to reach more people for Christ next year. Upon his motion, the report was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

As we close the record book upon another associational year, we humbly thank our heavenly Father for the victories won, and we turn our attention to the task before us.

There is much to be done as we continue our efforts to get ready for the great endeavor before us in 1964. We, in our own strength, cannot bring a revival but there is no record in history of a revival among God's people against their will. History reveals that every spiritual revival has come only when God's people longed for it and earnestly prayed for it. Also, a fervent proclaiming of the Gospel has always been in evidence when God poured out His spirit in power upon His people. Of course this means that revivals are of God but it also means that He uses His people in them.

1964 has been designated as the climactic Jubilee year for our best effort under God in evangelism. Plans call for Jubilee Revivals in every Baptist church on the North American Continent.

Southern Baptist's TOP PLANS for 1964 are listed below. We should prayerfully study them and follow them as the Holy Spirit leads.

Fall, 1963, Sunday School Enrollment Increase.

Associational Evangelism Clinics, ours will be on January 27.

New Year's Eve Prayer Service, December 31, 1963.

Soul-Winning Commitment Day, January 5, 1964.

Bible Study Week, January 6-9, 1964.

Instruction for Committed, January 15, 22, 29, 1964.

Training Union Program on Evangelism, January, 1964.

One Night Clinic for Sunday School Officers and Teachers.

Cultivative-Commitment Witnessing, January-March, 1964.

Televangelism Program Begins February 1, 1964.

Associational Sunday School Witnessing Campaign, January-February, 1964.

State-Wide Evangelistic Conferences, January-February, 1964.

Transfer of Church Membership Month, February, 1964

Special Associational Evangelistic Rallies, February 10 and February 24, 1964.

Pre-Revival Visitation Program.

First Phase of Spiritual Growth Program.

Prayer Program, February 24-28, and March 15-20, 1964.

Preaching and Witnessing, March 8-22, 1964 and March 29-April 12, 1964.

Our Revivals will be March 29-April 12, 1964.

Sunday School High Attendance Day for us will be on April 5, 1964.

Training Union High Attendance Day for us will be on April 12, 1964.

Second Phase of Spiritual Growth Program Inaugurated, April 12, 1964.

Reports-April 13, 1964.

35. Baptist Student Union Representative Jack Painter presented the report of his committee and recognized William C. Smith, State Student Secretary of the Baptist State Convention, who spoke to the report. Secretary Smith gave a brief report of the activities of the campus ministries to students and the programs conducted by the students through their L-I-S-T-E-N funds. He cited also the annual International Retreat at Williamsburg and the achievements of the Youth Evangelism Teams during the summer vacation period as being significant in the lives of these young people.

Leroy Richardson, Campus Director at N. C. State, brought a brief progress report on plans for a new center at the college. Moderator Holt added a word of encouragement and endorsement of this program with our young people. The report was adopted.

I. OBJECTIVE

The objective of this ministry is to assist each person in becoming a mature Christian who is committed to God in faith, who nurtures his faith in the Church, and who manifests the Christian life in all his attitudes and actions. Involvement in a local church, and growth into faithful, qualified member of the Christian community is the aim.

II. PROGRAM

The ministry for Baptist students includes programs of worship, study, service, and fellowship. These are planned and employed in a way which will promote growth as a Christian. Some examples of how students have grown in this ministry follow.

A student who is active in the Baptist Student Union at one of the state-supported colleges became concerned about one of his fellow students who was involved in what appeared an immoral situation. This student then asked the Baptist Chaplain how he could speak in a redemptive way so that the word of God might be heard and accepted.

Other students in some Baptist Student Union meetings at the same college gained new insight into the fact that they loved oppressed people with ease, but that they did not love equally the church member who was basically secular in his approach to life, or the member who was not alert to the actual problems of today.

Another group of students who were discussing topics under the heading "Crucial Concerns," became intensely aware of un-Christian attitudes in the area of race and evolved toward better Christian attitudes and practices regarding all human beings.

In the program with student nurses, a student said that after hearing a missionary nurse speak and show slides of the work she became really interested in missions for the first time. Another student nurse says that she is going to the seminary next year and consider seriously the call to medical missions. She has been active in the Baptist student program at a Baptist college and during nurse's training.

Other students have indicated their life anew and are committed to living the Christian faith and witness in their professions and on their job.

These examples and others can be recited at length. The other side of the story is evident also. There are students who have not become active in the Baptist Student Union and others who seem to take a four-year vacation from all church activities. The Department of Student Work is very concerned about these also. Appropriate ways and programs are always being sought in an effort to reach and to witness to all students. This is a challenging task and in some ways a difficult task. All of the Student Department personnel are well aware of this and ask for the prayerful concern of all.

III. ACTIVITIES

In addition to the program on the campuses, there are activities at the state level. The Baptist Student Union Convention will meet in Greensboro, November 1-3, 1963, with the theme "Freedom Through Bondage." The International Student Conference in Williamsburg, Va., at Thanksgiving gives another opportunity to witness to students from other countries. Student Night at Christmas provides an opportunity for students to relate what it means to be a college student today and to relate what religious activities are provided by the denomination. The Spring Leadership Training Conference provides inspiration, information, and techniques on how to perform in the student program as an officer with a special task on campus. The student mission program (LISTEN) seeks to stretch the mind and imagination in active concern for the people of the world, ministering both to the physical and spiritual needs of people. This summer two students have gone to South America to work in Baptist church activities. Another has gone to Mexico and two went to Africa to participate in construction work on projects needed in communities there. Eight young people, under the direction of the Department of Student Work, comprise two Youth Evangelism Teams which are working with young people in the churches of North Carolina this year.

CONCLUSION

The complete story cannot be told in the facts and figures of programs and activities. The real story is evident in the lives of students who have grown and continue to grow as maturing Christians. Personnel in the ministry to Baptist students continue to meet the opportunities for service and attempt to face the responsibilities in the name of Christ. We attempt to provide adequate response through programs and what buildings we have so that we can meet the call to discipleship when the students say, "Help us to grow in the knowledge of God's redemption and in the call to Christian response in our daily lives on Campus." We ask that you pray that God may guide all of us—church member, pastor, associational worker, student worker—to do a better work with our 26,000 Baptist students in Christ's name in North Carolina.

Jack Painter, Representative

36. The congregation was led in singing, "Faith is the Victory."

37. A spokesman for the Ridgecrest Church stated that November 17 is the date set for the dedication of their new building and he added a word of appreciation for the support given to the new church by the association.

38. The clerk reported that 375 messengers and 161 visitors had been registered during the two sessions of the association.

39. Special music was rendered by the Junior Choir of the Knightdale Church under the direction of Mrs. Jack Painter.

40. The Scripture as recorded in Matthew 5:17-20 was read by Jack Bullard, after which Tabernacle Pastor James F. Heaton delivered an inspirational message on the topic, "The Supremacy of Jesus." In challenging the congregation to a richer and fuller Christian experience by abolishing the old system of "an eye for an eye" he urged everyone to rise to the new and higher standard of the New Testament, and thus demonstrate to the world that Christians recognize in their daily activities "The Supremacy of Jesus."

41. The meeting adjourned for lunch following prayer by Jack Painter.

Friday Afternoon, October 25, 1963

42. Marion Lark led the congregation in singing, "Make Me a Channel of Blessing," to open the final session of the meeting.

43. Greenwood Forest Pastor Charles Tucker conducted the devotional period by reading the Scripture as found in I Peter 2:9-17 and by leading in prayer.

44. In the absence of L. E. Forrest, Allen Laymon presented the report of the Committee on Committees and moved its adoption. Motion carried and the committees thus named are listed elsewhere in this annual.

45. John Lambert, Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, brought the report of his committee and moved the election of those named by his committee. Inasmuch as there were no nominations from the floor the following report was adopted unanimously.

46. Joe F. Roach, Chairman of the Committee on Time, Place and Preacher presented the following report which was adopted:

REPORT ON TIME, PLACE AND PREACHER

The 1964 session of the Raleigh Association will be held with the Emmanuel Baptist Church, Raleigh, Thursday evening after the 4th Sunday in October.

The Friday session will be held with the Stoney Hill Baptist Church for the morning and afternoon sessions. Host churches are Bay Leaf, Ridgecrest, Mary's Chapel, Wakeminster, Wake Union and Woodland.

We recommend Allen Laymon of the Bethlehem Church (R) to preach the annual sermon in 1964 and Willard Adkinson of Garner Church as alternate.

We recommend that the 1965 session meet with the New Hope Church on Thursday evening after the 4th Sunday in October.

We recommend further the morning and afternoon sessions meet the following Friday with the Salem Baptist Church. Host churches are Good Hope, Green Level, Apex and New Hill.

Joe F. Roach, Chairman

47. Chairman of the Resolutions Committee Alphonso Jordan presented the following report, which, after appropriate remarks by the chairman, was adopted.

THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

1. We resolve that the Raleigh Baptist Association does express its sincere thanks to L. D. Holt for the splendid way he has presided over this 158th Annual Session.

2. We resolve to express our thanks to all of those who have taken part in this splendid program, all speakers, musicians, and to those who have given reports from the various departments of our Association.

3. We resolve to express our appreciation to the host churches, Tabernacle, Knightdale, Bethany, Bethlehem (R), Central, and Samaria, for this Annual Session. Their hospitality and cordiality have been clearly demonstrated and appreciated.

4. We resolve to express our gratitude to our Associational Clerk, Leon Spencer, and to our Associational Treasurer, L. G. Bullard, for their faithfulness and efficiency. Their tasks require much effort, time, and ability. For their devotion and service we are thankful.

5. We resolve to give a higher degree of loyal support and service to our Association and to the Kingdom work of our Baptist State Convention.

6. We resolve further to dedicate the 1963 Annual of the Raleigh Baptist Association to the memory of R. N. Simms, Sr., who for many years was a loyal and faithful member of the Association.

Alphonso Jordan, Chairman

48. J. Marse Grant, Editor of the BIBLICAL RECORDER, was recognized and he brought a brief message on the topic, "Keeping the Lines of Communication Open." In his usual effective manner he held the attention of the congregation as he shared his views relating to the responsibilities that are his as Editor of our State Baptist paper. The report of the RECORDER follows.

REPORT ON THE BIBLICAL RECORDER

The Biblical Recorder has literally grown up with North Carolina Baptists and the State Convention that they support. The Convention was organized in 1830 at Greenville and only three years later in 1833 the Biblical Recorder made its first appearance. It has been in business ever since strengthening and undergirding all that Baptists of this state love and support. As the Convention has grown, the Recorder has grown in influence and circulation. Today it has more than 80,000 subscribers, the largest in its 130-year history.

In its long history, the Recorder has been a valuable instrument of communication among Baptists. This is so important today as tensions arise. There must be a place where Baptists can come together in a common meeting place. The Recorder provides this meeting place each week. When people know, they respond. When they are not informed properly and accurately, they become victims of rumors and misinformation.

Churches which already have clubs know the value of the Recorder. But approximately half of our churches have no Recorder subscribers except the Pastor and Sunday School superintendent who receive the paper complimentary. As an incentive to churches to organize new clubs, the Recorder is offering two-months' bonus plan. Simply stated, members of a new club can receive the Recorder 14 months for the price of only 12 months. For only $2.50, in clubs of four or more, new subscribers can receive the Recorder for 14 months the first year. After that period, we believe these new readers will want the paper to continue indefinitely. Pastors and Sunday School superintendents are urged to take the initiative in organizing a new club.

Even better than this bonus plan is the Every Family Plan which sends the Recorder to every family in your church for only 4¢ a week, per family. This is a small investment with tremendous dividends.

The Recorder staff is at the service of North Carolina Baptists. It is dedicated to all that is strengthening the Baptist witness in this state and around the world. We believe it is worthy of your support and prayers.

J. Marse Grant, Editor and Business Mgr.

49. The congregation joined in singing, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

50. Speaking in behalf of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Walter Wood, Superintendent at the new home at Chapel Hill, cited case histories that proved of interest to the messengers assembled. A cordial invitation was extended to everyone to visit the home at Chapel Hill and the other units whenever it is convenient and thus become better acquainted with the work of the Children's Homes.

THE CHILDREN'S HOMES REPORT

More children were served by the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina last year than ever before in history. This was made possible by the interest, prayers and giving of North Carolina Baptists and other friends. We are indeed grateful for every remembrance—the Thanksgiving offerings, once a month offerings, Cooperative Program gifts, food, clothing, and other things. Without these we could not provide the many services to children and families which we do.

The physical, mental, social and spiritual growth and development of our children has been most gratifying. North Carolina Baptists have every reason to rejoice with the very fine response of these boys and girls to the Christian love and care afforded them. Members of an already fine and capable staff continue to grow in their love for children and their ability to work effectively with them.

We have been reminded for several years of a growing need for specialized services for an increasing number of children who suffer emotional illness. We are happy to report that these services are being provided a limited number of children in a small home at Chapel Hill in cooperation with the University Medical Center. They are receiving the best professional, medical help that can be provided. We are most fortunate to have this facility. It will strengthen greatly our entire program of child care.

We are compelled to keep our pressing needs before you. Applications for the admission of children are increasing. Relatives, pastors, friends of dependent children, departments of public welfare and others plead with the leadership of the Homes daily for help. A familiar plea is "Unless you can help this child, there is no hope for him." We lay upon your hearts three areas of need.

1. An immediate increase in the number of children in good Christian foster homes in all areas of the state.
2. Continuous expansion and up-grading of facilities to enable the Homes to keep abreast of the best in child care.
3. An increase in financial support to undergird and strengthen the entire program.

A generous Thanksgiving offering is a must? Without it we cannot maintain what we now have in progress. We would challenge Pastors, Sunday School Superintendents and church leaders to make the best preparation possible for the forthcoming offering. Giving for the care of dependent children affords one of our greatest joys in Christian service.

Financial support for the past year has come from the following sources:

Cooperative Program -----	33 Per Cent
Thanksgiving Offerings -----	30 Per Cent
Once-a-Month Offerings -----	16 Per Cent
All Other -----	21 Per Cent

Charity and Children, the official publication of the Homes, is now in its 76th year of publication and is widely read by our Baptist people. It has long been one of the best religious papers published among Southern Baptists. Every family in every church is invited to be among its readers to keep informed about our child care program and the world mission of our Lord. An issue of Charity and Children can be enjoyed each week during the year for only sixty cents. See that your church receives it.

Mrs. John Johnson, Representative

51. Baptist Homes for the Aging Representative Jack L. Bulard presented the report on the homes and moved its adoption. He then recognized General Superintendent William A. Poole, who brought an interesting and heart-warming message concerning the work of the Homes for Aging. He stated that 90% of the residents receive financial assistance through gifts from the churches. He invited the messengers to request a print of the movie, "Loom of Love," for showing in their churches. The report follows.

HOMES FOR AGING REPORT

God has blessed the ministry of our North Carolina Baptist Homes in a wonderful manner during the twelve years of our operation, and the past year has been filled with His goodness.

We are now able to serve 160 residents in our four Baptist Homes—the Hayes Homes and Resthaven in Winston-Salem, the Albemarle Home, at Albemarle, and the Hamilton Home, at Hamilton.

In June of 1962, the doors of the lovely new Hamilton Home were opened to the first residents, and the halls have been ringing with the laughter and the happiness of the residents there since. This beautiful facility has greatly lengthened and strengthened the arm of our total ministry, and has already brought much joy to our Baptist people in Eastern North Carolina. We are looking forward to the day in the future when the arm of compassion can be extended to reach and serve more of our aging people in Western North Carolina.

The greatest single need is for more space continually. Today there are 160 people waiting for admission, from all areas of our great State, and it is a heartbreaking experience to keep these dear people waiting who so urgently need to come.

The average age among our residents is 80. Our youngest resident is 65, and our oldest resident will be 102 in July. Between this age span, we are seeking to meet almost every conceivable life need of the individual. Each person, in an atmosphere that is distinctly Christian, is surrounded by love, peace, and security. Perhaps one of the greatest single contributions that is made is the nursing care that is given in the event of illness. The resident is assured that he will receive tender loving care in sickness as well as in health. Years are literally added to the life of a person in our care, we feel.

The tie with our Baptist people and our Baptist Churches is a blessed one indeed. We are continually dependent upon the prayers, the visits, the loving concern, and the financial support of our people. The two most vital media of support from the churches are the Special Day Offerings, received on the third Sunday of February each year, and the Homes' share in the Cooperative Program. Inasmuch as we receive only 1 3/10% of the State Convention's share of the Cooperative Program, or $7.92 out of each $1,000.00 contributed through the Cooperative Program, we shall have to continue to look to the Special Day Offerings for the greater part of our support from the churches.

North Carolina Baptists have given a good account of their stewardship in their ministry to the aging during these years of a wonderful beginning, and we have the faith to believe that they will continue to move forward in this great area of human concern.

Jack Bullard, Representative

52. Hospital Representative E. H. Sessom presented the report on the Baptist Hospital and moved its adoption, after which he recognized John Solano, who emphasized the work of the School of Pastoral Care. He stated that outstanding personalities from England, Venezuela, Colombia, and many other faraway places are constantly seeking information from the Baptist Hospital in North Carolina.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Our hospital cost per patient day in 1950 was $11.58, but in 1962 it was $28.30—an increase of $17.72

Our hospital service patient clinic visits were in 1950, 47,889, but in 1962 there was 86,656 visits—an increase of 38,767

Our hospital's average cost to the patient per day in 1951 was $12.27, but in 1961 it was $21.00—an increase of $8.73

(The average cost to the patient per day on a state level for North Carolina is $27.00 and on a national level for the United States is $35.00.)

In 1946 the average hospital bill per period of hospitalization was $86.00, but in 1961 the average bill was $267.00—an increase of $181.00

In 1960 the cost of free service rendered by our hospital was $1,002,208.00, but our Mother's Day Offering was only $232,619.00—a difference of $769,589.00

(This reveals that our hospital is giving "over and above" our Mother's Day Offering three (3) times as much service as we make available through our offering.)

The above facts reveal the need for the wonderful ministry of our North Carolina Baptist Hospital. It is felt that this need should become a definite concern of all North Carolina Baptists.

Our North Carolina Baptist Hospital is not just another hospital—it is a ministry. The patient and their family not only receive good medical attention, but they receive spiritual help also. The School of Pastoral Care provides dedicated and concerned Chaplains to work in one of the richest fields of evangelism: pointing disturbed families to the Christ who can save to the uttermost and who is not willing that any should perish.

According to our report of October 1, 1963, there are seventeen (17) Baptist Churches in the Raleigh Baptist Association that have made NO contribution to our hospital this year. The money received from the Co-operative Program does not go to service patients—it goes for capital improvements.

As you read this report; will you resolve to encourage your Church to be more concerned about the ministry of our hospital?

Edward Sessom, Representative

53. The inspirational message of the afternoon was brought by Bruce E. Whitaker, President of Chowan College, on the subject, "Christian Education in North Carolina." By way of introducing his subject he commented favorably upon the theme of the association for the 1963 sessions, "For Liberty and Light." Weaving this theme into his topic, he sought to emphasize the character building programs being conducted on our Baptist College campuses. He asserted that atmosphere, tone, and prevailing attitude make up a Christian College. At the conclusion of his excellent address, the report on Christian Education was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

Enrollment (fall semester, 1962)
Campbell College -----	1,727
Chowan College -----	851
Gardner-Webb College -----	615
Mars Hill College -----	1,189
Meredith College -----	880
Wake Forest College -----	2,915
Wingate College -----	1,012
Total -----	9,189

Of special interest this year is the fact that Campbell College graduated its first senior class. Mars Hill will be graduating its first senior class in the spring of 1964.

The Advancement of our program of Christian education continues to be made possible through the gifts of the local churches through the Co-operative Program. The Baptist colleges of North Carolina deeply appreciate what has been done through the Christian Education Advance. The benefit from this program will be felt by the colleges for many years to come. We urge all Baptist churches to cooperate with Director R. T. Greene as we move into the final year of the campaign.

Denominational Leadership

We are more strongly convinced than ever that the denominational college plays its most vital role in its production of Christian leadership, not only in Christian vocations such as the ministry, missions, evangelism, church music, religious education and related fields; but, more particularly, it is contributing a vital leadership through laymen who are serving in many capacities in local communities.

This past year during Christian Education Day we emphasized the fact that Baptist colleges (North Carolina) now have missionary alumni who are serving all around the world. Almost 200 dedicated men and women are preaching the gospel in many lands and in many tongues.

But we must remember that it was Dr. Baker James Cauthen who, in a letter to the secretary of the Council, pointed out that in addition to this wonderful contribution, Baptist colleges are sending hundreds of graduates back into the local community with a direct interest in missions and other phases of church work. Baptist colleges are taking seriously the task of producing Christian leadership for our times.

FOUR GREAT CHALLENGES FOR CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

1. The challenge presented by the plight of modern youth who are desperately trying to find the meaning of existence in a world which elders did not know, a world teetering on the brink of atomic destruction on one hand and staggering under the burden of military training on the other.

2. The challenge of Christian leadership in a world which for the past several years has watched an alarming decline in the number of men and women committing themselves to the Christian vocation.

3. The challenge of liberty and individual freedom and dignity in a world which has witnessed a dehumanization of man on every level.

4. The challenge of a culture which has radically changed from Christian to non-Christian in practice and world view.

5. The challenge of high academic standards and competent teaching.

Christian Education Emphasis for 1964

Therefore, mindful of the real dangers which our denomination faces with a decline in the number of young people answering the call to full-time Christian service, your Baptist colleges, working through the Council of Christian Education, have designated Christian Education Day for 1964 as Christian Vocational Day. This will be a day for "calling out the called," the day in which the colleges will join our churches in appealing to young people to heed the call to the ministry, missions, and evangelism, to prepare themselves to accept positions of leadership in religious education, church music, and in many of the special fields related to these.

It is the hope of the colleges, through the Council, to make this a permanent emphasis, not only in the "calling out of the called," but in recognizing the role which the layman plays in the church and community.

In addition to this, we hope to make the Christian Education Day offering next year a great offering to help those young people answer the call to full-time Christian service and to go to college. The colleges feel that for too long this area has been neglected. While thousands of dollars are available in scholarship funds in this country for those who want to study science, technology, teaching, or many other professions, there has been no corresponding effort to help the Christian vocational workers overcome their financial problem.

This plight is fully illustrated by what happened in a church not too many weeks ago. According to one of our fine associational missionaries, a young woman went home from the morning service with great enthusiasm and a determination to give her life to full-time Christian service. At lunch, after she had expressed this desire, the father shook his head sadly and said to her, "I wish this could be possible, but you might as well put it from your mind. We can barely pay the taxes, much less get up the money to send you to college." This is a true story, and we will perhaps never know how many young people have been lost to leadership because we have failed to provide sufficient help.

And, finally, we conclude this report by an appeal for all the churches and all the Christian people in our state to join hands with us in 1964 in making it a great year when we "call out the called" and in which we provide adequate funds for helping these young people go to college.

PROGRAM SERVICES REPORT

The Department of Program Services promotes the total Baptist program through the associations and local churches. It is a department that is primarily public relations; and, it is incorporated in the Division of Stewardship Promotion and Editorial Services.

The work of the Department of Program Services may be divided as follows:

AUDIO VISUAL AIDS

Film Library

During the past year the department has booked more than 10,000 films which is an increase over last year. We are encouraged that more and more churches are making use of our film library facilities. It is interesting to note that the bookings are greater during weeks of special emphasis; however, the general trend is that the churches are making constant use of these materials in their regular programs. The library has more than 2,200 35mm. filmstrips and more than 100 16mm. sound motion pictures available on a free rental basis for church use. These film titles cover every area of denominational endeavor. A catalogue listing all titles with descriptions is available free upon request.

Film Production

The department continues to produce both 35mm. and 16mm. films in support of the total Baptist program for the departments of the General Board. During this year we have produced a 16mm. sound motion picture, HEARTBEAT OF MISSIONS, pointing up the oneness of missions and the importance of cooperation in mission giving. A 33mm. filmstrip, COOPERATION IS THE KEY, was produced in behalf of the Week of Prayer for Associational Missions. This filmstrip shows the many services of the association through the cooperation of churches.

Audio-Visual Demonstration Conferences and Clinics

Each year the department, at the request of various associations, plans "one-night stand" demonstration conferences. These conferences are well attended by pastors and lay-leaders in each association. We have also assisted the various departments in the preparation of non-projected and projected visual aids for special programs. Counseling with churches regarding audio-visual equipment, program planning, and sight and sound installations has become one of the major services of the department. These services include: enforced sound, closed circuit TV, broadcast equipment, chime systems, visual installation, projection equipment, background projection, non-projected aids, recording facilities, lighting effects, radio loops, and screen installation. More than 50 churches were aided in this manner during the past year.

Jimmy Morriss, Secretary

54. Secretary of Missions Robert L. Costner served as installing officer for the following officers: L. D. Holt, Moderator; H. A. Hodge, Vice Moderator; L. G. Bullard, Treasurer; and Leon P. Spencer, Clerk.

55. The 158th annual session of the association adjourned following prayer of installation of new officers and benediction.

SECRETARY OF MISSIONS REPORT

This past associational year has brought new joys as we have celebrated the last year of Jubilee Advance. We have new insights in our interdependence as we have tried to cultivate the spiritual objectives of our churches. New strength has been manifested in many areas of our work, and we have indicated a new awareness of our historic Baptist principles. I wish to express my gratitude to all of our churches for their faithful cooperation in the work of our association. I have had the privilege of working with you for almost seven years, and I am grateful for this place of service in the cause of Christ.

Our new theme for this year is "The Church Fulfilling Its Mission Through Worship." This is a significant challenge for all of the churches in our association. Let us consider more specifically how "Worship and Our Common Commitment" can be enhanced during this year.

The resources of your associational leaders and officers will be directed toward an encouragement and guidance in the art of worship. This is a sorely neglected area in the life of many of our churches. Most of our strife and problems would disappear in constant experiences of worship. A deep sense and awareness of God's purpose for His church will be the result of effective worship. The fruits of such worship will be as follows:

1. We will fulfill the three-fold purpose of the association — (1) the cultivation of closer bonds of fellowship, sympathy, mutual understanding and brotherly love; (2) the counseling together in plans and programs for the strengthening and enlargement of God's Kingdom; and (3) the promotion of Evangelism, Missions, Education, Social Service and Benevolences through Associational, State Convention and Southern Convention Programs.

2. We will strengthen the ties of pastor-people. Without mutual love and concern all else will become meaningless. We can and must challenge the world with a church expressing love and brotherhood, a church striving to live and learn the new commandment "that we love one another as He has loved us."

3. We will see clearly as churches that we need one another. A true New Testament church will not insist upon being independent, secluded or isolated from her sister churches. We will develop a deep concern for the welfare and spiritual power of every church in the association. Our relationship will strive to be one of helpfulness to our smaller churches and those facing serious difficulties.

4. We will enlarge our vision of the value of the individual in our congregations. Let us convince people that God cares for them as individuals, that each person has a place in the heart of God. Christ died to make us sure of it. He has a particular plan and place for each of us. Otherwise, the love of God does not become a personal experience.

5. We will have a growing and vital concern to participate in World Missions. We have a personal and corporate responsibility to give the Gospel of Salvation to all the peoples of the earth. We dare not spend ourselves upon ourselves. The Church—if she is true to her Master—must go into all the world.

CONSTITUTION FOR THE RALEIGH BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I—NAME

This body shall be known as The Raleigh Baptist Association of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II—PURPOSE

The purpose of this association shall be (1) the cultivation of closer bonds of fellowship, sympathy, mutual understanding and brotherly love; (2) the counseling together in plans and programs for the strengthening and enlargement of God's Kingdom; and (3) the promotion of Evangelism, Missions, Education Social Service and Benevolences through the Associational, State Convention and Southern Convention Programs.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section A. The association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area served by this association.

Section B. Any church applying for membership in the association shall be received under the watchcare for a period of time sufficient to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist church. A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Membership Committee of the association. If, in the judgment of the Membership Committee and The Executive Council, such church has met the requirements listed above, by the next regular meeting of the association, the Membership Committee may recommend through the Executive Council that such a church be received into the association without further delay.

Section C. The association shall have full right to withdraw fellowship from any church whose course of conduct is uncooperative.

Section D. Any church may withdraw from the association at its pleasure.

ARTICLE IV—MEETINGS

Section A. The Association shall convene in Annual Session on the last Thursday and Friday of October in each year.

Section B. Each church shall be entitled to one messenger for every 25 members, with sixteen being the maximum sent from any church.

Section C. All pastors of churches in the association shall be recognized as messengers in addition to those specified above.

Section D. The Association, when convened in meeting, shall have no power to infringe on any of the internal rights of the churches; it may advise with the member churches and recommend measures of usefulness for their adoption, and may claim for itself, its objects and programs, the highest consideration.

Section E. In case of emergency the Executive Council is empowered to change the time or place of meeting or call a special session of the Association.

ARTICLE V—DEPARTMENTS

The Association shall promote an aggressive program of teaching, training, Evangelism, Mission and Stewardship Emphasis through the following departments: The Sunday School Department; The Training Union Department; The Brotherhood Department; The Music Education Department. The Woman's Missionary Union shall be recognized as an auxiliary to the Association.

ARTICLE VI—OFFICERS

The Officers of the association shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of The Sunday School Department, a Director of The Training Union Department, a President of The Brotherhood Department, a Director of the Department of Music Education and three Trustees. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in Annual Session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE VII—COMMITTEES

The association shall have the Standing Committees listed below along with any other committees authorized by the association. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in annual session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next annual session. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

- A. Committee On Committees
- B. Committee On Order of Business
- C. Committee On Nominations
- D. Committee On Membership
- E. Committee On Evangelism
- F. Committee On Ordination
- G. Committee On Time, Place, Preacher
- H. Committee On Resolutions
- I. Committee On Memorials

ARTICLE VIII—ADMINISTRATION

The Secretary of Missions and other employees of the association shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the association and the denomination. They shall work under the direction of and be subject to the authority of The Executive Council. They shall be nominated by the Executive Committee of The Executive Council, and elected by the association at any annual session, or by The Executive Council if the next annual session of the association is thirty (30) days or more beyond the date on which the employee is nominated.

ARTICLE IX—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council shall consist of all active pastors and one lay member from each member church. The officers of the Association shall be ex-officio members and shall serve as the officers of the Council. In addition the Secretary of Missions and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union shall be ex-officio members. It shall be the duty of the Council to carry forward the work of the Association between sessions and make reports to the Association.

ARTICLE X—ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The Associational Year shall begin on October 1 and end on September 30 of each year.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENT

This Constitution may be amended by the association at any annual session.

BY-LAWS

The work of the Association shall be governed by the following By-Laws:

ARTICLE I—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section A. The Moderator shall preside over sessions of the Association and meetings of the Executive Council. He shall not serve more than two terms in succession.

Section B. The Vice-Moderator shall perform the duties of the Moderator in his absence.

Section C. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep full records of the meetings of the Association and the Executive Council and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and the data from the church letters in an annual report. The Clerk shall further cooperate with the other officers of the Association in promoting the total program of the Association. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association shall direct.

Section D. The Treasurer shall receive, safeguard and disburse all funds of the association. Disbursements shall be made in accordance with the Budget adopted by the association. Non-Budget items must be approved by The Finance Committee of The Executive Council. The Treasurer shall make quarterly reports to the Executive Council and an Annual Report to the Association. He shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Council shall direct. He shall be paid such an honorarium and expenses as the Association may direct.

Section E. The Trustees shall hold title to all property of the association. When authorized by the Executive Council of the association they shall execute notes secured by Mortgages or Deeds of Trust in the purchase of church sites or other property. The Trustees in all acts with respect to property purchased shall be controlled and directed by the Association through its executive council.

Section F. The Superintendent of The Department of Sunday Schools shall promote and supervise the Sunday School Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section G. The President of The Department of Brotherhoods shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood work in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section H. The Director of The Department of Training Unions shall promote and supervise The Training Union Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

ARTICLE II—COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

Section A. The Committee On Committees, consisting of seven members, shall nominate the members of the various Standing Committees and submit them for election by the association.

Section B. The Committee On Order of Business, consisting of five members, shall prepare the Program for the Annual Session. This suggested Program shall be presented in printed form to the association at the beginning of the Session for action.

Section C. The Committee On Nominations, consisting of three members, shall nominate all Officers as authorized herein and submit them to the association in Annual Session for election.

Section D. The Committee On Membership, consisting of five members, shall review all applications from churches for membership in the association. The Committee shall make a thorough investigation of the petitioning church as to its doctrines, practices, and cooperation with the Baptist Program. A Formal statement of its findings along with its recommendations shall be submitted to the association or The Executive Council as provided herein.

Section E. The Committee On Evangelism, consisting of seven members, shall press an aggressive evangelistic effort within the bounds of the association. This shall be done through the encouragement of revivals in the churches, especially where the need is apparent; the promotion of simultaneous campaigns; and the promotion of evangelistic services in un-churched areas. The Committee shall meet no less than four times annually.

Section F. The Committee On Ordination shall consist of no less than seven members. Churches desiring to ordain ministers who have been called to a specific work are requested to place their candidates before the Committee for examination. After such examination the Committee will make its recommendations to the church.

Section G. The Committee On Time, Place, and Preacher, composed of three members, shall recommend to the association in Annual Session (1) the Time of the next Annual Session, (2) the Place, or Places of meeting, (3) the Preacher and Alternate of the Annual Sermon.

Section H. The Committee On Resolutions, composed of three members, shall review all resolutions referred to it by the association in Annual Session, submitting a report on these, along with other suitable resolutions, before the close of the Session.

Section I. The Committee On Memorials, consisting of three members, shall plan for our beloved dead a memorial service to be conducted during the Annual Session of the association.

ARTICLE III—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section A. The Officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Clerk of the Association.

Theme: The Church Fulfilling Its Mission Through Worship

1. The 159th Annual Session of the Raleigh Baptist Association was called to order on Thursday evening, October 29, 1964 in the Emmanuel Baptist Church by Moderator L. D. Holt. He recognized John Baxley, Pastor of Swift Creek Baptist Church, who led the congregation in singing "Stand Up and Bless the Lord."

2. Host Pastor and Moderator Holt extended a cordial welcome to the messengers and visitors in attendance at this opening session of the annual meeting. He called attention to the theme which had been adopted for the 1964 sessions. He stated that throughout the meeting emphasis would be placed on "The Church Fulfilling Its Mission Through Worship."

3. Robert Mullinax, Chairman of the Committee on Order of Business, offered a motion that the printed program, with such changes as may be necessary, become the order of business for the meeting and that the messengers now registered and those to be registered constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

4. David Bishop, Past Chairman of Deacons at Emmanuel Church, conducted the devotional period using as his Scripture reading Psalm 67:1-7.

5. Moderator Holt brought a brief but challenging message on the theme, "What is the Church Doing to Cope with the Complex Needs of our Time?" He stated that we should make our faith more relevant in our living and that only then will our churches meet the needs of our community.

6. "A Definition of Worship" was the topic of an address by Robert Mullinax which served to establish the tone of the two-day session of the Association. The well-prepared message was stimulating, challenging and applicable to everyday Christian living.

7. Clerk Leon Spencer recognized new pastors and staff members coming into the association during the past year and extended to each a warm and cordial welcome. He announced that 283 messengers and 61 visitors had been registered, which represented an increase of 26 messengers over any recent year.

8. The congregation joined in singing "Jesus, Keep me near the Cross."

9. Robert L. Costner, Secretary of Missions of the Association, recognized and paid tribute to Mrs. Costner; his office secretary, Mrs. Shirley Ogle; Moderator Holt; Treasurer Bullard and Clerk Spencer; for the contributions that each had made to the program of the Association. He then addressed the congregation on the theme, "Worship and Our Common Commitment." He stated that through worship we should experience a sense of common interest and commitment to the end that progress and growth may be realized through cooperation with each other. His report may be found near the front of the annual.

10. Special Music was rendered by the Emmanuel Church Choir.

11. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, brought an inspirational message on the assigned subject, "The Vision Worship Brings." Using the 12th chapter of Romans as the basis for his message he cited that too often an over-emphasis is placed on fine church plants and that a sense of complacency seems to have settled on our churches. The General Secretary stated that something ought to happen when people come to worship; that we should not let world around us squeeze us into its own mold; and that "business as usual" will not do the job. In an effective manner he portrayed just how vision ought to lead to service. Through this channel of service we would find God again in our experience and having found Him we will have discovered a new way to serve Him.

12. Following the closing song "Open My Eyes That I May See" the benediction was pronounced by Claude F. Gaddy.

Friday Morning, October 30, 1964

13. Pastor John Baxley led the congregation in singing "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" to open the Friday morning session at Stony Hill Church.

14. Stony Hill Host Pastor Paul Hester, on behalf of his church and host churches Bay Leaf, Mary's Chapel, Ridgecrest, Wakeminster, Wake Union and Woodland, brought greetings and extended a warm welcome to all messengers and visitors attending the meeting.

15. Scripture reading as found in Psalm 95:1-6 was read by Thomas Bailey of the Stony Hill Church, after which he lead in prayer.

16. The goals and program for Sunday School promotion during the year were presented by Associational Superintendent Allen Laymon. Upon his motion the report which follows was adopted.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The Great Commission of our Lord is just as relevant in our generation as it was in the first Christian century. We are to "Go and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things. . ."

The Sunday Schools of our churches have been assigned the tasks of outreach, teaching the Bible, leading all church members to worship and witness daily, providing opportunities to perform the personal ministries of the church, furnishing workers for various projects, and interpreting the work of the church and denomination.

Dr. A. V. Washburn, secretary of our Southern Baptist Sunday Schools, says, "Before outreach can become a continuing reality, our churches must get their programs in the right order. The natural order is the reaching of people, the winning of the lost, and the development that should come out of it."

Southern Baptist Sunday Schools are seeking to enroll ten million by 1970. In order to achieve this goal we must gain approximately 30% in the next six years. In North Carolina we are challenged to reach a Sunday School enrolment of one million by 1970, or a gain of 29%. This tremendous task of outreach must have priority.

We are asking each Sunday School in our association to accept an enrolment increase of 2% for 1965, 3% for 1966, 4% for 1967, 5% for 1968, 6% for 1969, and 7% for 1970. We will grow great Sunday Schools as we show compassionate concern for the unreached. Evangelism, stewardship, missions, discipleship—all of these wait upon outreach. People must be our concern.

These enrolment gains can be realized by organizing new Sunday Schools (a new Sunday School will gain 30); the creation of Extension Bible classes (each will gain 10); the starting of new adult classes (each will gain 6); the activating of Extension, Cradle Roll, and Young People Away departments (each will gain 6); and enrolling Vacation Bible School pupils not in Sunday School.

If we will follow the simple growth formula advocated by Dr. Arthur Flake many years ago—locate the prospects, enlarge the organization, provide needed space, enlist and train workers, and visit the people—we will experience the glorious opportunity of reaching people for Bible study that they might become followers of Jesus Christ.

Along with an accelerated emphasis upon outreach, each Sunday School is urged to observe January Week of Bible Study, to plan a church and mission Vacation Bible School, to promote Operation Home Study and other opportunities of training in the Church Study Course, to cooperate in the Adult Thrust effort to reach thousands of Adult church members not enrolled in Sunday School, to participate in the associational Sunday School projects—clinics, conferences, enlargement campaigns, and to encourage workers to attend the Sunday School emphases at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Fruitland, and Ridgecrest. As our Sunday Schools go, so will our churches go.

17. In his usual unique manner Associational Training Union Director Bennett Straughn presented for the enlightenment of the congregation a "Training Union Computer" which revealed that the previous M-Night in the Raleigh Association was the 6th largest in the Southern Baptist Convention, that the Youth Convention was one of the most stimulating and most successful ever held; and that the calendar of activities listed several important dates for Training Union events. The following report was adopted.

TRAINING UNION REPORT

This past associational year has been full of interest in the work and continued growth in attendance at our meetings. Four Officers' and Leaders' Conferences; four mass meetings; two executive meetings; and one clinic were held during the year.

Our "M" Night meeting in December is continuing to create more interest and larger attendance. Dr. Robert S. Cook from the Training Union Department of the Southern Baptist Convention in Nashville, Tennessee was the speaker. Mr. Willis Abernathy, Minister of Music at Emmanuel Baptist Church, led the 200 voice youth choir. The "M" Night attendance this year was 2,685.

Another outstanding meeting during the year is "Youth Night" held in April. This year Youth Night was held at Tabernacle Baptist Church with an attendance of 325. A good program, fine attendance, and excellent participation by our youth in the association made this meeting a success.

We had our annual associational banquet at the Tabernacle Baptist Church in May with 260 attending. Mr. Sam O'Neal, Associate in the Training Union Department, was the speaker.

Our summer assemblies are continuing to hold a high spot with our people. Interest is continuing to rise with participation in the tournaments. It is estimated that at every conference there were people attending from this association.

Our goal for the coming year is again "A Training Union in every church in the Raleigh Association", with more church members in Training Union.

There was much interest in our tournament held in March with eighteen Juniors being declared state winners. Miss Joyce Cooke of Forest Hills represented the state at Ridgecrest, and is the first from our association.

Miss Vickie Tart from Zebulon and Miss Faye Jackson from Emmanuel were participants in the Young People Speaking Tournament. Mr. Raleigh Vaughn of Hayes Barton participated in the Adult Scripture Reading.

Bennett Straughn, Director

18. Mrs. John Carpenter presented a report of Woman's Missionary Union's progress and expressed appreciation to leaders for their cooperation in making this one of their best years. In speaking to the report Mrs. Carpenter outlined objectives and extended challenges for the coming year. In concluding she urged commitment for 1965 by serving a living Christ. The report which follows was adopted.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Let us review the work of Woman's Missionary Union during the Year of Jubilee, when our theme has been "For Liberty and Light." We do give thanks unto the Lord for all His manifold blessings unto us and express our sincere appreciation to all those who have rendered service to our Lord through Woman's Missionary Union during 1963-64. We give a very special word of appreciation to all our host churches this year who welcomed us so graciously.

Our first meeting of the year was held at New Hope Church on October 17 with 258 ladies attending. Our host churches furnished a nursery for all our meetings, so the New Hope ladies took care of 51 children during this Leadership Conference. There was a repeat night session for those who could not attend the morning conference.

On November 18 and 19 our seven and one-half hour Woman's Missionary Union Basic Leadership Course was taught at Emmanuel Church with an average attendance for the two days of 191 ladies and 49 children. A large number of these ladies received their Cards of Accreditation for the completion of this course.

The Home Mission study was held at Temple Church on January 23 with 110 attending. There were day and night sessions. Teachers were Mrs. G. R. Garner, Mrs. F. R. Hunter, Mrs. R. L. Weatherspoon, Mrs. John Pollack, Miss Isabelle Knott, and Mrs. Willis Abernathy. A thirty minute filmstrip, "Sharing Christ in Our Land," concluded the study.

Our Annual Woman's Missionary Union meeting was held at Fuquay Springs Baptist Church on April 16th. There were 51 churches represented with 398 attending including 5 men and 37 children. Host churches along with Fuquay were Collins Grove, New Hill, Pleasant Grove, Swift Creek, Garner, and Holly Springs. Guest speaker for the morning session was Mrs. A. L. Parker of Greensboro, State WMU President. During the afternoon session our Associational Missionary, Rev. Robert L. Costner, installed our new officers and led the prayer of dedication. Miss Maurine Perryman, Missionary to Jordan, was our afternoon guest speaker.

On September 24 our Foreign Mission Study Institute was held at Longview Church with 106 present. Leading the classes were Mrs. Marshall Cobb, Mrs. G. R. Garner, Mrs. F. R. Hunter, Mrs. John Pollack, Mrs. Zeb Strickland, Mrs. George Morris, Miss Isabelle Knott, Mrs. J. F. Heaton, and Mrs. Fred Scott.

The Associational Young Woman's Auxiliary Council led by Miss Isabelle Knott and assisted by Mrs. D. P. McFarland held three well-attended meetings at Garner, Calvary, and Apex. Miss Adelia Ann Dozier, missionary daughter and student at Meredith was guest speaker for one of these meetings.

Mrs. W. C. Adkinson, our Associational Camp Director, led two Girl's Auxiliary Camps this summer at Umstead State Park assisted by many faithful staff members. The results of these two camps are thrilling. There were 37 professions of faith in Christ, 69 rededications, and 14 dedications to full time Christian service. Guests who led mission studies during the camps were Miss Adelia Ann Dozier, Mrs. Edwin Dozier, Rev. Neal Peyton, and Rev. Robert Bushyhead.

This year an Associational Girl's Auxiliary was organized under the leadership of our G. A. Director, Mrs. Robert L. Weatherspoon and her assistant, Mrs. John Pollack. Their first meeting was held at Good Hope Church on December 16 with 200 girls and leaders attending. Mrs. Ben Lawton, missionary to Italy, was guest speaker. Calvary Church was host to the next meeting of the Associational Girl's Auxiliary on April 3 with about 250 present. A 30 minute sound film, "A Church Shall Lead Them," was the feature. Another meeting of the Associational G. A. was held at Pullen Church on September 14 with 175 attending. Rev. John Pollack was guest speaker.

The records show that there are 78 WMS organizations in the Raleigh Association with a membership of 4,399. These organizations foster the following youth organizations: 13 Sunbeam Nursery organizations with 128 enrolled, 121 Sunbeam Bands with 1,909 members, 129 Girl's Auxiliaries with 1,380 enrolled, and 25 Young Woman's Auxiliaries with 231 members. Bethlehem (C) and Macedonia organized new Woman's Missionary Unions this year and a new Woman's Missionary Society was organized at Oak Ridge Baptist Church. Tabernacle and Cary have two WMS organizations. There are yet 11 churches in the Raleigh Association with no WMU work.

There were 25 WMS organizations, 4 YWA's, 60 G.A.'s and 34 Sunbeam Bands earning recognition on the Aims for Advancement. The Raleigh Associational WMU is an honor association.

We realize it is impossible for our churches to tell the complete story in facts and figures. If anything of lasting value has been accomplished, it will be seen in the lives of individuals—our own and those to whom we minister.

Our emphasis for the new year is A Church Fulfilling Its Mission Through Worship. Worship is never complete until it sends us forth in service to others. In the new year of WMU let us covenant together in the words of the Psalmist to, "Sing unto the Lord, bless His Name; shew forth His salvation from day to day. Declare His glory among the Heathen, His wonders among all people."

Mrs. Earl D. Crumpler, Retiring President

19. Brotherhood President-elect for 1965 John Solano outlined briefly the new approach to Brotherhood enlistment and invited fuller participation in 1965 on the part of all the men in our association. Upon his motion the report was adopted.

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

A NEW CONCEPT—Out of much research and prayerful study has come a wider and more adequate concept of the nature and work of Brotherhood. This new concept may be stated as follows: "A Brotherhood is a fellowship of Baptist men, members of the church, organized to advance the cause of Christ through a program of missionary education and the promotion of missionary activities, designed to inform, motivate and involve men in the mission task of their church."

BROTHERHOOD AND MISSIONS—A study of the developing programs of the other church organizations reveals that the only organization in the church with a program of missionary education and missions promotion involving men (and boys) is the Brotherhood. This means, of course, that if a church is to accept the recommendations of our denominational leaders to provide men and boys with missionary education opportunities and missionary service opportunities, such opportunities will be offered through the Brotherhood.

BROTHERHOOD'S NEW OBJECTIVES—The new concept of Brotherhood points to the following great objectives for Brotherhood: To lead men to—

1. A deeper commitment to missions
2. A more meaningful prayer life for missions
3. A larger stewardship on behalf of missions
4. A personal involvement in missions

ADAPTATION OF STRUCTURE—No change in the present Brotherhood organizational structure will be necessary. However, there will be a development and a new alignment of the four major Brotherhood emphases, and the setting of each on a solid missionary base. World Missions, for instance, will emphasize missionary education and commitment to missions. Developed in the area of Personal Stewardship will be an added emphasis on the support of the missions. The area of Christian Witnessing will be tied on directly to Christian service through missionary activities and involvement; and work in Royal Ambassadors will be pointed towards missions advance.

HELPS ARE AVAILABLE—Every Brotherhood president should secure from the Baptist Book Store a copy of the CHURCH PROGRAM GUIDE-BOOK and study it thoroughly. In connection with this should be studied a very helpful booklet entitled "The Role of Baptist Men and Boys in Missionary Education and Missions Promotion," which booklet will be furnished free upon request to your Brotherhood Department. Still another help is the October-November-December issue of the "Brotherhood Journal", the quarterly publication of the Brotherhood Commission, and 1964-65 BROTHERHOOD HANDBOOK, the annual publication of the Brotherhood Commission. This particular issue sets out guidelines for both Brotherhood men, to assist them adequately to comprehend the new program and to get it underway in their church. The Journal and the Handbook are available from the Brotherhood Commission, 1548 Poplar Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee.

CAMP CARAWAY

Camp CaRAway, the state Royal Ambassador camp, completed its first full season with 998 boys plus staff registered for one of the ten weeks. Adequate facilities are available for sleeping and feeding 100 campers plus staff each week.

The final payment on the 1,050 acre campsite will be made in January, 1965. Plans are underway for additional facilities to be available for the 1965 season.

20. John Baxley, speaking in behalf of the music program in our churches, urged attendance and participation in the music clinics scheduled in our section of the State. Upon his motion the report was adopted as follows:

MUSIC AND WORSHIP

Worship is an art which must be cultivated. Worship seldom occurs accidentally. It is primary in the life of a church. Music and worship have always been closely associated. Music is not incidental and optional in the life a worshipping church. Music is more than an adjunct of the preaching services and a traditional part of the opening exercises of the several church organizations. Music is an integral part of the total life of the church. Worship reaches a high state of religious awareness in congregational participation of Christians singing hymns of praise and devotion. The preaching of the gospel appeals to the human will. The singing of the gospel, on the other hand, makes its primary appeal to human emotion. The singing of the gospel reaches into unsaved families and draws individuals and families to Christ. The singing of the gospel impresses spiritual truths upon Christians by bringing a new sense of beauty and religious awareness to these truths. The singing of hymns is an opportunity for total congregational participation in worship. Worthy church music is: (1) consonant with the teachings of the Bible and the ideals of the Christian religion, (2) composed in singable, inspiring, ennobling melody, (3) identified with words that measure up to the standards of true poetry, (4) played and sung for the glory of God and the transformation and enrichment of human life. The objectives of music in the church are the same as those of preaching, teaching, worship, evangelism, stewardship, and service. Music is not an "extra" but is an instrumentality of the Spirit of God in the service of the church for all the purposes of Jesus Christ.

In order for music to achieve significance in worship, several important facts must be kept in mind:

- (1) As with worship, music is an art. A church needs to have music leadership which is gifted and trained if possible.

- (2) Development of the musical resources of the church membership is a full-time job. Many of our churches are financially unable to secure the services of a full-time minister of music. All too often some inadequate temporary or substitute arrangement is made which is eventually accepted as satisfactory.

Here is one area where the associational music officers can give assistance in the coming year. We will make ourselves available for music schools, conferences, or whatever you feel your church needs. I would personally welcome the opportunity to work with your church in improving its music ministry. To help you develop your musical resources, a leadership clinic has been scheduled next week at Calvary Baptist Church. This is primarily for those in your church who are responsible for the music such as the music director, organist, pianist, and voluntary choir director. There will be classes for those who have had formal training, and for those who have had none but who desire to learn. The instructors for the clinic will be Robert Poole of Tabernacle Church, Miss Margaret Slate of Hayes Barton Church, and John Baxley of the Swift Creek Church. This is just one way your association strives to serve you.

In closing let me quote Austin Lovelace as he said: "Music as a gift of God reveals God as the creator, sustainer, and redeemer. Music as a response by man is a servant—a means of expressing our recognition of all that God has done for us. The message of music is service—and our duty is to serve the Lord with gladness and to come before His presence with a song."

21. The congregation joined in singing "Amazing Grace."

22. Special music was rendered by the Stony Hill choir.

23. The Scripture as recorded in Isaiah 6:1-8 was read by W. C. Adkinson, after which Bethlehem (R) Pastor Allen Laymon delivered an inspirational and challenging message on the subject, "Worship: The Encounter Which Brings Commitment." He stated that wonderful experience is encountered with God that brings commitment, and that if we bring men into an encounter with God they will be led to commitment. Pastor Laymon impressively cited situations in which "encounter with God" caused things to happen which invariably led to an act of commitment. Using a portion of his text from Isaiah "I saw the Lord," Laymon stated that vision of God is vision of service and that the essence of religious faith is to recognize God.

24. The congregation joined in singing "Where He Leads Me I Will Follow."

25. Robert N. Simms, member of the Annuity Board, urged church participation in behalf of ministers and church employees and also that ministers look into the details of the sheltered tax plan which is related to annuity payments. Upon his motion the Annuity Report was adopted.

ANNUITY BOARD REPORT

Your Annuity Board provides financial assistance for ministers in terms of retirement plans, a new life insurance program, and a means of investing some money so that there will be funds available for special need in retirement.

The Southern Baptist Protection Plan of the Board is its basic plan. This is intended to build up a reserve of money so that a retired minister will have regular income each month. The plan also provides protection for widows in case of the death of a minister before retirement age. There are disability benefits in case a person becomes ill early in life and cannot continue to do his regular work. This is a very carefully worked out plan for giving maximum protection to our ministers at a minimum of cost. It is recommended that the church pay for this benefit for its minister as a part of the concern of the people to give him protection so that he can do his best work.

Recently a plan has been projected, effective October 1, of this year, which provides generous life insurance coverage for ministers, especially during their younger years. This is a low cost life insurance which gives larger protection during the younger years of a person's ministry while the family is growing and he needs more protection in case of death, so that his family would be cared for. Maximum benefits are in effect until one reaches the age of forty-five. Very gradually then the benefits go down until one retires and then he has a small paid-up life insurance policy. This plan is intended for ministers themselves and is available also to church and denominational employees. More than five thousand Southern Baptist ministers have already started their participation in this life benefit plan and it is anticipated that a majority of our ministers will soon be enrolled. We urge every pastor and church worker and denominational employee to investigate this by getting in touch with your associational missionary or the Reverend Guy Cain at Baptist State Convention Headquarters in Raleigh. We believe this to be one of the finest life insurance programs ever offered to our church workers in any way.

The third plan offered by the Annuity Board is one whereby ministers and other church workers may send money regularly or in a lump sum for the Annuity Board to invest in common stocks. This investment grows with the economy and is designed to build up reserve money that will be helpful in case of emergency or that will add to one's income during his retirement years. It is a very effective plan and is being shared rather generously now by pastors and other church workers throughout the convention territory.

The Annuity Board is concerned about helping church workers and denominational employees in every way possible. The pastors and other workers in the churches are invited to make inquiry and take advantage of any of these plans that are available. Please remember that your state representative for the Annuity Board is the Reverend Guy Cain, Baptist State Convention, 301 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh.

Garland A. Hendricks

Representative, Annuity Board

26. Moderator Holt reviewed briefly the actions taken by the Executive Council during the past year. The minutes which follow were approved.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association met at the Longview Baptist Church on April 13, 1964. L. D. Holt, President of the Council, called on Fred Scott, pastor of Longview, for the welcome and prayer. No minutes were read, since the January meeting was not held due to snow.

The following new members of the council were recognized: Jerry Privette, pastor of Hephizibah, Mr. A. L. Barnette, layman of Longview; Mr. Ralph Poe, layman of Apex.

A report of the Ordination Committee was presented by Frank Campbell in the absence of the Chairman, Jack Bullard. The members of the council showed much interest in this informational report. The limitations placed upon the committee by the by-laws of the association were noted. The committee seeks always to make the ordination examination meaningful and helpful to all the churches. Further studies will be made of this service to the churches.

Presented to the council was a brief statement of actions taken by the Executive Committee relative to the employment of Mrs. John Ogle, office secretary, to replace Mrs. Barbara Barham, and the proposed paving of the street adjoining the association's property in the Crabtree Creek area.

W. T. Mills, chairman of the Missions Committee, brought further information concerning the paving of the street in the Crabtree Creek area, and the exchange of some land in the area being paved. The council authorized the Missions Committee to settle the matter of payment for the paving and to receive for the association the additional footage at one side of the property.

In the absence of the treasurer, Mr. L. G. Bullard, the report was given by Ronda Robbins, chairman of the Finance Committee. The report was adopted. The council voted to continue assistance of $100.00 per month to Ridgecrest and Greenwood Forest through December of 1964.

Following the benediction by Linwood Brown the meeting was adjourned.

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association met at the Pilot Baptist Church on July 13, 1964. The President of the Council, L. D. Holt, called on Wesley Enzor, pastor of Pilot Baptist Church, for the welcome and prayer.

Ed Sessom read the minutes of the Executive Council meeting for April, and they were approved as read. Mr. Sessom was requested to take the minutes for this session of the Council. Mr. Leon Spencer, Secretary of the Council, was absent due to the meeting of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention.

The report of the Treasurer was given by Ronda Robbins, chairman of the Finance Committee. The report was discussed and adopted by members of the Council. Mr. Robbins presented the proposed budget for the new associational year, 1964-65. Dr. James F. Heaton made remarks concerning tax shelters within the plans of the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. He suggested that the Finance Committee use these plans if there is a desire on the part of the employees of the association. Then the amended proposal of the budget was adopted by the Council.

In the absence of Allen Laymon, chairman of the Calendar Committee, the proposed calendar of activities for 1964-65 was presented by Robert L. Costner. He moved its adoption and after discussion the calendar was approved, with the understanding that some necessary adjustments will be made.

John Lambert, chairman of the Nominating Committee, brought nominations for associational officers for 1964-65. These were as follows: Marion Lark, Moderator; Carl Holleman, Vice-Moderator; Leon P. Spencer, Clerk; L. G. Bullard, Treasurer. The report was adopted and these names will be presented to the annual session in October.

Our Associational Missionary, Mr. Costner, gave words of appreciation to the pastors and members of the association for their splendid support in the past months. He also expressed appreciation from Mr. Bullard for the financial support of the churches in the work of the association.

Leo Stanis, pastor of the North Street Baptist Church, expressed interest in establishing a mission on Highway 1, north of Raleigh in the Brentwood area and asked for possible financial and moral support in this effort. Mr. L. D. Holt suggested that the matter be considered by the Missions Committee and that their recommendations of possible action be brought to the Executive Council meeting in October.

The following new members of the Council were recognized and welcomed: John Solano, pastor of Mount Zion, and Clyde Bennett, layman of the same church, and T. L. Cashwell, pastor of Hayes Barton.

J. D. Bowen, pastor of Turner Memorial, gave the prayer of benediction and the meeting was adjourned.

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association met at the Emmanuel Baptist Church on October 12, 1964. Mr. L. D. Holt, pastor, extended greetings and asked Dr. Cannady to lead in prayer.

The Minutes were read by Ed Sessom and approved as read.

Mr. Jack Bullard, chairman of Committee on Ordination presented a statement of policy and procedure to be used by the committee in examining a candidate for ordination to the Baptist ministry; recommending that this be accepted and approved for the association and request the churches of the association to co-operate with the committee. The statement of policy and procedure, after discussion and clarification, was approved for recommendation to the association in annual session.

The Missions Committee report was given by Dr. Cannady. It was reported, upon the authorization of the Association, the committee has completed the purchase of a lot consisting of approximately three acres located on Birchwood Drive and Lead Mine Road in an area just west of Raleigh. It was also reported that the committee had been contacted concerning the establishment of a mission in the area on Highway 401 south between the Fellowship and Pleasant Grove churches. The aid of the pastors of the above churches was solicited for surveying and advice concerning this new development area. The committee reported that investigation of the request of North Street Baptist Church concerning the possibility of establishing a mission in the Brentwood, Starmount, and Skycrest areas revealed that this possibility is included in the long range plans of New Hope and Hillcrest Baptist Churches. While commending the people of North Street Church for their consideration and suggesting they consider some other area, it was felt by the committee that it would not be considerate of the other local churches in this area to pre-empt plans already in process by these two.

The report of the Membership Committee was given by Mr. R. L. Costner in the absence of Mr. Harold West, Chairman. The report revealed that no applications for membership in the association had been received during the associational year. The committee recommends that Gilbert Street Baptist Church, Greenwood Forest Baptist Church, Ridgecrest Baptist Church, and Macedonia Baptist Church (formerly Midway Baptist Church) come into full fellowship of the Raleigh Baptist Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the constitution. The recommendation was accepted. Upon their request, it was recommended that the Harris Chapel Baptist Church be recommended for fellowship in the Tar River Baptist Association. The recommendation approved with instructions that our clerk, Mr. Leon Spencer, mail a letter of recommendation prior to the annual meeting of the association.

The financial report was given by Mr. L. G. Bullard, who expressed appreciation to the associational office for their splendid assistance in preparation of the report. He gave a supplementary report and added information concerning the purchase and payment of lot for expansion work in the area just west of Raleigh off Lead Mine Road. The report was accepted with appreciation to Mr. Bullard for the orderly manner in which he presented this report.

Mr. L. D. Holt, Moderator, asked for approval for a forthcoming request to the State Mission Board to help in the amount of $400.00 per year the Macedonia and Ridgecrest Baptist Churches. This approval was granted.

Mr. R. L. Costner, Associational Missionary, gave highlights of the forthcoming annual association meeting.

Mr. Jack Bullard questioned, for information, the manner of presentation of the controversial issues to come before the State Baptist Convention, to our association. It was pointed out that our State Baptist Convention is an autonomous body, therefore our Association has no ethical right to accept, act upon, and make recommendations to it concerning any items pertaining to their business.

Mr. Marion Terry, pastor of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, gave the prayer of benediction, and the meeting was adjourned.

Leon Spencer, Clerk

27. Treasurer L. G. Bullard brought his usual complete and detailed report of the financial transactions of the association during the year ended September 30. He also made a supplementary report of receipts from churches that reached him after September 30. His report as shown below was adopted.

28. Clerk Leon Spencer presented a digest of church letters as shown in the Book of Advance Reports. He called attention to the numerical growth in total membership, Sunday School enrolment, and in baptisms over the previous year. He made some comparisons over a five year period as shown in the report which indicated progress in most areas of work. Per Capita mission gifts dropped from $11.27 in 1963 to $11.01 in 1964. Individual churches leading in per capita gifts to missions were: Raleigh, First $31.31; Hayes Barton, $29.99; Forest Hills, $23.79; Fuquay Springs, $20.91; Cary, First $20.62; Collins Grove, $19.75; Turner Memorial, $18.57; and Tabernacle, $17.99.

29. Ronda Robbins, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented a proposed budget for 1964-65 and made comparisons with the preceding year. After a brief question and answer period the budget was adopted.

30. Missions Committee Chairman W. T. Mills presented the report of his committee and moved its adoption. The report follows.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

Acting upon the authorization of our Raleigh Baptist Association in session last year your Missions Committee has completed the purchase of a lot consisting of approximately three acres located on Birchwood Drive and Lead Mine Road in the area just north of Raleigh and in easy access of the developments in that vicinity. This lot can become the location of a new church or can be sold if a more desirable location can be found, if the Association should so desire. The Birchwood Drive frontage has been paved and curb and gutters have been installed, also sewer and water access.

Your committee was contacted concerning the establishment of a mission in the area on Highway 401 south between the Fellowship and Pleasant Grove churches. We were advised that there are some two hundred and fifty acres now under development in this area, and that perhaps we would be wise to acquire a lot for the establishment of another church in this area while they are still available. In light of these facts your committee has asked the pastors of Fellowship Church, Brother Bob Coats, and Pleasant Grove Church, Brother Marion Terry, to survey this area and then advise your committee of speed of development, availability of desirable lots, and possibility of working with them as neighboring pastors in the establishment of a mission in this area.

A request was made of your committee by the North Street Church concerning the possibility of the establishment by them of a mission in the Brentwood, Starmount, and Skycrest areas Northeast of the city. Upon conferring with Brothers Frank Campbell of New Hope Church, and Marion Lark, of Hillcrest Church, the local churches in this area, your committee found that there were already long range plans for the establishment of a mission in this area by the New Hope Church, and that the Hillcrest Church being in this area would confer and work with New Hope in this effort when their surveys revealed the advisability of such an effort. In light of this your committee felt that it would not be considerate of the local churches in this area to pre-empt plans already in process by them. Your committee commended the people of North Street for this splendid spirit of concern for the advancement of the Lord's work in our Association and suggested that they consider other areas north and south of the city as possible locations for the establishing of a mission, conferring always with the local pastors as to co-operative effort and local plans.

William T. Mills

Chairman, Missions Committee

31. Allen Laymon presented the report of the Calendar Committee and moved its adoption. He urged all church leaders to observe the calendar and seek to avoid conflicts by scheduling events on dates other than those shown in the Book of Advance Reports. The calendar is found near the front of the annual.

32. Jack Bullard, in presenting the report of the Ordination Committee, commented on policy and procedure and moved that the report include a copy of the policy relating to ordination. The report follows.

THE REPORT OF THE ORDINATION COMMITTEE

At the first meeting of the Committee on Ordination members discussed at length how the committee might best serve the churches of the Raleigh Baptist Association. During the course of the year several new procedures were adopted in the examining of candidates for ordination. The committee examined and recommended the following candidates for ordination:

John J. Wilson examined January 30, 1964, at the request of the Wake Forest Baptist Church. Mr. Wilson was to be ordained by the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Thomas Lee Clark examined April 23, 1964, at the request of the New Hope Baptist Church. Mr. Clark was ordained by the New Hope Baptist Church.

George C. Waller examined June 18, 1964, at the request of the New Bethel (R) Baptist Church. Mr. Waller was to be ordained by the Forestville Baptist Church.

James T. Robertson examined July 9, 1964, at the request of the Wendell Baptist Church. Mr. Robertson was ordained by the Wendell Baptist Church.

George Pettigrew examined September 10, 1964, at the request of the Longview Baptist Church. Mr. Pettigrew was to be ordained by the Longview Baptist Church.

F. G. Alford examined September 10, 1964, at the request of the Union View Baptist Church. Mr. Alford was ordained at the Union View Baptist Church.

Robert F. Wudtke examined October 13, 1964, at the request of the Rolesville Baptist Church. Mr. Wudtke was to be ordained by the Rolesville Baptist Church.

The Committee presents the following statement of Policy and Procedure and recommends that the Association approve this statement and request the churches of the Association to cooperate with the committee in following the procedures outlined.

Statement of Policy and Procedures

The churches of the Raleigh Baptist Association have been asked to refer candidates for ordination to the Committee on Ordination for examination (see Article II, Section F of the By-Laws of the Raleigh Baptist Association). Ordination into the Baptist ministry concerns both the church which ordains and her sister churches because a candidate ordained by one church will presumably serve other churches and enjoy the public recognition afforded Baptist ministers. It is to be clearly understood, however, that the ordaining church is only seeking the advice and counsel of her sister churches through the Committee on Ordination and that the ordaining church retains sole authority in determining whether a candidate is to be ordained. The committee's function is to make a recommendation to the ordaining church. The other purpose of the committee, as the committee views its own work, is to offer brotherly counsel to those who are just beginning their ministry.

The committee makes the following observations for consideration by the churches:

(1) The By-Laws specifically limit the function of the Committee to examination of candidates called to a specific work. The committee cannot examine any who have not received such a call.

(2) If the recommendation made by the committee is to be thoughtfully and prayerfully considered by the church, the date of the ordination service should not be announced until the church receives the recommendation of the committee. In any case, the committee will not allow its recommendation to be influenced by any such action by the church.

(3) The committee does not have the opportunity to investigate the character and reputation of candidates. It will assume that a church in referring a candidate for examination will assume the responsibility for determining that the candidate leads a life worthy of the ministry.

The committee will conduct its examination of the candidate in the following manner. The candidate will furnish a written statement containing (1) biographical information and (2) a personal statement of doctrinal views.

The biographical statement will cover the following matters: conversion, call to the ministry and why the candidate seeks ordination to the Baptist ministry (as opposed to that of another denomination). It shall also include information as to previous positions held in Baptist churches and secular employment, education (high school, college, Seminary or graduate training) and plans for further educational training. A brief biographical sketch of wife should be included if candidate is married.

The doctrinal statement should not be merely a quoting of stereotyped propositions. The committee wishes to know how the particular candidate views the basic Christian doctrines at this stage of his intellectual and spiritual development. This statement should cover the following topics:

1. The Bible and Revelation
2. Sin and the Nature of Man
3. The Person and work of Jesus Christ (including incarnation, atonement, resurrection and the meaning of salvation)
4. The Holy Spirit
5. The Nature of God
6. The Nature and Purpose of the Church (including its ordinances)
7. The Christian Life (including its personal and social responsibilities)
8. Eschatology and the Christian Hope

Although these topics are suggested, the organization and length should be determined by the structure of the candidate's own particular outlook and need not follow the organization indicated above. A good summary of the statement might be a personal confession of faith.

Both statements, biographical and doctrinal, should be forwarded to the Associational Office, 301 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh, N. C., two weeks before the date of the examination, for duplication and distribution to the committee for study prior to the meeting with the candidate. The examination will cover only those matters that need further clarification.

The committee hopes to spend the major portion of the examination period in a discussion of the candidate's understanding of the pastoral office.

Jack Bullard, Chairman
Ordination Committee

33. Memorials Chairman E. Paul West prefaced his report by commenting on the loss of many citizens of national prominence, including President Kennedy, and then presented the report of his committee. The congregation was asked to stand in memory of those who have passed away during the year and Harvey T. Whaley offered the memorial prayer. The report as presented was adopted and the names of "Our Beloved Dead" was authorized to be included in the Association Annual.

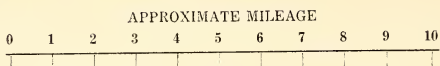

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

For the purpose of his glory, the finger of God has put together and fixed on course this terrestrial craft, or the little island which we call the earth: Upon it, he has ordained our coming-in and our going-out; in the midst of it, he has established his vineyard; and to care for it, he has charged us—the heirs of his kingdom—to occupy for a season.

And while recruits continue to join our ranks here below, there are those among our co-laborers—loved ones and friends—with whom we have laughed and wept, as well as laboured and hoped, to whom the Master of the vineyard has called: "It is enough. Come home."

We therefore in respectful tribute, and loving memory, turn aside from the regular proceedings of this annual meeting to memorialize these, our deceased, who have, since last we met, departed from our midst, and whose names will follow in the annual.

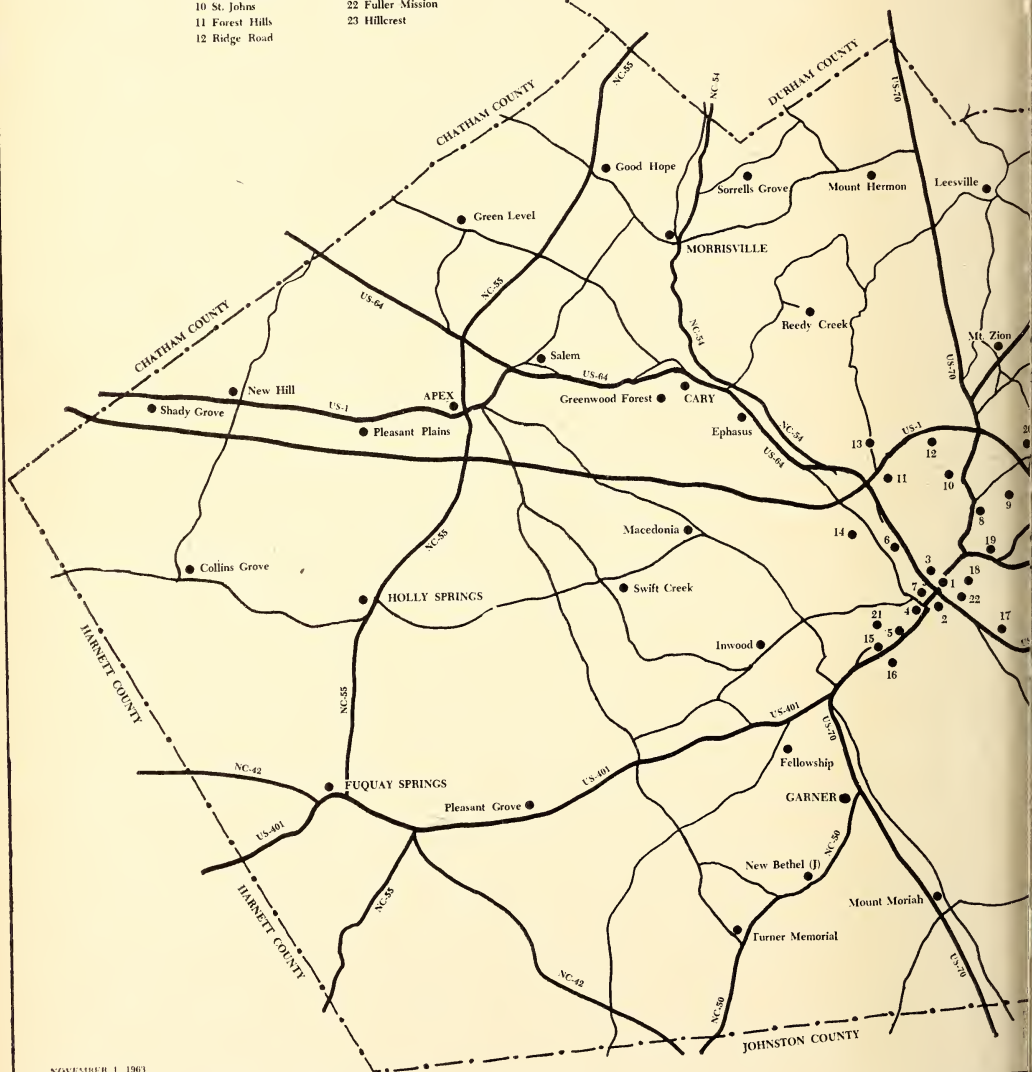

In so honoring these, our beloved, who have so lately preceeded us to 34. Membership Committee Chairman Harold L. West presented the recommendation of his committee, which was, upon his motion adopted. The report follows.

REPORT OF THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

One church came under the Watchcare of the Raleigh Association two years ago, and two churches were recommended last year to come under the watchcare of this Association. Because of the progress, attitude and cooperation of these churches during this period, it is with great joy the Committee makes the following recommendations:

(1) That the Gilbert Street Baptist Church come into the full fellowship of the Raleigh Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

(2) That the Greenwood Forest Baptist Church come into the full fellowship of the Raleigh Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

(3) That the Ridgecrest Baptist Church come into the full fellowship of the Raleigh Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

(4) That the Macedonia Baptist Church (formerly Midway Baptist Church) come into the full fellowship of the Raleigh Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

(5) That the Community Baptist Church of Wake Forest, North Carolina, come under the watchcare of the Raleigh Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

The Membership Committee wishes to offer counsel or help in any way it can rightfully do to serve the churches of the Association.

Harold L. West, Chairman

35. Crate Jones, Chairman of the Committee on Evangelism, brought the report and commented briefly on the digest of church letters prepared by the clerk as it related to baptisms. Upon his motion the report was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

The special five-year effort (known as Baptist Jubilee Advance), in evangelism and missions on the part of the Baptists of North America came to a close at the joint meeting of the groups in Atlantic City, New Jersey, in May 1964. What was done is now history and we cannot go back to improve or to change the record.

The inevitable question arises, where do we go from here? What shall we do in 1965?

We can and we must search our hearts before God to find His will for us and to experience His empowering as we endeavor to be obedient to His commands. This we need as individual Christians, as churches and as a denomination.

Most of us need to take a fresh look at evangelism as it is practiced in our personal lives and in our local church. To do this on the right basis we must first make an earnest effort to see what evangelism is as it is revealed in the New Testament. A good definition of the New Testament picture of evangelism is found in the new Southern Baptist Handbook on Evangelism which is as follows: "Evangelism is the outreach of the church by confrontation with the gospel of Christ to bring people to a personal faith and commitment to Christ as Saviour and Lord, in order that the committed may become a part of the outreach."

This wonderful experience of Christ confronting the lost through His people will not become a reality in a life or a church merely by accepting and adopting a creed, a statement of doctrine, a set of rules for conduct. There must be the experience of being in Christ and a perennial vigilance in seeking to be used of Christ in His purpose of redemption. In the light of these and other pressing truths we should ever keep before us these objectives:

1. To keep all programming and activities aimed at creating a spiritual atmosphere for evangelism in every church.
2. To keep alive a perennial awareness of the urgency of personal witnessing on the part of every Christian.
3. To refine and intensify our revival efforts.
4. To seek to keep the message positive, practical, scriptural and spiritual with unceasing prayer and diligence.
5. To spare nothing in seeing to it that the new and old church members become a part of the outreach.

For practical help in moving toward these objectives consult the Evangelism Plan Book for 1965, which the Division of Evangelism of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina will mail to all pastors this fall and the Associational Evangelism Workbook which will be released by the Convention Press in October 1964.

We do not plan to have simultaneous revivals in the association for 1965. However, every church is urged to continue doing separately what we have tried to do together. We need to plan ahead for one or more revivals during the coming year, making use of what we have learned in our joint efforts. We shall have our Annual Associational Clinic on Evangelism January 25, 1965. With your help this can be the most helpful meeting yet.

My personal thanks to the churches and pastors who have helped promote Evangelism in the association. This is our never ending task.

Crate Jones, Chairman

36. Student Representative Jack Painter presented the report on Student Work and moved its adoption. Speaking to the report was Carroll Parker, President of the Baptist Student Union at N. C. State and one of the young people who participated in the Korean project during the summer of 1964. His talk was informative, interesting and helpful in portraying the dedication of our young people on the campuses. The report as adopted follows.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION REPORT

The Department of Student Work strives to assist each student to be a mature Christian who is committed to God in faith, who nurtures his faith and life in the local church, and who seeks to make known the Christian life in all his attitudes and actions.

The local college or university campus ministry of the Baptist Student Unions includes a comprehensive balanced schedule of worship and witness, mission concern and services, recreation and fellowship, a study of the Bible, Christian history, theology, and ethics.

Ministries beyond the local campus includes:

LISTEN (L-ove I-mpels S-acrifice T-oward E-very N-eed) is the missions program through which the students send students to do mission work, send technical aid and medical supplies. It is a continuous program of mission concern.

This past summer from June 13 to August 20, the Foreign Mission Board and the Department of Student Work of North Carolina jointly sponsored a Korean-American Student Work Project in international living and cultural exchange where eight North Carolina college students joined sixteen Korean students and lived and worked together. By working together they erected a school building about 25 by 42 feet out of concrete blocks. The school, located in a village of about 700 people, will be used for children who do not have tuition or do not have funds to go to school five miles away. YOUTH-LED EVANGELISM is a summer program through which students work in churches and mission Vacation Bible Schools.

BAPTIST STUDENT CENTERS provide a significant means for involving students in Christian growth. Located next to a campus, they serve as a facility for a week-day program of worship, study of the Christian faith, outreach, and fellowship.

Buildings designed and constructed as Baptist Student Centers are located at Duke and UNC at Greensboro. Centers under construction and expected to be occupied this fall at Appalachian, North Carolina State, and Western Carolina. Dwelling houses are still used at East Carolina and UNC at Chapel Hill.

The Department of Student Work ministers to more than 26,000 Baptist students in North Carolina.

Jack Painter, Representative
Baptist Student Union

37. The Program Services report as presented in the Book of Advance Reports was adopted. The report follows.

PROGRAM SERVICES REPORT

The Department of Program Services promotes the total Baptist program through the associations and local churches. It is a department that is primarily public relations; and it is incorporated in the Division of Stewardship Promotion.

The work of the Department of Program Services may be divided as follows:

I. AUDIO VISUAL AIDS

A. Film Library

During the past year the department has booked more than 10,000 film titles. We are encouraged that more churches are making use of our film library facilities. It is interesting to note that the bookings are greater during the weeks of special emphasis; however, the general trend is that the churches are making constant use of these materials in their regular programs. The library has more than 2,200 35mm. filmstrips and more than 100 16mm. sound motion pictures available on a free rental basis for church use. These film titles cover every area of denominational endeavor. A catalogue listing all titles with descriptions is available free upon request.

B. Film Production

The department continues to produce both 35mm. and 16mm. films in support of the total Baptist program for the departments of the General Board. During the year a 35mm. filmstrip, THE MINISTRY OF THE BAPTIST STUDENT UNION, was produced in behalf of the Student Department.

C. Audio Visual Demonstration Conferences and Clinics

Each year the department, at the request of various associations, plans "one-night stand" demonstration conferences. These conferences are well attended by pastors and lay-leaders in each association. We have also assisted the various departments in the preparation of non-projected and projected visual aids for special programs. Counseling with churches regarding audio-visual equipment, program planning, and sight and sound installations has become one of the major services of the department. These services include: visual installations, projection equipment, background projection, enforced sound, closed circuit TV, broadcast equipment, chime systems, non-projected aids, recording facilities, lighting effects, radio loops, and screen installation. More than 100 churches were added in this manner during the past year.

D. Audio Aids

The past year has seen a tremendous upsurge in the use of audio tape recordings. More and more churches are using their recorders to take the services of the church to the handicapped in the community. They are also making use of a greater number of tapes produced by the department to enrich regularly scheduled services. We have produced for the churches in the Convention during the past year more than 300 tape recordings which is a 100% gain over the past year.

II. GRAPHIC ARTS

Another service rendered by the department is in the field of graphic arts. This service includes design and production of printed materials, posters, folders, diagrams, streamers, thematic settings, and many other types produced in support of the Baptist program. More than 150 individual productions have been designed during the year. A typical example of the work in this area was the production of the Baptist Manual which is free upon request to all churches. The department also has the responsibility of aiding the departments in the presentation of the exhibits presented at each annual Convention. Black and white still pictures numbering over 500 have been produced by the departments for Convention use. The department also produces the major portion of the pictures and materials each year for the State Missions issue of the Biblical Recorder.

III. NEWS SERVICE

The Department of Program Services has the responsibility of news coverage of Baptist work in North Carolina to more than 350 newspapers, radio, and television stations in North Carolina. More than 75 special articles have been written and used extensively by all news outlets of our state. May we here express our appreciation to every news channel for their splendid cooperation in providing both time and space for Baptist news.

IV. TELEVISION AND RADIO

The department continues to produce the Baptist network series of television programs, titled, A LIGHT UNTO MY PATH. This program is a mission work of the Convention designed to reach the minority groups in North Carolina. It features a special ministry to the deaf with Jerry Potter and Neal Peyton presenting the gospel in sound and sign language. It also includes the reading of the Bible and weekly Bible lesson by either Doctors James F. Heaton or Claud B. Bowen. This program is presented at the present time over a statewide network of 6 stations. These stations are: WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WECT-TV, Wilmington; WLOS-TV, Asheville; WFMY-TV, Greensboro; WBTV, Charlotte; and WNCT-TV, Greenville. This series of programs is also carried by 10 other stations outside of North Carolina, and in most cases the series is sponsored by a Baptist group or Convention. At present, the series is viewed in at least 10 states in the East. We are most grateful for the splendid cooperation on the part of the administration and staff of these stations in joining us in a completely new and much needed ministry to minority groups. The department also plans and presents a weekly 30 minutes news telecast on WRAL-TV, Channel 5, Raleigh, North Carolina. The department works very closely with the radio industry of the state. During the past year the department set up a network of 21 stations for presentation of the Choir Festival from Wake Forest College sponsored by the Church Music Department. At present the department is producing a new series of taped Bible teaching programs with target date for airing in the spring of 1965. These programs will be presented on a network basis.

V. OTHER AREAS

The department also shares in Schools of Missions. We are most grateful for the splendid work of the department's 3 approved workers in audio-visual aids who serve in these associations, Rev. W. L. Pearson, Rev. A. J. Stuart, and Rev. Richard Whitley. The secretary of the department is also called upon for mission messages regularly in the churches of the Convention. Other services are so many and varied that it would be impossible to list all areas in which we are serving. It is our earnest desire to continue these services in every possible way. Please continue to pray for these ministries.

Respectfully submitted,

Jimmy Morriss
Secretary of the Department of Program Services

38. Host Pastor Hester was recognized and he announced the arrangements for serving lunch at the community building located adjacent to the church grounds.

39. The session adjourned with prayer.

Friday Afternoon, October 30, 1964

40. The congregation joined in singing "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" to open the final session of the 1964 meeting of the Association.

41. Ollis Revel, Pastor of the Bay Leaf Church, used a passage of Scripture as found in Psalm 96:1-9 in conducting the devotional period.

42. L. E. Forrest, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, presented the recommendation of his committee, which was, upon his motion adopted. The report appears near the front of the annual.

43. John Lambert, Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, brought the recommendation of his committee. After permitting an opportunity for nominations from the floor, the report of the committee which follows was adopted.

44. In the absence of Joe F. Roach, Chairman of the Committee on Time, Place and Preacher, Jerry Privette, Pastor of Hephzibah Church, presented the report. Upon his motion it was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON TIME, PLACE AND PREACHER

The 1965 session of the Raleigh Baptist Association will be held with the New Hope Baptist Church Thursday evening after the 4th Sunday in October.

The second day of the Association will meet in the morning and afternoon, Friday, with the Salem Baptist Church. Host churches are Good Hope, Green Level, Apex and New Hill.

We recommend W. T. Mills of the Temple Church to preach the annual sermon in 1965 and B. S. Turner of the Samaria Church as alternate.

We recommend that the 1966 session of the Raleigh Association meet with the St. John's Church on Thursday evening after the fourth Sunday in October.

We recommend further that the morning and afternoon sessions meet the following Friday with the Wake Cross Roads Baptist Church. Host churches are Rolesville, Bethlehem (C), Harris Chapel, and Oak Grove.

Joe F. Roach, Chairman

45. Resolutions Chairman Alphonso Jordan briefly commented on his report expressing appreciation to individuals and groups who had contributed to the program of the Association during the past year and requested the clerk to read the report. Upon the Chairman's motion the resolutions were adopted as follows:

THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

1. We resolve that the Raleigh Baptist Association does express its sincere thanks to L. D. Holt for the splendid way he has presided over this 159th Annual Session.

2. We resolve to express our thanks to all of those who have taken part in this splendid program, all speakers, musicians, and to those who have given reports from the various departments of our Association.

3. We resolve to express our appreciation to the host churches, Emmanuel, Stony Hill, Bay Leaf, Mary's Chapel, Ridgecrest, Wakeminster, Wake Union, and Woodland, for this Annual Session. Their hospitality and cordiality have been clearly demonstrated and appreciated.

4. We resolve to express our gratitude to our Associational Clerk, Leon Spencer, and to our Associational Treasurer, L. G. Bullard, for their faithfulness and efficiency. Their tasks require much effort, time, and ability. For their devotion and service we are thankful.

5. We resolve to give a higher degree of loyal support and service to our Association and to the Kingdom work of our Baptist State Convention.

Alphonso Jordan, Chairman

46. The clerk announced that 426 messengers and 117 visitors had registered during all sessions of the meeting. This represented an increase of 51 messengers over the 1963 meeting, which was the high for recent years.

47. Roger Branch, Associate Editor of the Biblical Recorder, was recognized and he invited consideration of all churches to join in the "Family Plan" subscription to the BIBLICAL RECORDER. He commented briefly on the efforts of the RECORDER staff to supply its readers weekly with news of interest that relate to Baptist work within the State and throughout the world.

REPORT ON THE BIBLICAL RECORDER

In the modern world nothing stays around very long that doesn't have some definite purpose and mission. The BIBLICAL RECORDER, now 131 years old, grows in strength and stature because its course is fixed upon the primary purpose of service to the Baptists of North Carolina.

Never has there been a day when the Christian witness was more needed in dealing with the problems of the world. The church at work in the world needs all the information and insight it can get. Our democratic form of church government is founded upon the belief that people will do the right thing when properly informed. To help Baptists fill these needs, the RECORDER seeks to do the following:

- (1) TO INFORM. Baptists cannot properly do until they properly know.

With special attention to the interests and needs of Baptists in this state, the RECORDER staff gathers, sifts and publishes significant news from as many sources as possible. It keeps abreast of the important activities of the State Convention and its agencies and institutions. As much as possible, news from the wider circles of the Southern Baptist Convention and the entire Christian world is presented.

(2) TO INTERPRET. Increasingly it is becoming necessary for responsible publications to help readers understand the meaning of events. The reasons are many. Daily the world becomes more complex and events and personalities become more entangled. Most people face such a flood of information and propaganda from every direction that it is hard to sort out the important things, set them in proper context and understand them. With the resources of full information, close contact with denominational leaders, pastors and others, plus many years of experience, the RECORDER seeks to say something about the meaning of events as well as reporting them.

(3) TO INFLUENCE. Like the individual Christian, a Baptist paper has a responsibility to let its light shine in the world. A long record of service, integrity and courage has earned respect for the voice of the RECORDER both within and without the denomination. Proper use of that voice, lighted by the New Testament and conscience, is both a service and a sacred trust. Take the lead in seeing that every family in your church receives the RECORDER.

C. W. Bazemore, Associate, Circulation and Promotion

48. Gordon Maddrey, Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation, outlined briefly the history and purpose of the Foundation and invited everyone to use its services for any Baptist cause in which one is interested.

49. Speaking in behalf of Christian Higher Education, S. L. Blanton of Meredith College, urged support of the Trustee Proposal to be presented at the State Convention in November. Following his remarks the report on Christian Education was adopted.

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

Enrollment

(fall semester, 1962)

Campbell College	1,836
Chowan College	967
Gardner-Webb College	754
Mars Hill College	1,335
Meredith College	900
Wake Forest College	2,958
Wingate College	1,117
Total	9,867

(Total enrollment, including second semester and summer school is more than 11,000)

During the past 25 years North Carolina Baptist colleges have enjoyed a phenomenal growth. Today in these seven Baptist colleges we have enrolled more than 11,000 students. The total property value of the colleges exceeds $60,000,000. These colleges have graduated almost 50,000 students. Of special interest to our church people is the fact that enrolled in these seven colleges are 426 young men and women studying to be pastors, missionaries, directors of religious education, and leaders in church music.

The Cooperative Program Is a Lifeline for the Baptist Colleges

The Cooperative Program is a lifeline because of these reasons: accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. This agency requires a guaranteed annual endowment or income. Without this accreditation, students could not enter the ministry or practice a single profession. The Cooperative Program income represents an endowment of $33,000,000, without which not a single North Carolina Baptist college at the present could meet standards for accreditation. North Carolina Baptists rank well with all denominations in supporting Christian higher education out of the total amount which they have to give.

A covenant relationship—the ties which bind these seven colleges to the Convention are not now nor have they ever been primarily financial. The true ties which bind us together are to be found in the Bible, in our history, and what we believe as Baptists is our mission in the world. Ours is a covenant relationship.

Baptists from the beginning have believed that the task of learning is appointed by God and that all knowledge and wisdom has its unity in Christ; and since we do believe that Jesus Christ is Lord of Life, we believe that Baptist churches through their colleges, as members of the covenant community, have an obligation to every area of life and culture. Thus, our fellowship comes through a covenant relationship and a sense of working together to achieve a common goal.

Christian Education Day Emphasis, 1965

The Council on Christian Education is deeply grateful for the support of the Brotherhood in promoting the 1964 Christian Education Day emphasis, with special emphasis on the church related-vocational workers. We are also grateful for the splendid response in the offering. The Christian vocational worker will be a continuing emphasis of the Council. In addition to continuing this emphasis each year on the Christian vocational worker, the theme for Christian Education Day next year will be built around "The Contribution of North Carolina Baptist Colleges to Lay Leadership."

A fine Christian doctor said recently, "I enrolled as a freshman in a North Carolina Baptist college at the age of 16. This college had more to do with the shaping of my life and Christian commitment than any other experience outside of my own family. I have said many times that I do not believe that my experience with Christian teachers could have been duplicated anywhere else; and as I look back over those years, I know that my personal interest and activity in the First Baptist Church in Kinston has been greatly strengthened and motivated by my experience on the campus of a Christian college."

Council Self-Study

The Council on Christian Education is now engaged in a serious self-study, which includes the theological basis for Christian education; the objectives of a Christian college; the responsibility of a Christian teacher; and the place of worship in the life of the campus. Of special interest to our Associations will be the portion of the study dealing with the ministerial student and the Christian vocational worker. This study will deal with the problem of enlisting more young people in full-time Christian service, studying ways and means of more financial help; and this study will also be concerned with how the churches and the colleges can work more closely together to meet these needs.

Help for Pastor and Church Leaders

The Council has produced this year a pamphlet directed toward the young people in the local church who wish to attend a Baptist college. This pamphlet will show parents how to figure the actual college cost, what financial help is available, and also how to get information about these Baptist colleges and about admission procedures. Copies may be obtained by writing the Council Office, 301 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh, N. C.

The colleges would like to take this opportunity to express through the Association to our Baptist churches a genuine appreciation for the support which is making possible the continued operation of these colleges.

50. I. G. Greer, former General Superintendent of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, was recognized and he brought an interesting and informative review of the Child Care program being conducted by the Children's Homes. He invited continued support for this worthwhile endeavor through increased Thanksgiving offerings and the Cooperative Program. The following report was adopted.

THE CHILDREN'S HOMES REPORT

Helping children and young people to grow and develop toward Christian maturity is one of the greatest privileges in life. It is the purpose of the Children's Homes to develop the highest quality of men and women possible out of boys and girls who are served. Careful attention is given to their needs, both present and future.

Children are accepted as they are when they come to the Homes. In the spirit of Christ, they are recognized for their sacred worth and value. They are provided food, clothing and shelter. But of greater importance than material things is the genuine interest, concern and love given every child by the Christian men and women who work with them. Many children who have known only heartbreak and tragedy learn to love again—learn to trust in themselves, in adults and in God.

A member of this year's senior class expressed her appreciation for the Children's Homes in the following way "Living at one of the Homes has given me a chance to make something out of myself. I have been afforded the opportunity of getting a good education. Things have been learned and friendships have been formed which will bless my life as long as I live. Best of all I have learned to know, to trust, to follow and to serve Christ as my Saviour. I want North Carolina Baptists to know how very much I appreciate all that they have done for me and for thousands of other boys and girls who have needed a home, love and care."

Applications for the admission of children to the Homes far exceed resources with which to care for them. Areas of unmet need in child care await our attention. Many couples who have a double measure of love to share with homeless and dependent children have a wonderful opportunity of service awaiting them through the foster home program.

Genuine appreciation is expressed by those who direct our child care program for all who have helped to make this ministry possible. Income through the Cooperative Program, through the Thanksgiving Offering and through special gifts are vital to the services which are provided those who need our help. Financial support for the past year has come from the following sources:

Cooperative Program	-----36 Per Cent
Thanksgiving Offering	-----30 Per Cent
Once-a-Month Offerings	-----15 Per Cent
All other	-----19 Per Cent

Most North Carolina Baptists are well acquainted with Charity and Children, official publication of the Baptist Children's Homes. This unique newspaper is published each week and goes to more than 55,000 subscribers. Well over half the Baptist churches in the state receive it in bundles for distribution to the members on Sunday. See that your church receives Charity and Children so that every family may be better informed about the work of North Carolina Baptists, and particularly the program of child care. The subscription price is sixty cents per year in bundle form.

Mrs. Jack F. Moore
Representative

51. Jack Bullard, Homes for Aging representative, was recognized and he presented Coite Jones, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, inasmuch as General Superintendent W. A. Poole could not attend the meeting. Chairman Jones reviewed briefly the expansion program of the Homes and explained the difficulty which the administration experiences in not being able to care for all those who desire to be admitted. He emphasized the need for additional accommodations and urged continued support for this area of our work.

HOMES FOR AGING REPORT

Our Baptist Homes have just completed their 13th year of operation and are entering into the 14th year with eager anticipation and with much enthusiasm. God has blessed these brief years with an abundance of His love and with the good things of life. Growth has been rapid, the development of facilities amazing, and the need for additional space staggering. We have come from one resident and one building, since March of 1951, to 160 residents and four buildings in 1964. Today there are 170 people waiting for admission. There are hundreds of inquiries during any given year from aging persons who are sick, for whom we cannot care because of lack of bed patient space. We must give an answer to these good people and begin now making plans for a nursing facility that will be large enough to receive some of these who are sick, or invalids, at admission.

The choicest bit of news for 1964 is the development of a 5th Baptist Home, to be located at Yanceyville, North Carolina. We are hoping to begin construction of this new project during this year, and thus, the burden of our hearts will have been relieved, in a measure, by being able to care for 30 additional residents. The Home at Yanceyville is the greatest single bequest that has ever been left for us in our ministry. Enough land at Yanceyville and money were given to the Baptist Foundation of North Carolina for us, by the late R. Sterling Graves and his sister, Mrs. Sallie Willie Graves Bradsher, to build and equip the Home there. Even so, we will still need to look to our Baptist people for the maintenance of this Home and for assistance in supplementing needy residents who will live there through the years.

Today North Carolina Baptists are contributing an average of $90.00 a month on the cost of care of 90% of the residents who live in our four Baptist Homes at Resthaven and the Hayes Home in Winston-Salem, at the Albemarle Home and Hamilton Home. This support comes through the Special Day Offerings, received in the churches on the third Sunday of February each year, through designated gifts from church budgets, and through the Homes' share in the Cooperative Program. These needy residents could not possibly be with us, nor could they receive the loving care that they do, if it were not for the gifts from our 3400 Baptist churches. Earnest heed should be given by each church, therefore, towards increasing the amount of Special Day Offerings and designated gifts to the Homes. This should be emphasized especially in view of the fact that there was a 5% decline in gifts to the Homes during 1963. We will not have an accounting on gifts for 1964 until September, but we can only hope that there will be a considerable increase.

Life among the residents these days is most interesting and filled with a variety of experiences. The youngest resident celebrated her 66th birthday in January, and the oldest her 103rd birthday in July. Some are doing creative writing, others sewing, gardening, teaching, painting, and living a good life in general. All are praying for a world and its needs. All are expressing thanksgiving to God for the people called "Baptists," and for the happiness and security of the Homes that our Baptist people are helping to make possible for them.

There is nothing to prevent our receiving any needy aging person, 65 years old and above, who is reasonably well, mentally and physically, except lack of space. Let us join our hearts in prayer and our lives in dedication that we may give a good account of our stewardship in this great area of human concern and give an answer to as many of these dear people as possible.

Jack L. Bullard, Representative

52. Hospital Representative Edward Sessoms commented on the report of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital and then presented Lowell F. Sodeman, who stated that the Hospital touches more different persons in different areas of work than any other Baptist Institution in the State. He added that the need for additional support is great and that this is the hour to meet the challenge. Our Hospital is listed as the only complete Baptist Medical Center in the world. The speaker made special note that considerable emphasis is placed on spiritual as well as physical illness. The report as presented was adopted.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Our North Carolina Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem, North Carolina, administered to 92,816 service patients during 1963, which makes it an institution that we can be unquestionably proud of. The average cost of stay per patient was $279.00. The average cost of stay per patient 65 or over was $750.00. The average cost per patient per day was $29.58. These facts reveal to us the serious need of our support to this worthy cause.

The cost of service patient care for 1963 was $1,199,608.00. Our Mother's Day Offering amounted to $234,481.00 or approximately 20% of the cost. We should not permit this lag in order to best meet the need of our needy sick.

We are greatly appreciative of God's providence that in spite of our lag, we are still able to care for the sick.

Expression of appreciation is extended to our Raleigh Baptist Association for a slight increase in 1963 over 1962. The need is so serious that we urge you to continue to give this matter prayerful thought. It is hoped that we will shortly have 100% of our churches participating with our Mother's Day Offering averaging at least one dollar per resident member. At this writing there are 21 churches that have made no contribution during 1964. The church that feels that it can't afford to contribute can't afford not to contribute.

Will you accept this as a personal call to support our North Carolina Baptist Hospital?

Edward Sessom, Representative, Baptist Hospital

53. Social Service Committee Chairman James E. West presented the report of his committee and spoke briefly to the report after which it was adopted.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE REPORT

Philippians 2 exhorts the church (Christ's people) to unity and humility by the example of Christ.

Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. (Philippians 2:3-5)

In order to heed this exhortation Christians must possess Christ-like attitudes and practice Christ-like actions.

Your Social Service Committee respectfully and urgently brings to your attention the following:

Christ-like Attitudes

The mind and spirit of Christ in Christian believers are to be shared in the life of the Christian community. Christians should have the same disposition among themselves as they have in their communion with Christ Jesus.

This means being obedient unto God. Jesus was obedient in every way to His Father and He expects His followers to be obedient also. Remember Jesus' words, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." (Matthew 7:21).

Persons with a "Christ-like attitude" will "esteem others better than themselves." Having respect for the worth of the other person is the mind of Christ. This idea extends to that of capital punishment. Capital punishment is an expression of personal vengeance which is denied man by God himself. "Vengeance is mine: I will repay, saith the Lord." (Romans 12:19b).

"A "Christ-like attitude" will not be self-centered but God-centered. As a stack pole is erected in the hay field and the hay is placed around the pole, so God is to be the center of our lives, as we hover near Him. "Love so amazing, so divine, demands my life, my soul, my all."

Christ-like Actions

Christ-like actions should govern all our human behavior. Christians should always be aware that they are setting examples. We urge the membership of our churches to take seriously their church covenant with reference to the use of alcoholic beverages. We affirm our belief that total abstinence from both the sale and use of beverage alcohol is the only position we can take. We should lend our support to those in church and government who fight for this cause.

We would remind pastors and congregations that our Christian example is reflected in Pastor-Church relationships. Churches need to treat their pastor as a "person," not as a "hired hand." Pastors are likewise urged to "work with," not "work for" their congregations. The pastor's first responsibility is to God, and all pastors are urged to be honest and ethical in their dealings with people in their congregations.

We urge our people to help reach and maintain a higher standard of morality than that reflected in much of current literature, movies, and TV.

Race relations continue to hold the attention of the nation. Christians who boldly claim and proclaim Christ as "our peace" (Eph. 2:11-22) must seek the mind of the Prince of Peace in all matters which concern human relations. The motives and feelings of the individual Christian should be brought under the scrutiny of Christian principles. Christians should be guided in their attitudes and actions by the example of the Master and the truth of the gospel. In their witness to this truth Christians are called upon to remember that all men are created in the image of God and all must look to Christ as the one and only savior of all mankind. We continue to urge the practice of love, humility, and forgiveness by peoples of all races.

Your committee feels strongly that rightness in social relations and social services is founded in Christ, and all Christians are exhorted to "live in Him" and manifest His mind and spirit.

Respectfully submitted,

James E. West, Chairman
Social Service Committee

54. Motion was offered by Jack Bullard that the Committee on Order of Business be asked to give serious consideration to the following matters in planning the next annual meeting of the Association:

1. The elimination of all routine oral comment on the written reports of committees and departments because they appear in the Book of Advance Reports.
2. The combination of reports from our institutions or the scheduling of one or two each year.
3. Provision of time in the program for messengers to raise questions, make motions or discuss matters of common interest.

55. Moderator Holt expressed appreciation for the support given him during his term of office, after which he installed Moderator Marion D. Lark, Treasurer L. G. Bullard and Clerk Leon P. Spencer for the coming year. Moderator Lark, in accepting the office, pledged his best efforts toward making 1964-65 a successful year in the work of the Association. He invited the cooperation and support of everyone in advancing the work of our denomination in this association. The Moderator then pronounced the benediction.

IN MEMORIAM

RUFUS POTTS

1918 - 1965

Rufus Potts, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Potts, Sr., of Dudley was a native of Wayne County. Mr. Potts had prepared himself carefully, never stopping the study process. A graduate of Wake Forest College and Southern Seminary, he completed all requirements for his Master of Theology Degree at Southeastern Baptist Seminary in the fall of 1964 and was to be graduated in May, 1965. His thesis subject was "An Analysis of The First White House Conference On Aging And Its Implications For The Church."

Mr. Potts was an ordinary pastor — ordinary in the sense that he was much like hundreds of other devoted men of God, content to labor daily, carefully and unspectacularly in the service of God and man.

He had served as pastor of the Caraleigh Baptist Church, Raleigh, Youngsville Baptist Church, Barnesville Baptist Church, Norlina Baptist and Middleburg Baptist churches in North Carolina. While a student at Southern Seminary he served as pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church, Owensboro, Kentucky.

Mr. Potts is survived by his wife, Mrs. Juanita Elliott Potts and three daughters of the home.

DEDICATED TO LESLIE G. BULLARD

Leslie G. Bullard was born in Bladen County, North Carolina, the maternal grandson of Reverend William S. Melvin who gave to the White Oak Baptist Church the land on which the present church now stands and became the first pastor.

He is a graduate of Wake Forest College with an A.B. Degree and was a student in Higher Accountancy with the LaSalle Extension University, Chicago, Illinois. While a student at Wake Forest College, he was Editor-in-chief of THE WAKE FOREST STUDENT.

In 1913 he married Sarah Lacy Harward. They have three daughters and one son.

He has served as teacher, principal, and superintendent in the schools of North Carolina, and also practiced public accountancy and now holds membership in the Wake County Chapter of Accountants. In 1933 he was elected Financial Secretary of Tabernacle Baptist Church, where he was ordained as a Deacon in 1922. He served as Financial Secretary for twelve years. In 1944, when the Central Baptist Association merged with the Raleigh Baptist Association of North Carolina, he was elected treasurer, in which position he is still serving in a splendid manner.

SECRETARY OF MISSIONS REPORT

Another year of growth has been experienced in the Raleigh Baptist Association. I am grateful to all who have had a vital part in building stronger ties of fellowship in our associational life. This annual session marks the one hundred sixtieth year of the Raleigh Baptist Association. We rejoice in the spiritual progress in the ministries of our churches. Yet, there remains much to be done.

The area covered by our association is experiencing unprecedented growth in population. These multitudes must be presented with the dynamic message of Christ. Your associational officers pledge their best efforts in helping the churches to minister to the needs of the people. To achieve this objective the churches must be aware of their responsibilities to the association. Too often the average church member thinks of the associational program as something apart from the regular church program, or as an organization wanting money from the churches. This is a false conception of the purpose of associational missions. We can correct this misconception by a clear definition of Church-Association relationship as follows:

A Baptist Association is a self-determining spiritual body of messengers from churches which are in voluntary basic agreement as to faith and practice, providing a program of assistance that will aid co-operating churches desiring to reach their full potential of spiritual growth and service in keeping with the commission of Christ. (Report of Conference on Associational Missions—1963).

The new theme for 1965-66 is "The Church Fulfilling Its Mission Through Proclamation and Witness." In the Raleigh Baptist Association our best hope for Proclamation and Witness will be discovered in using the full resources provided by our associational leadership. Dr. J. B. Lawrence, former Executive Secretary of the Home Mission Board had this to say about the association: "Southern Baptists will never enlist their churches in demoniational programs, no matter what those programs are, until they get back to the district association, and make it a real functioning body in Baptist affairs. When the association is made a more real, vital, functioning part of all our churches, we can expect to see the Word of God accepted, and practiced as the world has never seen before."

We are to be reminded that the existence and work of Baptist associations is based upon the example of the New Testament Christians. A true New Testament church will not desire to be secluded or isolated from her sister churches in the association. To make Proclamation and Witness more effective we need the cooperation of all churches — both large and small. We need to remember that the local area is certainly included in the commission of Christ.

Permit me to urge upon our pastors and lay leaders to assume a greater responsibility in the work of the association. No church can effectively exist alone, but must co-operate with others in kingdom affairs. This is just as true of the large church as the small church. The pastors can lead their churches to have a worthy part in the financial program of the association. He can also urge his leaders to accept responsibility of leadership in the associational organizations. Encouragement can be given to attendance upon the associational meetings. Your associational departmental leaders need this co-operation if they are to help you in Proclamation and Witness.

Robert L. Costner

ARTICLE I—NAME

This body shall be known as The Raleigh Baptist Association of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II—PURPOSE

The purpose of this association shall be (1) the cultivation of closer bonds of fellowship, sympathy, mutual understanding and brotherly love; (2) the counseling together in plans and programs for the strengthening and enlargement of God's Kingdom; and (3) the promotion of Evangelism, Missions, Education Social Service and Benevolences through the Associational, State Convention and Southern Convention Programs.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section A. The association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area served by this association.

Section B. Any church applying for membership in the association shall be received under the watchcare for a period of time sufficient to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist church. A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Membership Committee of the association. If, in the judgment of the Membership Committee and The Executive Council, such church has met the requirements listed above, by the next regular meeting of the association, the Membership Committee may recommend through the Executive Council that such a church be received into the association without further delay.

Section C. The association shall have full right to withdraw fellowship from any church whose course of conduct is uncooperative.

Section D. Any church may withdraw from the association at its pleasure.

ARTICLE IV—MEETINGS

Section A. The Association shall convene in Annual Session on the last Thursday and Friday of October in each year.

Section B. Each church shall be entitled to one messenger for every 25 members, with sixteen being the maximum sent from any church.

Section C. All pastors of churches in the association shall be recognized as messengers in addition to those specified above.

Section D. The Association, when convened in meeting, shall have no power to infringe on any of the internal rights of the churches; it may advise with the member churches and recommend measures of usefulness for their adoption, and may claim for itself, its objects and programs, the highest consideration.

Section E. In case of emergency the Executive Council is empowered to change the time or place of meeting or call a special session of the Association.

ARTICLE V—DEPARTMENTS

The Association shall promote an aggressive program of teaching, training, Evangelism, Mission and Stewardship Emphasis through the following departments: The Sunday School Department; The Training Union Department; The Brotherhood Department; The Music Education Department. The Woman's Missionary Union shall be recognized as an auxiliary to the Association.

ARTICLE VI—OFFICERS

The Officers of the association shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of The Sunday School Department, a Director of The Training Union Department, a President of The Brotherhood Department, a Director of the Department of Music Education and three Trustees. They shall be nominated and elected by the association in Annual Session and shall serve until their successors are elected at the next Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring between annual sessions shall be filled by the Executive Council.

- C. Committee On Nominations
- D. Committee On Membership
- E. Committee On Evangelism
- F. Committee On Ordination
- G. Committee On Time, Place, Preacher
- H. Committee On Resolutions
- I. Committee On Memorials

ARTICLE VIII—ADMINISTRATION

The Secretary of Missions and other employees of the association shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the association and the denomination. They shall work under the direction of and be subject to the authority of The Executive Council. They shall be nominated by the Executive Committee of The Executive Council, and elected by the association at any annual session, or by The Executive Council if the next annual session of the association is thirty (30) days or more beyond the date on which the employee is nominated.

ARTICLE IX—THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council shall consist of all active pastors and one lay member from each member church. The officers of the Association shall be ex-officio members and shall serve as the officers of the Council. In addition the Secretary of Missions and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union shall be ex-officio members. It shall be the duty of the Council to carry forward the work of the Association between sessions and make reports to the Association.

ARTICLE X—ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The Associational Year shall begin on October 1 and end on September 30 of each year.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENT

This Constitution may be amended by the association at any annual session.

BY-LAWS

The work of the Association shall be governed by the following By-Laws:

ARTICLE I—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section A. The Moderator shall preside over sessions of the Association and meetings of the Executive Council. He shall not serve more than two terms in succession.

Section B. The Vice-Moderator shall perform the duties of the Moderator in his absence.

Section C. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep full records of the meetings of the Association and the Executive Council and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and the data from the church letters in an annual report. The Clerk shall further cooperate with the other officers of the Association in promoting the total program of the Association. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association shall direct.

Section D. The Treasurer shall receive, safeguard and disburse all funds of the association. Disbursements shall be made in accordance with the Budget adopted by the association. Non-Budget items must be approved by The Finance Committee of The Executive Council. The Treasurer shall make quarterly reports to the Executive Council and an Annual Report to the Association. He shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Council shall direct. He shall be paid such an honorarium and expenses as the Association may direct.

Section E. The Trustees shall hold title to all property of the association. When authorized by the Executive Council of the association they shall execute notes secured by Mortgages or Deeds of Trust in the purchase of church sites or other property. The Trustees in all acts with respect to property purchased shall be controlled and directed by the Association through its executive council.

Section F. The Superintendent of The Department of Sunday Schools shall promote and supervise the Sunday School Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section G. The President of The Department of Brotherhoods shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood work in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

Section H. The Director of The Department of Training Unions shall promote and supervise The Training Union Program in the association in cooperation with the Administration Staff.

ARTICLE II—COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

Section A. The Committee On Committees, consisting of seven members, shall nominate the members of the various Standing Committees and submit them for election by the association.

Section B. The Committee On Order of Business, consisting of five members, shall prepare the Program for the Annual Session. This suggested Program shall be presented in printed form to the association at the beginning of the Session for action.

Section C. The Committee On Nominations, consisting of three members, shall nominate all Officers as authorized herein and submit them to the association in Annual Session for election.

Section D. The Committee On Membership, consisting of five members, shall review all applications from churches for membership in the association. The Committee shall make a thorough investigation of the petitioning church as to its doctrines, practices, and cooperation with the Baptist Program. A Formal statement of its findings along with its recommendations shall be submitted to the association or The Executive Council as provided herein.

Section E. The Committee On Evangelism, consisting of seven members, shall press an aggressive evangelistic effort within the bounds of the association. This shall be done through the encouragement of revivals in the churches, especially where the need is apparent; the promotion of simultaneous campaigns; and the promotion of evangelistic services in un-churched areas. The Committee shall meet no less than four times annually.

Section F. The Committee On Ordination shall consist of no less than seven members. Churches desiring to ordain ministers who have been called to a specific work are requested to place their candidates before the Committee for examination. After such examination the Committee will make its recommendations to the church.

Section G. The Committee On Time, Place, and Preacher, composed of three members, shall recommend to the association in Annual Session (1) the Time of the next Annual Session, (2) the Place, or Places of meeting, (3) the Preacher and Alternate of the Annual Sermon.

Section H. The Committee On Resolutions, composed of three members, shall review all resolutions referred to it by the association in Annual Session, submitting a report on these, along with other suitable resolutions, before the close of the Session.

Thursday Evening, October 28, 1965

1. The 160th Annual Session of the Raleigh Baptist Association was called to order by Moderator Marion Lark on Thursday evening, October 28, 1965 in the New Hope Baptist Church. He recognized John Baxley, Pastor of Swift Creek Baptist Church, who led the congregation in singing "I Love To Tell the Story" and "God of Grace, God of Glory."

2. New Hope Pastor Frank Campbell extended a cordial welcome to the messengers and visitors in attendance at this opening session of the annual meeting of the association.

3. Cary Pastor Robert Mullinax, Chairman of the Committee on Order of Business, offered a motion that the printed program, with such changes as may be voted by the messengers, become the order of business for the meeting, and that the messengers now registered and those to be registered constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

4. M. W. Futrell, Superintendent of the Sunday School at New Hope, conducted the devotional period using the Scripture reading as found in Ephesians 3:1-7.

5. Prefacing his message with the general theme for this meeting — “The Church Fulfilling Its Mission Through Proclamation and Witness” — Moderator Lark set the stage for the program that was to follow. In challenging the congregation to open new avenues of service through their churches and to make more effective the theme of this meeting, Moderator Lark asserted that it is not enough for churches to see people and to serve people, but that it is necessary to minister to the souls of men if the ultimate goal is to be reached.

6. Clerk Leon Spencer recognized new pastors and staff members coming into the Raleigh Association during the past year and extended a cordial welcome to each of them. The list of those whose names had been made available to the association office follows:

NEW PASTORS AND STAFF MEMBERS

BETHLEHEM C—Rev. Jerry Mullinax is the new pastor of Bethlehem C Baptist Church. He is a graduate of Mercer University and is a student at Southeastern Baptist Seminary. He is married.

- SAMARIA—Claude D. Bowen is Minister of Education. He is a graduate of Wake Forest and Southeastern Seminary.
- ST. JOHNS—Mrs. Phillip Williams is Minister of Education. She is a graduate of Meredith College.

7. "Our Best Hope For Proclamation and Witness" was the topic of the brief message presented by Secretary of Missions Robert L. Costner. He prefaced his talk by paying tribute to officers and committeemen who had shared in the responsibilities of the association in a fine way. He urged all churches and their organizations to take advantage of the services available through the office of the Secretary of Missions. He asserted that "If we are to proclaim and to witness we must work cooperatively and love one another."

8. Temple Pastor W. T. Mills, Chairman of the Missions Committee, presented in effective manner "Missions in the Raleigh Association." With the assistance of Training Union Director Bennett Straughn, slides depicting highlights in the missions program of the association bore impressive testimony of the value of co-operative effort among dedicated leaders.

9. The congregation joined in singing "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

10. The clerk announced the largest number of messengers ever recorded for a single session of the association. He stated that 305 messengers and 70 visitors had been registered.

11. Special Music was rendered by the New Hope Church Choir.

12. Wake Forest Pastor James Stertz brought the inspirational message of the evening entitled "Proclamation and Witness." Using the bells in the tower at the Baptist Seminary in Zurich and the inscriptions thereon as a basis for his message, he cited 1) the need to proclaim the gospel, 2) that the truth is unkillable, and 3) that Jesus is Lord. He asserted that those messages on the bells must be inscribed on the hearts of men if they are to effectively witness their faith.

13. The congregation joined in singing "Joy to the World" as the benediction.

Friday Morning, October 29, 1965

14. The Friday morning session of the associational meeting opened with the singing of "When Morning Gilds the Skies" which was led by John Baxley.

15. In the absence of a pastor at Salem Church, W. J. Booth, Jr. extended a cordial welcome to the association, made several announcements, and conducted the devotional. He read the Scripture as recorded in Ephesians 3:8-21.

16. Attention was called to the calendar of activities in Sunday School work during 1966 by Ed Sessoms, Associational Superintendent, who brought the report and moved its adoption. The report follows:

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The Great Commission of our Lord continues to be the marching orders of Christians in this twentieth century. We are to "Go and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things . . ."

The Sunday Schools of our churches have been assigned the tasks of teaching the Bible, reaching the unreached, leading all church members to worship, witness, learn, and minister daily, furnishing workers for various projects, and interpreting the work of the church and denomination — thus helping the church in its basic functions of worship, proclamation, education and ministry.

Southern Baptist Sunday Schools are seeking to enroll ten million by 1970. In order to achieve this goal, we must have an enrollment gain of approximately 30% in the next five years. We are challenged to have an enrollment of one million in North Carolina by 1970. Outreach must have priority.

We are asking each Sunday School in our Association to accept a net enrollment increase of 3% for 1966, 4% for 1967, 5% for 1968, 6% for 1969, and 7% for 1970. We will grow great Sunday Schools as we show compassionate concern for the unreached. Evangelism, stewardship, missions, discipleship — all wait upon outreach.

These enrollment gains can be realized by organizing new Sunday Schools (a new Sunday School will gain 30); the organizing of Extension Bible Classes (each will gain 10); the starting of new adult classes (each will gain 6); the activating of Extension, Cradle Roll, and Young People Away Departments (each will gain 6); and enrolling Vacation Bible School pupils not in Sunday School.

If we will follow the simple growth formula advocated many years ago by Dr. Arthur Flake — locate the prospects, enlarge the organization, provide needed space, enlist and train workers, and visit the people — we will reach more people for Bible study; our baptisms will increase; Christian stewardship will become a reality; and our churches will be strengthened.

Along with an increased emphasis upon outreach, each Sunday School is urged to observe January Bible Study Week, to plan a church and mission Vacation Bible School, to promote Operation Home Study and other opportunities for training; to cooperate in the Adult Thrust movement, to participate in the Associational Sunday School projects — clinics, conferences, enlargement campaigns; and to attend the Sunday School Weeks at Caswell and Ridgecrest. When our Sunday Schools begin moving forward, our churches will move forward.

Allen Laymon, Superintendent

17. In the absence of Associational Training Union Director Bennett Straughn, the report as recorded in the Book of Advance Reports was, upon motion duly made, adopted. It follows.

TRAINING UNION REPORT

The Training Union is happy to report that interest in the work and in the regularly scheduled meetings continues to grow. During this past year we had four Officers' and Leaders' Meetings, four Mass Meetings, four Executive Meetings, and one Clinic.

As usual, "M" Night was one of our biggest events of the year. Our speaker for this occasion was Dr. T. L. Cashwell, pastor of the Hayes Barton Baptist Church. The "M" Night choir was under the direction of the Rev. John Baxley, pastor of the Swift Creek Baptist Church. We had 2,537 in attendance, representing 64 churches. There were 60 of our pastors present. According to reports from the State Training Union Department, our association ranked first in the State in "M" Night attendance.

Our annual banquet is looked forward to with much interest and enthusiasm. It was held on May 7 at the Tabernacle Baptist Church with the Rev. John Lawrence, pastor of the Forest Hills Baptist Church, as speaker. There were over 200 present.

Again Youth Night was outstanding. There were 274 present, representing 19 churches. Fifteen of our pastors were present. The youth from our churches look forward each year to this night. This year Youth Night was held at the Tabernacle Baptist Church.

Interest continues to grow in our summer assemblies as evidenced by the increasing attendance at all of our assemblies. We are certain that representatives from our association were in attendance at each of our assemblies.

Participation in the various tournaments continues to increase. This year there were 15 Juniors participating in the Memory Work Drill with 3 of these being four-year winners; Judy Leonard from Falls Church; Jane North from Forest Hills Church, and Ray Boone from Garner First. In the Intermediate Sword Drill Tournament, Miss Jo Anne Utter from Forest Hills, participated in the Regional Tournament and came out as alternate at the Regional Convention. In the Young People's Speakers Tournament, Miss Nancy Taylor, Forest Hills, participated and Miss Adrianna Bailey was alternate State Winner. In the Adult Scripture Reading Tournament, Edley W. Wilder of the Tabernacle Baptist Church participated in the Regional Tournament.

Bennett Straughn, Director

18. Mrs. John Carpenter, Associational President of Woman's Missionary Union, moved the adoption of the report as found in the Book of Advance Reports. It was approved, subject to some minor corrections which were to be supplied to the clerk, and is found below. Speaking to the report, Mrs. Carpenter enumerated some of the more significant achievements of the past year and outlined the aims and goals of the new year. By use of display cards, the program of work of the W. M. U. was effectively presented.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

The 1964-65 Year, which was the 77th of Woman's Missionary Union, SBC, has emphasized, along with all denominational agencies the theme, "Worship." As in true worship the individual becomes more acutely aware of God, so have members of Woman's Missionary Union, through their Worship emphasis, become not only more acutely aware of God, but also of the world's needs to know God — the one all-powerful, all-loving God.

As we review our work in the Raleigh Associational WMU, we would like to express our genuine appreciation for all the graciousness manifested in so many valuable and tangible ways by the churches who were hosts to us during the past year.

Our first meeting of the year, the Leadership Conference, was held at Knightdale Baptist Church, with 262 ladies attending the day and repeat night session. Fifty churches were represented and forty-six children were cared for in the nursery during the day.

Our seven and one half hour Woman's Missionary Union Basic Leadership Course was taught November 23-24 at Forest Hills Baptist Church. Miss Kathryn Bullard, State WMS Director, taught the WMS course, and the Youth courses were led by the Associational Youth Directors. Average attendance for the two days was 185 ladies and 46 children. There were 109 who attended both sessions, receiving their cards of accreditation for the completion of this course.

Two Mission Study Institutes were conducted during the year. The Home Mission Study took place at Pullen Memorial, January 26, 1965. The theme was "New Dimensions in Home Missions." There were 112 attending the day and night sessions. Teachers were Mrs. Howard Cooke, Mrs. James Cammack, Mrs. George Morris, Mrs. Zeb Strickland, Mrs. Marshall Cobb, and Mrs. Sam O'Neal. On September 28, 1965, our second institute, which was the Foreign Mission Study was held at Ridge Road Church, "Brazil" was the theme for the day. There were 24 churches represented and 96 in attendance. Classes were conducted by Mrs. Robert Costner, Mrs. David Mein, missionary to Brazil, Mrs. J. D. Bowen, and Mrs. Earl Green.

"Worship Christ the King," was the theme for the Annual Session of Associational WMU, which was held at Tabernacle Baptist Church in Raleigh, April 22, 1965. Host churches along with Tabernacle were St. John, Temple, Emmanuel, and Boylan Heights. Missionary guest speaker for the morning session was Mrs. James Kirk of Brazil, who spoke on "I will Praise Thee, O Lord, Among the People." The afternoon session was highlighted by a message from our Secretary of Missions of the Raleigh Association, Rev. Robert Costner. His topic was "WMU Fulfills Her Mission through Worship — In the Home, In the Church, In the Association."

Mrs. Alton Hood, Missionary appointee to Thailand was interviewed by Mrs. Robert Costner. Installation of new officers was conducted by Mrs. Foy Farmer, former State WMU President and Missionary to Japan. The Annual Session was climaxed with a meditation "I Resolve to know, to do, to be" which was written by Miss Miriam Robinson, State WMU Executive Secretary. There were 52 churches represented with 388 attending, including 16 pastors, 21 visitors and 58 children. Queens Regent-in-Service, Misses Sandra Strickland, Falls Church, and Linda Whaley, Carolina Pines Church were pages for the day.

The Associational Young Woman's Auxiliary Council led by Mrs. H. H. Jones held well attended quarterly meetings at Temple, Rolesville, and Cary. Among guest speakers during the year were, Mrs. H. Victor Davis, Missionary to Brazil, and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchener (W. A.) from Oxford.

The Associational Girl's Auxiliary Camp, a highlight of our years work was led by our camp director, Mrs. W. C. Adkinson. She conducted three weeks of camp at Umstead State Park, assisted by a very dedicated and efficient staff. We give the Lord praise for the moving of the Holy Spirit in response of 38 conversions, 89 rededicated lives, 12 dedications to full time Christian service, 3 for Foreign Missions, and 2 for Home Missions. There was a total enrollment of 271. Among special guests who led mission study periods, were Rev. Jerry Potter, Mrs. Robinson Oteh, Nigeria, Mrs. Larry Bryson, Cherokee, Mrs. Earl Martin, Africa, Mrs. Luther Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Takashi Yoshizu, Miss Lucy McLaughlin, Children's Center, Cherokee, and Mrs. James Stertz.

Girl's Auxiliary Council held quarterly meetings at Emmanuel, New Hope, Green Level, and New Bethel J churches. Guests at these meetings included, Mrs. Reaves, Carolina Pines, who gave a "chalk-talk", Mrs. David Mein, Missionary to Brazil, and a special program by the Green Level GA, "We've a Story to Tell." There was an average attendance of 140 girls attending these sessions.

This year's record shows that there are 79 WMS organizations in the Raleigh Associational WMU with a membership of 4,418. These organizations foster the following youth organizations: 12 Sunbeam Nursery groups with an enrollment of 112, 116 Sunbeam Bands with 1,757 members, 131 Girls' Auxiliaries with 1,387 enrolled and 27 Young Woman's Auxiliaries with 249 members, for a grand total of 7,923 members. Greenwood Forest organized a WMS in October 1964. There were two new YWA's organized in the Mt. Olivet and Creedmoor Baptist Churches. We have two churches with two WMS organizations, they are Tabernacle and Cary. During the year Harris Chapel joined the Tar River Association and Community Baptist Church in Wake Forest joined the Raleigh Association. There are 10 churches in our Association with no WMU work.

There were 27 WMS organizations, 5 YWA's, 64 GA's and 44 Sunbeam Bands, a total of 140 organizations who received recognition on the Aims for Advancement which is our plan of work.

The Raleigh Associational WMU will receive Honor recognition for the 1963-64 year. It is our prayer that the historical record we will record this year, may be a heritage to be cherished and built upon and also be as Praise-Worthy as the record left us by our dedicated and faithful leaders who went on before us.

We joyfully anticipate the year ahead as we labor "together with God." Our emphasis for the new year will be "A Church Fulfilling its Mission Through Proclamation and Witness." Christ's church buildings are not places of sanctuary for his believers, they are the places where his church worships, is trained, instructed and inspired to go out to do His work in the world. In the new year of WMU, let us as Christian women, proclaim the wondrous truth that Christ died for all, and let the power of the Holy Spirit direct our lives in witnessing for our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Mrs. John F. Carpenter, President

19. Creedmoor Road Pastor John Solano, Associational Brotherhood President, brought an encouraging report of Brotherhood work in the association. He reviewed briefly the new concept being promoted by the Brotherhood Commission and expressed satisfaction with the progress being made. The report which follows, upon his motion, was adopted.

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

BROTHERHOOD IS a unique organization of the church in that its membership is composed only of Baptist men of the church. It exists for the purpose of helping the church achieve its missions tasks.

BROTHERHOOD IS an educational organization with distinctive objectives and ministries. It fulfills a role assigned only to this group in the educational program and in the work of the church as it majors upon missionary education and missions promotion.

BROTHERHOOD IS a fellowship of Baptist men, members of the church, organized to advance the cause of Christ through a program of missionary education and missions promotion designed to inform, motivate, and involve men in the missions tasks of the church.

BROTHERHOOD IS responsible for missionary education for men, young men, and boys in Southern Baptist churches, which is one of the greatest needs of this day. Its study program is designed to interest and challenge the men and boys of the church in becoming mission-minded Baptists. It permeates such major areas as Christian witnessing and personal stewardship as they vitally relate to missions in the community, state, nation, and world.

BROTHERHOOD OBJECTIVE IS TO LEAD MEN TO —

1. A deeper commitment to missions.
2. A more meaningful prayer life for missions.
3. A larger stewardship on behalf of missions.
4. A personal involvement in missions.

John Solano, President

20. Associational Music Director John Baxley commented briefly upon the importance of music in worship and concluded his report with a solo. Upon his motion the report as found in the Book of Advance Reports was adopted.

MUSIC REPORT

The face of the Associational Music organization was in the stages of change this year. At last year's briefing session an introduction was given and throughout the year an effort was made to implement the program.

The emphasis is being placed more and more on the individual church and its needs. The music council is to (1) assist churches in establishing and expanding their music program, (2) provide consultations for and between churches regarding their music programs, (3) provide music leadership training, (4) conduct church music projects for groups of churches, (5) interpret to and involve churches in their cooperative missionary, educational, and benevolent causes through music and musicians, and (6) to provide music-related opportunities for Christian fellowship among the churches.

During the past year opportunities were given to the churches to train their music leadership through a Leadership Clinic held at Calvary Baptist Church. A carol sing was conducted in cooperation with the Raleigh Recreation Service. Congregational singing and choral numbers were presented at all associational meetings. A few churches took advantage of the council to conduct music schools, song sermons, and help in revivals and worship services in individual churches during the year.

It is our hope that during the following year more churches will use the council to help them improve and expand the music ministry.

John Baxley, Chairman
Music Committee

21. The congregation joined in singing "He Keeps Me Singing."

22. Special Music was presented by a trio of the Salem Church.

23. Pastor Burley S. Turner of the Samaria Church read the Scripture as found in John 4:31-42 and offered prayer, after which Temple Pastor W. T. Mills brought an inspirational and challenging message on the text entitled "To Finish His Work." Mills emphasized that "Our job is to magnify our efforts 'To Finish His Work'" and that "NOW is where we are" and that "TODAY is the day." "Our church is in the middle of the world. We are in the center assigned the task 'To Finish His Work'", asserted the speaker. He asked "Why do we fret so when the guidelines are so well set forth in the Scriptures?" Summarizing he concluded that "Redeeming love is the theme" if we are to effectively proclaim and witness for our Lord.

24. The congregation joined in singing "Hark, The Voice of Jesus Calling."

25. C. Gordon Maddrey, Executive Secretary of The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc. was recognized and he spoke briefly on the purpose and aims of the Foundation. He commented on the significant growth it has witnessed in the past few years and on the potential it has for serving Baptist causes in perpetuity if dedicated Baptists elect to use the Foundation. The report was adopted as follows:

BAPTIST FOUNDATION REPORT

During the past four years the Foundation has been actively presented to the Baptist of North Carolina through the associations, churches, group meetings and through other media of communication. Our reception has been a most cordial and pleasant one. When the Baptist are properly and fully informed on any program, they can be depended upon to act wisely. Our main concern during these past four years has been to let our people know exactly what the Foundation is; how it functions; the various classes of people, churches, associations, conventions and agencies it represents as well as putting particular emphasis on Christian will making.

Memorial investments in the Foundation have gone from $60.11 to approximately $450,000. No sum is too small to merit our attention nor too large to be adequately handled. One of the strong characteristics of the Foundation lies in its fifteen member Board of Directors. These men are businessmen who give their business genius and ability to the work of the Foundation without any remuneration whatsoever. They want to invest a part of their time and talent in this phase of Kingdom work.

It is my great pleasure to assure you that The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc. is a going concern. Our people throughout the State are responding in a very fine manner to the services offered through the Foundation. This report would not be complete if I did not pay particular tribute to the excellent cooperation I have received from the pastors of the Convention. This program cannot succeed without their active participation and they have not hesitated to graciously give aid and comfort to the program. The years ahead look bright. Call on us if we can help you.

C. Gordon Maddrey, Executive Secretary

26. In the interest of conserving time, the action of the Executive Council during the previous year was not reviewed in detail, but the messengers were invited to review the minutes as recorded in the Book of Advance Reports and time would be allowed for discussion later if there were any questions. Otherwise the report would be recorded as official action of the Council during the previous year.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association met at the Caraleigh Baptist Church on January 11, 1965. Marion Lark, President of the Council, called the meeting to order. Rufus Potts, pastor of Caraleigh, welcomed the members of the Council and led the group in prayer. Mr. Lark recognized the new members of the Council and urged their participation in Council meetings.

A brief summary of past events and future meetings of Sunday School, Training Union, Brotherhood, and Music departments was given by Robert L. Costner. Special attention was directed to the Sunday School Conference scheduled for January 18.

Robert L. Coats, Chairman of the Committee on Evangelism, gave a progress report of plans for the Evangelistic Clinic and supper to be held at Tabernacle Baptist Church on January 25. He noted the departure of past features of former clinics and stressed the importance of group participation in the plans for this year.

Mr. L. G. Bullard, Treasurer of the Association, gave his usual fine report of financial progress for our work. He commended the churches for the support being given to the Association and gave a brief summary of the written report that was presented to each member of the council. His report was approved as read.

Mr. Robert Costner presented some features of the Audio-Visual Aid Plan of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. He stressed the value of these aids to the churches and how the association could help in the areas where churches did not own visual equipment. The Council voted approval to lease two projectors and the purchase of film strips, if deemed wise. Mr. Costner called attention to the illness of the daughter of Mr. Wesley Enzor, pastor of Pilot Baptist Church. The Council approved the formation of a Love Fund to assist the family in this period of emergency.

Expressions of appreciation for past assistance on the part of the Association to the Ridgecrest and Greenwood Forest Churches were given by the pastors of these churches. Mr. Lark gave his thanks for the fine progress made by the above named churches.

The Council was led in prayer and the meeting was adjourned.

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association met at the Hillcrest Baptist Church on May 10, 1965. Marion Lark, President of the Council, called the meeting to order and welcomed the members of the Council to Hillcrest. He led the group in prayer.

The minutes of the January meeting were read by Ed Sessom and were approved as read. Mr. Lark recognized new members of the Council and expressed appreciation for their interest and work on behalf of the churches in the Association.

The following reports and plans were given for our departmental organizations: Two Vacation Bible School Clinics were provided the churches in April by the Sunday School leaders of the Association. A record attendance was noted and there was more participation in the departmental conferences. The Clinics were held at New Hope Baptist Church and First Baptist Church, Cary.

The Associational Training Union Banquet was held at Tabernacle Baptist Church on May 7. A superlative program was prepared by Bennet Straughn, Associational Training Union Director and his corps of workers. The entertainment was provided by members of the Tabernacle Choir under the direction of Robert Poole. The special message of the evening was given by John Lawrence, pastor of the Forest Hills Baptist Church.

Plans for the Associational Brotherhood quarterly meeting were given. The meeting will be held at Ephesus Baptist Church on May 17, at 7:30 o'clock. The Brotherhood officers will present a program on "The Role of the Father in a Christian Home."

Mr. L. G. Bullard, Treasurer of the Association, presented his quarterly report and it was approved by the Council. A copy of his report was given to each member of the Council. Most of our churches are giving good financial support to the work of our Association.

Chairman of the Committee on Ordination, Jack Bullard, gave a progress report on the work of his committee. The churches are cooperating in a fine manner with the new procedures in the examination of candidates for ordination. The written statements of the candidates are proving to be helpful to the committee in the examination of highly qualified men for the ministry.

Following prayer the meeting of the Council was adjourned.

The Executive Council of the Raleigh Baptist Association held its quarterly meeting at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, July 12, 1965. Mr. L. A. Brown, Lay-Representative of Tabernacle welcomed the members and led in prayer.

The minutes of the last Council meeting were read and approved. Marion Lark, President of the Council, welcomed Rev. James Stertz, new pastor of Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Bennett Straughn, Associational Training Union Director, reported that 240 persons attended the Training Union Banquet in May. He announced plans for "M" Night 1965 and urged a large attendance. Our Associational Missionary, Robert L. Costner will be the speaker for this year.

Allen Laymon, Associational Sunday School Superintendent, called attention to the Sunday School Conference to be held at Ridge Road Baptist Church on July 19, at 7:30 o'clock. Departmental conferences will be provided for all age groups.

William Mills, Chairman of the Missions Committee, gave a report of his committee. He reviewed the results of several meetings of the committee. He stated that the Missions Committee had carefully studied the possibility of a new church to be located midway between Fellowship Baptist Church and Pleasant Grove Baptist on Highway 401 South of Raleigh. About three acres of land can be purchased for $14,000, $1,400 would be required for a down payment and the balance could be paid over a period of five years or longer. Mr. H. A. Hodge moved that the land be purchased and that the Trustees of the Association follow through on the details of this matter. The motion was approved by the Council. Mr. Mills reported on continued efforts to locate a suitable church in the Brookhaven area which is west of Raleigh and just east of the Neuse River on or near Highway 64.

Allen Laymon, Chairman of the Calendar Committee, presented the proposed Calendar of Activities for 1966. He noted that a few adjustments will be made at a later date. Copies of the calendar were distributed and the report was approved.

The Committee on Nominations report was given by Burley Turner, member of the committee, in the absence of Chairman John Lambert. The following were nominated: Moderator—Marion Lark; Vice-Moderator—H. A. Hodge; Clerk—Leon Spencer; Treasurer—L. G. Bullard; Training Union Director—Bennett Straughn; Brotherhood President—John Solano; Music Education Director—John Baxley.

Mr. L. G. Bullard, Treasurer of the Association, presented written copies of his quarterly report and gave a brief summary of financial progress. His report was approved by the Council.

Ronda Robbins, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the proposed budget for 1965-66 and urged that the churches make a strong effort to support the total amount of $32,000. He called upon H. A. Hodge to present a special item of business to the Council. Mr. Hodge gave a detailed report of a study of the Association's home by a sub-committee of the Finance Committee. The committee recommended that the home be sold to our Missionary in consideration of $5,000 and the assumption of the balance of the note of approximately $6,236.00. Following a detailed explanation of this matter, the Council approved the proposed budget and the recommendation of the Finance sub-committee.

The Council was led in prayer by Dr. James F. Heaton and the meeting was adjourned.

Leon Spencer, Clerk

REPORT OF THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

April 30, 1965

Our Committee met in the Office of the Raleigh Baptist Association at 3:00 p.m. Our purpose for meeting was to discuss and clarify our plans in reference to our work north of town, and to discuss projected plans in the Green Pines area near Knightdale.

First, Mr. Leonard Wood who resided on Lead Mine Road called our chairman and stated that he and others in that area were interested in starting a church. He also informed us that he contacted Mr. Barbee, President of the local AFL-CIO and had obtained permission to use the Union hut for a meeting place. Our committee asked Mr. Wood to wait until we had coordinated our plans with the Mt. Zion Church before going ahead. In order to work with the local church nearest this area our chairman met with Brother John Solano, pastor of Mt. Zion. As a result of this meeting we discovered that Mt. Zion had surveyed the developments in question with first of all the view of reaching the people for their own church. After observation and study they realized that this was not likely to be done by their church, and that they had come to believe that a church somewhere in the area of Brookhaven, Oak Park, Glen Forest, and Deblyn Park would be the proper approach to the need. We discussed our present property on the corner of Lead Mine Road and Birchwood Drive and decided to seek other property farther out 70 North, using our present property as partial payment on new property that might be available. If none is available then we still have a place that we can begin a work on our present site.

Second, we discussed the needs on U.S. 64 East in the Green Pines area. Earlier in the Spring our committee had met at Green Pines and had looked over the area. We met with Rev. Jack Painter of Knightdale, Rev. Allen Laymon of Bethlehem, and Rev. Marion Lark of Hillcrest. In seeking a course of action, it was decided that we should seek to locate property in this area also, in view of a new church here possibly some five years hence. The Chairman was asked to contact Mr. E. R. Allen who is realtor for this area.

Our Committee met at 3:30 p.m. in the Associational Office. The purpose of our meeting was to discuss in particular recent developments in our projected plans for property in the area south of Raleigh along U.S. 401. This as well as updating our plans in other areas was discussed, and the following action taken:

First, Rev. Bob Coats, pastor of Fellowship Church, one of the local churches in the rapidly developing areas on 401 South had been asked along with Rev. Marion Terry, pastor of Pleasant Grove Church, another local church in this area, to seek out available property, strategically located in the projected developments that would be suitable for a church. Brother Coats reported that he had located such a site with frontage both on 401 and also on the main street leading into a development of some 200 acres. The committee voted to have Brother Coats contact the owners and see if the property was for sale, and also if it could be bought for a church site. He was to inform our chairman of his findings, and if favorable another meeting would be called.

Second, the Green Pines situation was discussed. Mr. E. R. Allen did not contact the Chairman about the property. Later it was learned that he had died, and our chairman has contacted Mrs. Joan Johnson who is currently handling this real estate, and who is to call as soon as something is found.

Third, our work North on U.S. 70 again came to our attention with regards to the North Street Church possibly moving into that area. Rev. Leo Stanis, pastor of North Street, met with us and told the committee that he had talked with some of the church leaders and that they felt that the members of North Street would never consider the work on U.S. 70, but that there were some that would like to consider the area on Poole Road between New Bern Avenue and the Samaria community. The Committee, after discussion, voted to look with favor upon any future developments of North Street to consider this area, provided that a compatible arrangement could be made as to location with the local churches involved, namely, Samaria, Calvary, Hillcrest, and Longview.

The committee also voted to try once again to locate property farther out U.S. 70 North. As a result of this action, our chairman has contacted Mr. Claude Gaddy of Gaddy Real Estate, and also Mrs. Johnson who have stated that they have properties in this area and will work with the association in obtaining any site deemed to be suitable.

June 10, 1965

The Missions Committee met on Thursday, June 10, 1965, at 3:30 p.m. at the Fellowship Baptist Church on Old Stage Road. Members present were Bob Costner, Willard Adkinson, and W. T. Mills. These members met with Bob Coats and Marion Terry, and a layman from the Fellowship Church, Mr. Johnson.

The purpose of this meeting was to inspect a prospective church site in the heart of a two hundred acre building development on 401 South just across Swift Creek. The committee looked at the location and found it to be strategically situated and very desirable. After discussing the matter with Mr. Johnson who owns part of the prospective lots, our committee voted to recommend that our Association purchase some three acres in this area for the location of a church. The length of time for the loan being five years with the possibility of a balloon payment and renewal at the end of five years if by that time a church has not grown to the strength of self-support, and the assumption of the balance of the loan on the property.

June 17, 1965

The Committee met to consider a lot located just off Highway 70 North on the Northern perimeter of Deblyn development. This lot is also on the north side of Brookhaven, Oak Park, and Glen Forest. Our purpose in considering the lot was to determine whether it would be more strategically located to these developments than our present lot on Birchwood Drive. After much deliberation, it was decided that our present location was best. If we could find a location midway between the two sites, around the area of Rembrandt Street or Napier's Texaco Station the committee felt that a move would be justified, but if not, we felt that our present site would be able to serve these areas. Members present, Bob Costner, Marion Lark, and W. T. Mills.

Executive Council Meeting, July 12, 1965

At the July Executive Council meeting the Missions Committee recommended to the Council that the Association purchase a lot on 401 South at the entrance to the Brookwood development. The lot consists of three acres and has a frontage of 200 feet on 401 and approximately 115 feet on Brookwood Drive. The total cost of the property being $14,000.00. The Council voted unanimously to accept the recommendation and instructed the trustees of the Association and the Committee to proceed with purchase.

Respectfully submitted,
William T. Mills, Chairman
Missions Committee

Jack Bullard, Chairman

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION REPORT

To the Department of Student Work is committed the exciting and challenging task of ministering to Baptist students in colleges and professional schools. The unique aspects of this ministry have to do with the particular pressures and choices which impinge upon students during this time of their lives.

In order to engage in this specialized ministry for the 26,000 Baptist College students in North Carolina, the Student Department seeks to employ well qualified persons to serve as chaplains on the various campuses.

In addition to the Secretary of the Department, an Associate, Office Secretary, and Western Area Director, the General Board employs seven persons to work on non-Baptist campuses. There are nine other campus chaplains with whom the department works; five of these are at Baptist schools.

This staff of workers attempts to assist each student to become a mature Christian who is committed to God in faith, who nurtures his faith and life in the Church, who is concerned about making a Christian witness in the world, and who seeks to show forth the Christian life in all his attitudes and actions. Efforts are made to relate students to a church at college in a vital and redemptive way. In addition to the activities provided by a church, the campus program is designed to provide a comprehensive, balanced schedule of worship, study and witness, mission concern and service, recreation and fellowship.

Jack Painter, Representative

EVANGELISM REPORT

Churches in the North Carolina Baptist State Convention reported 27,346 baptisms in 1963 and 29,725 baptisms in 1964 — a gain of 2,379 or 9%. Churches in the Raleigh Association reported 971 baptisms in 1964.

The theme adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention for the year 1966 is, "Proclamation and Witness." In our association this theme actually begins October 1, 1965 with the new associational year.

The President of the Southern Baptist Convention, Dr. Wayne Dehoney, says: "The major issue facing us is whether the Southern Baptist Convention as the largest Protestant denomination, is going to accept its role and launch the greatest evangelistic thrust in history." No informed child of God would argue with Dr. Wayne Dehoney about this being the "major issue" before us. The purpose of our theme for the year ahead is to help get us aimed and moving toward this objective.

The evangelistic thrust needed now waits not on the new methods but on new men. Men and women who have been made new in Christ Jesus and are totally committed and surrendered to Jesus Christ in mind, body and soul. Materials and programs that are available to the churches from our denomination on the work of Evangelism may be requested as needed from the Division of Evangelism, Baptist State Convention, Raleigh, N. C.

Robert Coats, Chairman
Evangelism Committee

27. Treasurer L. G. Bullard prefaced his financial report with expressions of appreciation to Secretary of Missions Costner and to Office Secretary Mrs. John Ogle for their assistance in making his work as treasurer more pleasant and more useful to the association. The report, together with the supplementary report of income received after September 30, was approved unanimously and with appreciation and gratitude of the association for another job well done.

Total receipts from the churches for the year now closing are approximately $2,317.14 over last year. Through the year the churches paid into the Minute fund approximately 80% of the cost of printing the minutes.

It may be observed that of the $3,830.50 spent for Expansion, $1,250.00 was in designated gifts from the Hayes-Barton Church.

28. Clerk Leon Spencer gave a digest of information contained in the church letters. Attention was called to a decline in baptisms per 100 members, in Sunday School enrollment, Training Union membership, and Brotherhood totals. However, financial support through the Cooperative Program, Associational Missions, all missions objects, and total receipts, showed a definite and strong increase. The churches reporting the largest amount per capita for missions were as follows: Hayes Barton, $34.16; Raleigh, First, $30.72; Forest Hills, $27.40; Fuquay Springs, $24.12; and Cary, First, $20.41. The five churches giving the most cents out of each dollar for missions were as follows: Fuquay Springs, 33.1¢ Creedmoor Road, 30.9¢; Wendell, 30.6¢; Collins Grove, 30.2¢ and Raleigh, First, 29.4¢. Several other churches were close runners-up in this category.

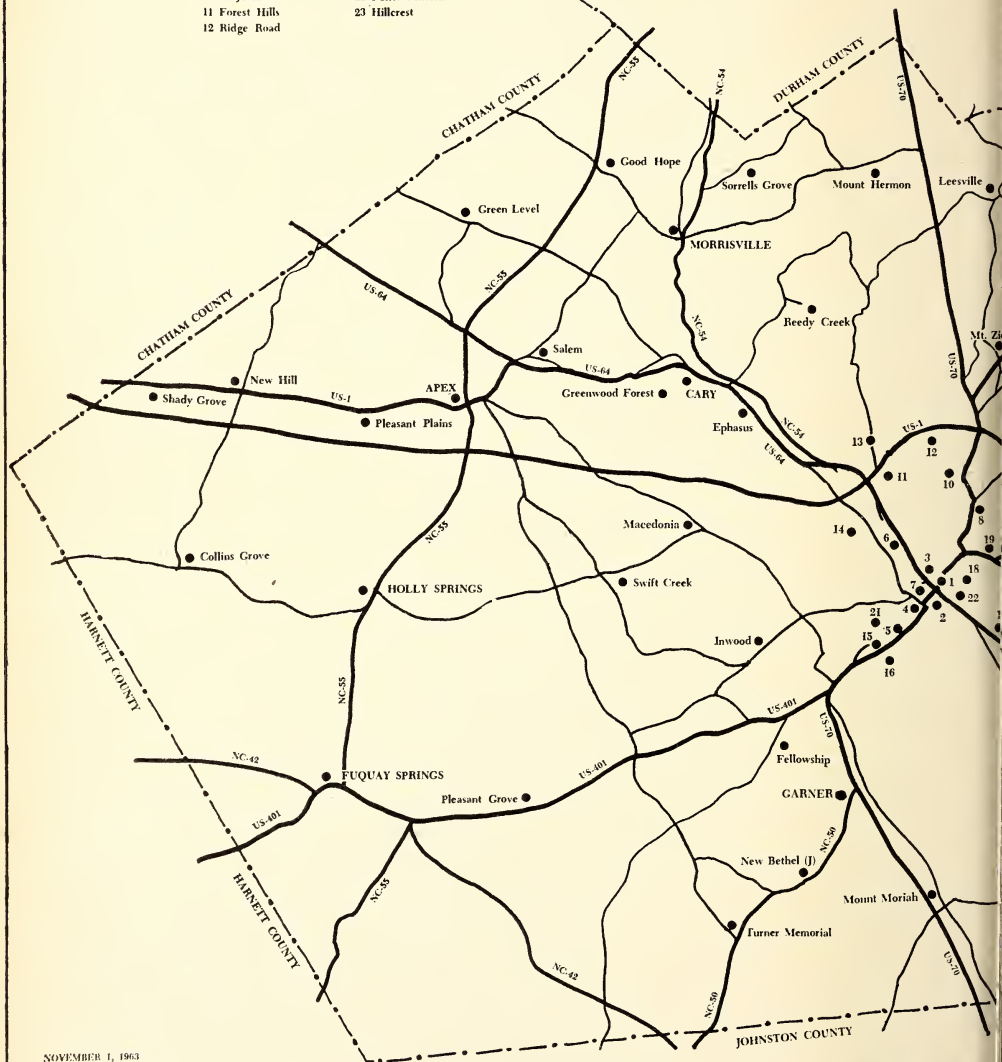

29. Finance Committee Chairman Ronda Robbins presented the matter of selling to the Secretary of Missions the residence now occupied by Secretary Costner and his family at 1417 Park Drive.

Chairman Robbins stated that the total investment in the property, including improvements since acquisition, amounted to slightly more than $21,000. This figure did not cover maintenance expenses through the period of ownership by the association. Motion was offered by Robbins that the association authorize the sale of the property to Secretary Costner for $5,000 plus the balance of $6,236.82 due on the loan. The fact that rental allowances for the Secretary during his tenure of service with the association had not been paid, consideration of the maintenance expenses was reconciled with the rental allowance which resulted in the recommended price for the property. The motion was adopted without dissenting vote.

Chairman Robbins then presented the recommended budget for 1965-66. Following appropriate comments he moved that the budget be adopted as presented in the Book of Advance Reports. It was approved by unanimous vote.

30. Mt. Moriah Pastor James West, Chairman of the Social Service Committee, spoke briefly to the prepared report published in the Book of Advance Reports and moved its adoption. The report follows.

SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT

The Christian's citizenship is two fold. He belongs to the earthly and also to the heavenly. He is in the world but not of the world.

There are many concerns which confront the Christian in our contemporary, earthly society. Four of these relevant and important concerns have been chosen for discussion by the Social Service Committee. There are: Leisure, Lawlessness, Longevity and Love. The following abbreviated observations reflect your committee's sentiments concerning these four significant concerns.

LEISURE — Most Christians would say that God is concerned with their "religious" life, and some would admit He has some relationship to their "work" life; but few believe God has any relation to their "leisure" life. We are quick to believe in a Saviour God but not so anxious to accept Him as Sovereign Lord. It has been said that if He is not Lord of all, He is not Lord at all. With the shortened work week and increased leisure time, the Christian must think in terms of a stewardship, a responsibility to God, in an area which he formerly called his own and be convinced that this also is God's time. It is a time for the re-creation of the whole self.

LAWLESSNESS — The Christian is a good citizen. As such he has respect for the law. He will have no part of violence, rioting, or the advocacy of lawlessness. Where the law seems unjust he will seek to bring about a correction through appropriate legal means. Chaos will prevail when persons feel free to obey some laws and disobey others. We need to exercise great care in claiming God's will for our attempts at correcting or eliminating seemingly wrong laws. Not every moral crusader has sought the mind of Christ. Many may have only personal, selfish motives. Care should be exercised in the repeal of laws felt unjust, by certain groups, lest the result be worse than the former law. Lawlessness is not the answer. The cure for lawlessness is a redeemed life. This comes solely through Jesus Christ.

LONGEVITY — The most significant achievement in this century is not the penetration into outer space, but it is the extension of human life. With the dawning of each day the world's population is increased by a new, large city. In 1960, for every 23 births there were only 9 deaths. Adequate provisions and compassionate concern should ever be our response to the elderly.

LOVE — The greatest force on earth is love. The greatest need of the hour is an expression of God's love to all mankind by all Christians. Christian love is the need and the solution to every concern faced by Christians.

James E. West, Chairman
Social Services Committee

31. Substituting for Calendar Committee Chairman Bennett Straughn, Ed Sessoms offered a motion that the associational calendar as recommended by the Council be adopted. The calendar was approved and appears near the front of these minutes.

32. Forest Hills Minister of Education Harold West, Chairman of the Membership Committee, presented the following report of his committee, which was, upon his motion, adopted.

REPORT OF MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

At the Annual Meeting of the Raleigh Baptist Association in 1964, one church was recommended to come under the watchcare of the Association. Because of the progress, attitude and cooperation of this church during the past year the Membership Committee makes the following recommendation:

That the Community Baptist Church of Wake Forest, North Carolina come into the full fellowship of the Raleigh Baptist Association in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article III of the Constitution.

Harold West, Chairman
Membership Committee

33. Memorials Committee Chairman E. Paul West presented in effective manner a tribute to those of our Baptist family who have passed away during the past year. Upon his motion the report was adopted and Secretary of Missions Costner led the memorial prayer. A list of "Our Beloved Dead" appears elsewhere in these minutes.

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

Down through the years at our annual associational meetings and conventions—both state and southwide—it has seemed fitting to set aside a brief period in memory of those members and fellow-workers, who during the previous year, have passed on to their reward.

We have come to that pause in this session today:

In the exercise of what we may designate as "The ministry of memory", we do here now turn aside from the regular proceedings of this our annual meeting to memorialize those of our loved ones and friends who have been called home since last we met, and whose names will be duly recorded.

We shall perhaps remember these our deceased best, and honor them most, by the reaffirmation of our common faith with them, and with those of another day, who "confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth." They have merely preceded us to the home land where our citizenship is said to be.

Wherefore then, let us who remain — the while — rejoice in that hope of glory which for these who have gone before, has now been fulfilled. We would therefore say, in the sentiment recently expressed at the graveside of a loved one, "Farewell, fair ones, we soon shall follow."

"My knowledge of that life is small, But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
The eye of faith is dim, And I shall be with Him."

Meanwhile, we shall trust, and labour, and praise, till at last we too, by His grace, shall join the happy throng, and sing the joyful hallelujahs of Redemption's triumph.

Respectfully submitted,
E. Paul West, Sr., Chairman

34. Ernest C. Upchurch, Secretary of the Church Development Department of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, announced the Juvenile Rehabilitation Conference scheduled for November 23, 1965 at the Tabernacle Church and invited everyone to attend. On behalf of the host churches W. J. Booth, Jr. made an announcement concerning the arrangements for the dinner and added a further word of welcome to everyone present.

35. Former Pastor of the Rolesville Church, Crate Jones, a visitor from the Yates Association, offered thanks for the dinner and pronounced the benediction.

Friday Afternoon, October 29, 1965

36. The congregation joined in singing "The Light of the World is Jesus" to open the final session of the 160th annual meeting of the Raleigh Association.

37. Green Level Pastor Wayne Harper conducted the devotional by reading the Scripture as found in Ephesians 4:1-13 and by leading in prayer.

38. In the absence of L. E. Forrest, Chairman of Committee on Committees, Claude Walker moved the adoption of the recommendation of the committee. The motion carried unanimously and the detailed assignments appear elsewhere in the minutes.

39. St. John's Pastor John Lambert, Chairman of the Nominations Committee, presented the following nominations and moved the adoption of the report of his committee. There were no other nominations from the floor and the motion carried.

40. Clerk Leon Spencer, substituting for Joe Roach, Chairman of the Committee on Time, Place and Preacher, brought the following report and moved its adoption. The motion carried.

REPORT ON TIME, PLACE AND PREACHER

The 1966 session of the Raleigh Baptist Association will be held with the St. John's Church on Thursday evening after the fourth Sunday in October.

The morning and afternoon sessions will meet with the Wake Cross Roads Baptist Church. Host churches are Oak Grove, Bethlehem (C), and Rolesville.

We recommend Joe Zimmerman of the Bethany Church to preach the annual sermon and Jack Painter of the Knightdale Church as alternate.

We recommend the 1967 session of the Raleigh Association meet with the Carolina Pines Baptist Church on Thursday evening after the fourth Sunday in October.

We further recommend the morning and afternoon sessions meet with the Hephzibah Baptist Church. Host churches are Bethany, Central and Wendell.

Joe Roach, Chairman

41. Resolutions Chairman Alonzo Jordan commented briefly on the report of his committee and requested the clerk to read the resolutions. Upon his motion the report was adopted as follows:

THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

1. We resolve that the Raleigh Baptist Association does express its sincere thanks to Marion Lark for the splendid way he has presided over this 160th Annual Session.

2. We resolve to express our thanks to all of those who have taken part in this splendid program, all speakers, musicians, and to those who have given reports from the various departments of our Association.

3. We resolve to express our appreciation to the host churches, New Hope, Salem, Good Hope, Green Level, Apex, and New Hill, for this Annual Session. Their hospitality and cordiality have been clearly demonstrated and appreciated.

4. We resolve to express our gratitude to our Associational Clerk, Leon Spencer, and to our Associational Treasurer, L. G. Bullard, for their faithfulness and efficiency. Their tasks require much effort, time, and ability. For their devotion and service we are thankful.

5. We resolve to give a higher degree of loyal support and service to our Association and to the Kingdom work of our Baptist State Convention.

6. We resolve that these minutes be written in memory of Rev. Rufus Potts who has been taken from us since our last Annual Session.

7. We resolve that these minutes be dedicated to L. G. Bullard, who has served the Raleigh Baptist Association for many years as treasurer in a most efficient manner.

Alphonso Jordan, Chairman

42. C. W. Bazemore, Circulation Manager for the Biblical Recorder, Inc., brought a brief, but challenging message on the importance of good literature. In an effective manner he urged that every church place the RECORDER in every home through the "Every Family Plan." Upon his motion the report of the RECORDER was adopted.

REPORT ON THE BIBLICAL RECORDER

With serious moral issues facing us on every hand, Baptists need an accurate and comprehensive source of information. Secular papers cannot meet this need. These papers cover so many things — sports, society, business, obituaries, entertainment, national and foreign affairs, to mention a few. All too often religion is found only on a Saturday church page — if at all.

In the past year those who look to the secular press for coverage of Baptist events were disappointed on more than one occasion. The Southern Baptist Convention in Dallas and the Baptist World Congress in Miami Beach provide two examples. Even the best of the daily papers had no more than one article a day on these meetings. Some had none.

Where can Baptists get coverage of these and other significant meetings? The BIBLICAL RECORDER, their dependable medium of information for 132 years. Typical of its service, the RECORDER devoted special editions to these important meetings at Dallas and Miami Beach. Many people who read these issues said they felt like they were there. This is the RECORDER'S job — to be our eyes and ears when we cannot be there.

In many other ways the RECORDER serves its readers. For example, a bill was introduced in the 1965 General Assembly that would have legalized distilleries in our state. Editorials in the RECORDER aroused our people and they, in turn, contacted their legislators. The bill was soundly defeated. A liquor-by-the-drink bill can be expected in the 1967 Assembly. Again, the RECORDER will keep you informed. With so many papers now accepting beer and liquor advertising, the question arises as to how they can give unbiased coverage to liquor proposals.

Let's talk money for a moment: The average Baptist family spends at least 50¢ to $1.00 a week on newspapers with little complaint. And yet, for only 4¢ or 5¢ a week — the cost of a stamp — the RECORDER can come into a home. If your church does not have a RECORDER club, please see that one is organized. Only four people are needed to form a club. Better still, send the RECORDER to every family under the Church Budget Plan. Our Baptist people must be enlisted in the fight against evil. The best way this can be done is through the pages of the BIBLICAL RECORDER.

Respectfully submitted,
J. Marse Grant, Editor

43. Robert N. Simms, Jr., Annuity Board Member from North Carolina, outlined several areas of service rendered by the Annuity Board through the basic annuity plan, the Life Benefit plan, and more recently, the Health Benefit plan. He urged churches to encourage their employees to share in one or all of these plans. Upon his motion the report which follows was adopted.

ANNUITY BOARD REPORT

The Life Benefit Plan

The Life Benefit Plan was inaugurated on October 1, 1964 to meet the need for supplemental life protection for our pastors and denominational employees, and has already achieved phenomenal success with more than ten thousand active participants. It affords protection ranging from ten to thirty thousand dollars for death under age 46 with graduated benefits thereafter for dues of $3.34 to $10.00 per month. It is still open for membership.

The Health Benefit Plan

The health benefit plan is an all-inclusive program of hospital, surgical and major-medical protection which is now being offered. The target date for the beginning of this plan is October 1, 1965. Five thousand applications are required by September 1 in order to put this program into effect.

Benefits Paid — "Manna From Heaven"

It has been said by many annuitants that the checks which come from the Annuity Board each month are like "Manna from Heaven." These checks vary in size, depending upon the length of time one was a member and the amount of dues paid.

Since the beginning of the Annuity Board in 1918, almost 47 million dollars have been paid in relief and annuity benefits to the men and women of God who serve Southern Baptists. In 1964 alone, 3½ million was paid out to ministers and denominational workers or their families.

Members In Annuity Board Plans

Today more than 16,352 churches are in the Protection Program for their pastors. Approximately 10,000 of these churches are paying the total 10% dues.

There are now 127 of the 176 educational institutions, hospitals, children's homes, homes for the aged and other southwide agencies protected by one of the Annuity Board programs. This means more than 25,000 members are in the Annuity Board's retirement plans.

There are seven states with 70% or more of the churches in the plan. At the present time North Carolina has 46% of the churches in the Protection Program for ministers.

Annuity Board Secretary

Rev. Guy Cain is jointly employed by the North Carolina Baptist Convention and the Annuity Board. He promotes the Board's total program of protection by trying to enlist all pastors, churches and denomination employees who are not enrolled in the program in North Carolina. He works to help those who are in the program to better understand the protection they have. For further information, write the Annuity Board, 511 North Akard, Dallas, Texas 75201, or Rev. Guy Cain, 301 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh, North Carolina 27600.

The latest number of active churches enrolled in the Raleigh Association is sixty-five.

Garland Hendricks, Representative

44. O. J. Hagler, Director of the Division of Stewardship Promotion of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, spoke briefly but impressively on the "Tithe Now" program as a means of becoming better stewards and of expanding the work of our denomination. He stated that we are now reaching only 2½% of our potential. In concluding his message he raised the question of "How Much Do We Care?" He listed unfortunate children, the sick, the aged, and those who have not yet heard of Christ as areas that should concern all Christians. "How Much Do We Care?"

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM REPORT

With the dawning of the 40th anniversary of the founding of the Cooperative Program, a new note of optimism and Missionary Advance is perceptible among Baptists!

It is now a well-accepted fact that the Cooperative Program of World Missions is the foundation for our total missionary endeavor — that of preaching, teaching, and healing in the name of Christ at home and abroad.

Even as we presently support the work of 2,000 foreign missionaries, 2,500 home missionaries, and more than 100 missionaries in North Carolina, Dr. Baker James Cauthen, Secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention Foreign Mission Board, has challenged us to send out 5,000 foreign missionaries in the years immediately ahead! This will mean greater sacrifice and greatly increased giving on the part of Baptists everywhere! "The Cooperative Program has given significant support to every state and Conventionwide cause — during the last sixteen years it has provided more than $100,000,000 for the Foreign Mission program of Southern Baptists. Truly, it IS the 'life-line' of our total cooperative witness and service."

We are witnessing our greatest advance in history with 52.27% of the southwide Cooperative Program dollar being allocated to Foreign Missions.

We are advancing in our concern for a lost world — more than 1,300 Baptist churches have set goals as a part of the Conventionwide emphasis to enlist 2,000,000 tithers by October, 1966. A free "Planning Kit" for tither enlistment is available from our state office for every church or pastor adopting a definite goal.

RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend:

1. That the churches participate in the TITHE . . . NOW! Emphasis.
2. That we engage regularly in prayer for cooperative causes and give special emphasis to prayer for these causes during the October Cooperative Program Emphasis.
3. That every church plan a Stewardship program in Sunday School Assembly following the fourth prayer service of the October Cooperative Program Emphasis. (Or any month suitable to the local church).
4. That the churches give regularly through the Cooperative Program.

46. W. R. Wagoner, General Superintendent of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, discussed briefly the program of the Social Service Institutions supported by North Carolina Baptists. He called attention to the fact that the Children's Homes had been serving unfortunate children for 80 years, that the healing ministry of the Hospital was begun in 1926, and that the care for aging citizens was undertaken by the Baptists in 1951. Superintendent Wagoner asserted that we should not surrender the right to serve the sick, the aged, or the children to government agencies. He concluded his message with heart-warming stories of how the unwanted child had experienced his first loving care, his first clean and comfortable place to live, and the privilege of wholesome recreation guided by qualified personnel at the Children's Homes; of the sick who had benefited by the healing ministry of the hospital; and of the aged who had found happiness in the fellowship of the staff and residents of the Homes for Aging. At the conclusion of his message, the reports of the Social Service Institutions were adopted.

CHILDREN'S HOMES REPORT

The care of dependent, neglected and homeless children is the central mission of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. In addition to providing care for children it is the purpose of the Homes to join hands with other Christian forces to strengthen wholesome, Christian family life throughout the state. Our people have supported this ministry in a most generous and commendable way.

Our Homes are serving as many people who need our help as possible. They are dependent upon North Carolina Baptists for support. Every gift, however small or large, is appreciated and is used for the purpose for which it is given. Income through the Cooperative Program is becoming increasingly important.

The Thanksgiving Offering of last year is approaching three hundred ten thousand dollars ($310,000.00) and is the largest ever given. This suggests that our people welcome an opportunity to support the "helping ministries" of the church which are close to the heart of our Lord.

Two estates have made possible two very fine buildings which have just been completed on the Mills Home campus. Income from the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Leland J. Sadler of Anderson, South Carolina, was used to build a library. An addition to the church was financed from the estate of Robert M. Idol and Lela Idol of Winston-Salem. These buildings will fill a most useful purpose in the educational and religious life of the Mills Home family.

There is a growing need for good Christian foster homes in which children needing this kind of care can live. Many families are finding much happiness and a great opportunity for service in caring for foster children. Thus, many boys and girls are privileged to grow up in Christian homes who otherwise would not have this opportunity. Should you have an "extra measure of love" to share in this way the Homes would like to know of your interest.

The need for a home in the western part of the state, more adequately to serve the people west of the Blue Ridge Mountains, has been discussed in various meetings and conferences. The possibility of such a home is meeting with genuine interest and enthusiasm. Attention is currently being given to a suitable location.

Members of the Board of Trustees and members of the staff of the Children's Homes are committed to the task of maintaining a Christian program of child care — a program that will merit the undivided support and loyalty of our people and that will bring honor to our Lord. To that end it is our purpose to meet, as effectively as possible, the challenges of our day.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL REPORT

More than 35,000 sick people were seen in the clinics of our Baptist Medical Center in Winston-Salem last year, and more than 19,000 were hospitalized for bed care. These sick people came from all sections of our state, out of all kinds of financial circumstances, and with almost every type of serious disease and sickness known to man. Most of them were sent by their local doctors, because they had problems which were difficult of diagnosis of treatment, and needed specialized facilities and skills such as those found at our Baptist Hospital.

In addition to the sick people who were served, there were more than 700 persons in training in the various fields of medical care and Christian service. These students were studying in ten different schools, and in other fields of training in our Medical Center, and will go out to serve as physicians, nurses, technicians, pastors and other Christian workers, in our communities and churches throughout North Carolina and on our mission fields around the world. These schools offer excellent opportunities, and they are interested in qualifying Baptist young people who wish to invest their lives in useful service to their fellow man and in the Kingdom of God.

The ministry of our hospital to people who are seriously ill and in meager circumstances lies at the very heart of its total work. All of our Mother's Day offerings are used for this purpose: when the doctors have given their skilled services without charge to these patients, and the money available from all other sources is added, every dollar we give is multiplied nine times over in free service to those who need help.

It is a high privilege for us in our churches to minister in the name of the Great Physician, through our hospital, to these multitudes who are sick. It will be a welcome voice when the King shall come in His glory and we can hear Him say: "Come, ye blessed of my Father; for I was sick, and ye visited me."

Edward Sessom, Representative

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOMES FOR THE AGING

The day that North Carolina Baptists launched a ministry to the aging fourteen years ago was a good day indeed. Since that time four Homes for the Aging have come into being, and a fifth one is in the making. Many elderly people have been blessed by this compassionate ministry through the years, and today 160 people are in residence at Resthaven, and the Hayes Home in Winston-Salem, the Albemarle Home in Albemarle, and the Hamilton Home in Hamilton. When the proposed new Home at Yanceyville is completed, there will be capacity for 200. It is anticipated that construction will begin on the Yanceyville Home during 1965.

This labor of Christian love and nurture is ours together, and we could not operate without the concern, the prayers, and the financial support of our Baptist people. This financial aid from the churches comes to us through two very vital avenues — the Special Day Offering, received on the third Sunday of February each year, and the Cooperative Program. Special Day Offering receipts for 1964 were at an all-time high and exceeded $96,000.00. Through these gifts we were able to supplement from 80% to 90% of our needy residents who could not be with us otherwise.

It is urgently hoped that the Special Day Offering for 1966 will be the greatest ever, especially in view of the pressing and ever-increasing needs of the aging in our midst who seek our help. The waiting list now is 175 and grows almost daily.

As the great heart of the Saviour yearns for all in the various areas of human need, we are grateful that He has commissioned us to include also a special ministry to the aged among us. We have responded to His plea, we are giving an answer to Him for these elderly people who are very dear to Him, and we pray that every church in our State Baptist Convention will be very careful to give increasing emphasis to this vital ministry.

Jack L. Bullard, Representative

47. The final message of the 160th annual session of the Raleigh Association was brought by Ben C. Fisher, Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Education of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. In convincing style he elaborated on the contribution that our seven Baptist colleges have made and are making to the religious life of our State and its impact on our denominational program throughout the world. He called attention to the fact that our colleges are the oldest institutional witnesses. In citing the needs that surround our colleges, the speaker reminded us that man is a special order in God's creation and that he has gained ascendancy through scientific inquiry. The Executive Secretary asserted that the need for expanded facilities to meet the demand of additional thousands of young people who seek training at Christian colleges requires the whole-hearted support of North Carolina Baptists. The report follows.

Colleges Produce Lay-Leadership

During the past year the contribution of Baptist colleges to Christian lay-leadership in church and community has been strongly emphasized. Our seven Baptist colleges, to date, have graduated more than 45,000 men and women.

Many of these graduates are not only filling responsible places of leadership in their churches, but are exerting a profound influence on religious, moral, and ethical life of communities in which they live. All during the past year testimonies have continued to come in from teachers, doctors, lawyers, industrialists, artists, musicians, homemakers, and many other categories too numerous to name. All of these testimonies assert two things: attending a Christian college gives a closer tie to the local church, and a greater sense of responsibility for Christian citizenship in the local community.

Denominational Leadership

The Christian Education Day theme for 1966 will be centered around the contribution of Baptist colleges to denominational leadership. We have taken for granted that Baptist colleges are producing Christian vocational workers, and indeed they are. At the present time more than 500 students in the North Carolina Baptist colleges are volunteers for full-time Christian service and more than 100 of these volunteers want to be home or foreign missionaries. We have tended sometimes to forget that our current denominational leadership throughout the entire Southern Baptist Convention has been trained almost one hundred per cent in Baptist schools and colleges. During the coming months, leading up to Christian Education Day, the Council hopes to demonstrate the invaluable contribution which our colleges are making towards trained leadership for our Convention.

The Christian Education Day Offering

With the action of the Convention in 1964, the Christian Education Day offering became an approved offering on the par with all other special offerings in our Convention. Because the Christian Education Day offering is young in comparison to some of our older offerings, we are discovering that many of our churches are not observing either Christian Education Day or taking a special offering. We sincerely believe that one of the ways to help solve the financial problem of our Baptist colleges would be to increase substantially the Christian Education Day offering. Therefore, we urge you to make plans now for observing Christian Education Day on Father's Day next June. We also urge you to treat the special offering in your church as you do all other special offerings. If you pass out envelopes on the day of the special offering and take up a general offering, will you please do this? If in your church you make special offerings a budget item, will you please remember Christian Education along with the special offerings?

The Trustee Manual

Following up an assignment of two years ago, the manuscript for the Trustee Manual has been completed and is now being prepared for publication. Chapters include: The Trustee and the Denomination, Broad Responsibilities of the Trustee, The Trustee and the Administration, The Trustee — Finances and Promotion, The Trustee and the Board Meetings, The Trustee and the Faculty, The Trustee and Academic Freedom and Academic Responsibility, The Trustee and Accreditation, Guidelines for Choosing a President, The Trustee Getting Acquainted with his College, and The Trustee and the Student.

The Council Self-Study

The Council on Christian Education during the past three years has been engaged in a serious study in several important areas. A printed summary report will be ready for distribution before the Convention meets in November.

Included in this study will be a statement on the commitment, purpose, objectives in Christian higher education, the distinctive role of the Christian college, the distinctive role of the Christian teacher, function of the chapel on the Christian campus, a statement on academic freedom and responsibility, a study of faculty salaries and finances, and a special study of the Christian vocational worker and his needs. Many other areas are covered which would be too lengthy to include in this brief report. The Council has had the complete cooperation of the administration and the faculties of all our Baptist colleges in developing this study.

Colleges Assist Churches in a Special Way

Each Sunday from campuses all over the state, faculty members, administrative officers, and students move out into the churches to preach and assist the churches as supply pastors, Sunday School teachers, youth leaders, and special speakers in the area of missions, stewardship, and evangelism. Teachers, particularly in our colleges, welcome the opportunity to supply pulpits. If your church is without a pastor or if your pastor is ill or has to be away, then contact your nearest Baptist college. Either the president's office or the office of public relations will be delighted to recommend someone to help you out for these Sundays.

The Cooperative Program

Again, let it be emphasized that the Cooperative Program is the lifeline of Baptist colleges as it is equivalent each year to several million dollars of endowment. The Cooperative Program is the best way to support your colleges through your church. Soon our Convention leaders will announce another great five-year program of advance and achievement. The colleges are back of this program and will support it in every way.

Summary

Last year our colleges enrolled 14,395 students. Of these, 500 are volunteers for full-time Christian service. In addition to producing these trained Christian vocational workers, hundreds of graduates of the North Carolina Baptist colleges return to the local communities to become active leaders in church and civic affairs. Moreover, college faculties, administrators, and students render valuable services to our churches by filling pulpits, teaching study courses, and assisting in the development of stewardship, missions, and evangelism.

The Christian Education Day offers both an opportunity to learn about the colleges and a chance to increase financial support through the special offering. In 1966 the Christian Education Day theme will center around the contribution of Baptist colleges to denominational leadership. The North Carolina Baptist colleges will join hands with the General Board and other institutions and agencies of our Convention in promoting a new five-year program of advance, which is expected to be presented by Dr. Perry Crouch at the November Convention.
